- Phone: (915) 867-3311 (text/voice-mail)
 - If you do not get a response in a timely manner, please text or leave a voicemail.
 - If an emergency, heaven forbid, by all means.
 - Voicemail/text message:
 - Leave full name, class, and short message.
 - Without the above info - I will not respond.
- Emails:
 - Blackboard email (priority)
 - aaragones@utep.edu (secondary)

Instructors' Availability:

Hey - how goes it! Welcome to the class 'erbody! // Bienvenidos a todos!

We are here to help you without exception or condition. However, in order to provide help in an effective, efficient, and timely manner - you need to communicate with Mr. Frank . Let us know what's up.

If we do not know what the problem is or what the issue at hand is, we can't help you or work to find a solution. Accordingly, you have our information...use it.

If you call, leave your name, the class name and time, and call-back number. And, leave a brief message so that I can know what your comment, question, or concern is.

If you email, use the Blackboard email found in your Blackboard Shell. This way, we can make sure to answer your mail in a timely manner. We check this email at least three times each day.

Course Description:

- Examine the history of the public education system in the US, circa the 1920s.
- Interrogate education as an institution to see the embedded biases against people of color, namely against Latinas/os, African-Americans, and Chicanas/os.
- Consider the role of IQ-testing in qualifying and quantifying people's academic ability.
- Consider the role of standardized testing in qualifying and quantifying people's academic ability.
- How language is used to limit academic opportunity.
- Acknowledge that marginalized communities are not static and create their own agency for change.

Students will develop a number of skills to include critical thinking, reasoning, analysis, and maintaining a point of view, verbally and in writing. Additionally, this course will help students develop computer skills and electronic communication skills. All of the aforementioned are not only important to the course at hand - but also will serve you well throughout your university experience as well as in life after college.

Our small class size is a means to provide a comfortable, manageable, and positive environment where you will not only create networks but also friendships that will last beyond UTEP!

The concepts and skills will prepare you for not only for the points mentioned earlier concerning critical thinking and writing but also familiarize you with university resources and programs, both on and off campus as well as in the world at large.

Required Texts:

- Reading will also be made available in PDF format in Blackboard
 - Readings assigned in PDF format in Blackboard will be identified with (PDF)

Grading:

- A = 90-100%; B = 80-89%; C = 70-79%; D = 60-69%; F = 0-59%
 - You will receive a writing guideline for this class via Blackboard email, here with the syllabus, as well as a link within the Blackboard shell alongside the Course Syllabus.

Lecture:

- This will be done in either written form, audio/podcast, video or a combination thereof. These will be found in each Module/Section to provide direction and things to think about for a given section or module.

1. Attendance: Attendance and participation in class are required. In a virtual setting, your work is also your attendance. Accordingly, if your work is late or missing - that will count as an absence.
 - a. There are no make-ups for any assignments, quizzes, tests, presentations and so forth.
 - b. 3 absences = 1 letter grade drop from your final grade.
 - c. 4 absences = 2 letter grade drop from your final grade.
 - d. 5 absences = automatic F.
 - i. If you get an F before the drop date - it is up to you to drop.
 - ii. If you get an F after the drop date - you cannot be dropped from the class
2. Class meetings:
 - a. Class meetings: we will meet as a class using either MicroSoft Meetings or Zoom. I will keep you updated on this with ample time to allow your schedules to coordinate with a meet-up time. (this is not mandatory)
3. Dropping the Class: Students may drop the class and receive a "W" any time before October 30, 2020. It is the student's responsibility to drop/withdraw from the class.

4. Format of Written Work:

- ⇒ As this is a college-level course, I expect a certain level and quality of writing. Accordingly, in order to do well - you must explain your ideas in a clear, organized, and articulate manner.
- ⇒ Below are basic protocols for writing assignments in this class.

- black font
- Times New Roman 12 pt. font
- 1-inch margins, double-spaced.
- Paragraph = 3-5 or 4-7 sentences
- Paragraph = main idea and supporting sentences
- In-text citations = (author's last name, p. #).!?
- No cover pages - UNLESS you are using MLA or APA format, which then must be done correctly.
- No cover sheets or graphics of any kind - unless it's a chart or graphic specific to your topic.

5. Technical issues with Blackboard

- Any problems or issues with submitting/downloading/viewing anything on or related to Blackboard, students need to contact Tech Support before contacting the instructor.
- After contacting tech support, students should then notify the instructors.

6. Deadlines:

- Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date or as explained otherwise.
- All late work subject to the loss of one letter grade for each day it is late.

6. Academic Dishonesty:

- Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion.
- Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports.
- Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person's as ones' own.
- Collusion, involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from the University for such actions.

7. Students with Disabilities:

I will make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities, including learning disabilities. Please see me personally before or after class in the first two weeks or make an appointment, to discuss any special needs you might have. If you have a documented disability and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106 within the first two weeks for classes. For additional information please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass

Student Conduct: [From the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs]: Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at <http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules/homepage.htm>. We will have frequent discussions and students are expected to tolerate and respect the opinions of others. All students are expected to behave as responsible adults.

8. VPN Connection

- In this class you will access a number of videos that are housed at the UTEP library. The easiest strategy for you to access these videos is to create a VPN (Virtual Private Network) Connection. I have provided a VPN Connection link on the home page, which will assist you in creating your VPN account. The purpose of the VPN is to provide you with easy access to library sources when you are off campus. Click on the VPN Connection link, choose your operating system and follow the detailed instructions for creating your account.
- You can access instructions for how to set up the UTEP VPN on your personal computer here: <http://libguides.utep.edu/howdoi/vpn>

COVID-19 Precautions:

- (all classes) You must STAY AT HOME and REPORT if you (1) have been diagnosed with COVID19, (2)
- are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, or (3) have had recent contact with a person who has received a positive coronavirus test. Reports should be made at screening.utep.edu. If you know anyone who should report any of these three criteria, encourage them to report.
- If the individual cannot report, you can report on their behalf by sending an email to COVIDaction@utep.edu. (all classes) For each day that you attend campus—for any reason—you must complete the questions on the UTEP screening website (screening.utep.edu) prior to arriving on campus. The website will verify if you are permitted to come to campus. Under no circumstances should anyone come to class when feeling ill or exhibiting any of the known COVID-19 symptoms.
- If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible, and alternative instruction will be provided. Students are advised to minimize the number of encounters with others to avoid infection. 10 (all classes)
- Wear face coverings when in common areas of campus or when others are present. You must wear a face covering over your nose and mouth at all times in this class. If you choose not to wear a face covering, you may not enter the classroom.

- If you remove your face covering, you will be asked to put it on or leave the classroom. Students who refuse to wear a face covering and follow preventive COVID-19 guidelines will be dismissed from the class and will be subject to disciplinary action according to Section 1.2.3 Health and Safety and Section 1.2.2.5 Disruptions in the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. (classes with on-campus meetings) Please note that if COVID-19 conditions deteriorate in the City of El Paso, all course and lab activities may be transitioned to remote delivery.

Course Calendar

The following is subject to change. Any changes will be announced in class. If you are absent, you are responsible for finding out about any changes.

In the Syllabus and Course Calendar, assignments will be identified in the following manner"

- (PDF) = Articles in PDF format found in Blackboard
- Films and Podcasts will be identified accordingly and found in Blackboard
- ➔ Each week there will be assigned work that you must complete.
 - you will have a week to engage all assigned work....
