Instructor Bio:

Dr. Adriana Domínguez is a community-engaged artist-scholar-educator with the UTEP Department of Theatre and Dance. She focuses on the purpose of community and cultural engagement in the performing arts with a concentration on marginalized voices. Dr. Domínguez is the recipient of three National Endowment for the Arts grants, 14 institutional funding opportunities, and two Texas Commission on the Arts grants. Dr. Domínguez has initiated over 30 community-engaged theatrical projects, which have reached close to 50,000 community members. She has been honored with over 25 local, regional, and national awards, including the 2024 Kennedy Center Gold Medallion, the 2020 Texas Educational Theatre Association's Educator of the Year for Higher Education, and a Congressional Commendation. Dr. Domínguez has authored 16 publications, presented at over 40 conferences, and takes great pride in promoting access and excellence at UTEP by consciously centering her work on underrepresented groups and community-engaged practice in the performing arts. Recent projects include: The Miraculous Journey of Edward Tulane, And Then Came Tango, Los empeños de una casa, Heroes and Saints, Real Women Have Curves, Luna, El Toro y La Nina, A Christmas Carol, en la Frontera, and Cenicienta. She received her B.A. in Theatre Arts with a Minor in Secondary Education from the University of Texas at El Paso, her M.A. in Performing Arts Administration from New York University, and her Ph.D. in Curriculum & Instruction from New Mexico State University. Adriana has participated in theatre as an actress, director, producer, designer, and teacher at the elementary school, middle school, high school, and college level for over 30 years and couldn't imagine doing anything else.

Land Acknowledgement

As members of the University of Texas at El Paso community, we acknowledge that we are meeting on unceded Indigenous land. We would like to recognize and pay our respects to the Indigenous people with long ties to the immediate region: Lipan Apache, Mescalero Apache, Piro, Manso, Suma, Jumano, Ysleta del Sur Pueblo, Piro/Manso/Tiwa Indian Tribe of the Pueblo of San Juan de Guadalupe, and Tortugas Pueblo. We also acknowledge the nations whose territories include present day Texas: the Carrizo & Comecrudo, Coahuiltecan, Caddo, Tonkawa, Comanche, Alabama-Coushatta, Kickapoo, and the peoples of Chihuahua and northern Mexico from whom most/many of our students descend, such as the Rarámuri, Tepehuan, Wixarika and Nahuatlaca peoples. Finally, we recognize all of the American Indian and Indigenous Peoples and communities who have been or have become a part of these lands and territories here in Paso del Norte, on Turtle Island. The University of Texas at El Paso honors your history and cultures and we seek greater awareness of the myriad ways in which your legacy can guide us in fruitful partnerships and mutually fulfilling relationships.
