Incomplete policy:	An “I” (incomplete grade) can be considered only if requested by the student in advance of the conclusion of the course and only for legitimate, documented emergencies . Failure to request and negotiate the terms of an “Incomplete” grade before the conclusion of the course will result in a denial except in the most extraordinary circumstances.
Attendance:	It is expected that all students enrolled in HSCI 2302 Fundamentals of Nutrition to participate in all instructional activities. Online courses are no different from classroom courses regarding attendance. Participation must be defined accordingly. Students’ “attendance” on online courses will be defined as active participation on the course as described in the course syllabus. Online courses will have at minimum, weekly mechanism for student participation, which can be documented by any or all the following methods: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Student participation in overall course 2. Student participation in discussion boards 3. Submission/completion of assignment and evaluations 4. Communication with the instructor Students who do not log on to the course within the drop/add period for the course will be dropped from the course. Students who fail to maintain an active participation in an online course as defined in the course syllabus will be processed in accordance with the university’s current attendance policy. Other Attendance Policy: Class participation is a mandatory component of this course. It is the student’s responsibility to get all assignments and/or class notes. Not knowing about an exam or assignment due date because lack of participation in the course is not a valid excuse.
Reading assignments:	All assigned readings need to be completed prior to coming to the next scheduled class session. Example: the reading assignments for week 2 need to be completed prior to coming to the week 2 class session.
Writing standards	Effective public health leaders and practitioners are also effective written as well as oral communicators. Written communication is a critical element of the communication process. Our MPH graduate program both recognizes and expects good writing to be the norm for course work. Please feel free to seek out assistance from the UTEP Writing Center. It is free and they are very helpful.
Policy for late assignments	Due dates for homework, exams, presentations and other assignments are designed for fairness to all students. No exceptions to those dates will be made except in cases of university-designated closures. All assignments due dates are specified in the course calendar. Please see additional documents. Once the assignment is closed, it will not be reopened unless
