RECOMMENDED TEXTBOOK

There is no required textbook for this class. All required class readings, videos, websites, etc. are provided on our Blackboard course (open access) within the associated folders. If you want a textbook or feel like a textbook would assist in your learning (again, completely optional), I recommend Family Violence: Legal, Medical, and Social Perspectives (9th Edition) by Harvey Wallace, Cliff Roberson, and Julie L. Globokar.

Reference: Wallace, H., Roberson, C., & Globokar, J. L. (2019). Family violence: Legal, medical, and social perspectives (9th Ed). Routledge.

REQUIRED READINGS AND MATERIALS

This class uses an Open Educational Resources format, which means all required readings, videos, websites, etc. are provided on the course Blackboard at no cost to students.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Catalog Description: This course surveys definitions, prevalence, and theories of family violence in the United States. Special emphasis is given to 1) the impact of variation in definitions of family violence on scientific research and conclusions; 2) the societal response to family violence; and 3) the effectiveness of policing strategies of domestic violence.

Class Description: This course provides students with an overview of one of society's largest hidden problems—family violence. The course delivers foundational knowledge related to theoretical, historical, and sociological issues related to family violence. Using an intersectional approach, the course covers specific topics including: 1) historical, theoretical, and methodological approaches to family violence, 2) types of family violence including child abuse and neglect, sibling abuse, intimate partner violence, stalking, and elder abuse, and 3) social and criminal justice responses to family violence.

COURSE OBJECTIVES OR EXPECTED LEARNING OBJECTIVES

This course is designed to help you achieve the following specific learning outcomes:

1. Understand key concepts and terminology related to family violence
2. Understand family violence, including its historical background and methodological approaches
3. Describe theoretical explanations and possible causes of family violence and their effects on the justice system and society as a whole
4. Identify and assess different types of family violence
5. Critically analyze social and criminal justice policies, programs, and interventions related to family violence

COURSE FORMAT

This course is administered as a face-to-face class and regular attendance is expected of all students. Class starts promptly at 12:00pm. If you are unable to attend class at 12:00pm during the semester because of work or other commitments, I recommend that you look for alternative course options.

Discussion will be a primary component of this course. The purpose of class discussion is to foster critical thinking and evaluation of important issues related to family violence. It is expected that each and every student will help facilitate healthy discussion by respecting other students and their opinions. Disrespect towards the professor and/or other students during class time will not be tolerated.

REQUIRED ASSIGNMENT INFORMATION

1) Syllabus Quiz: 10 points

There will be one syllabus/plagiarism quiz in the semester. The quiz will be administered through Blackboard, and it will consist of 10 multiple choice and true/false questions pertaining to the information presented in the syllabus. Each question is worth 1 point and comprises 10 points of your final grade. The quiz is not timed, and you may take the quiz as many times as you want. The syllabus quiz is due by 11:59pm on Monday, January 22nd.

2) Weekly Takeaways: 120 points

Reading and viewing all assigned material are integral parts of higher education because it introduces you to course concepts and provides a foundation for meeting the course objectives. As such, there are assigned readings, videos, websites, etc. almost every week of the semester. Assigned materials must be completed prior to attending class and you must spend time thinking about them each week. In order to meet this objective, you will address the following prompts for the weekly materials:

- (1) Write one detailed summary paragraph (approximately 5-7 sentences) that highlights key takeaways from the assigned readings/videos/etc. This paragraph should include material from each assigned reading/video/etc. for the week and it should illustrate your understanding of the content.
- (2) Write one detailed reflection paragraph (approximately 5-7 sentences) on the assigned material. What things stood out or surprised you the most? It could be a quote, a story, or something that make you think about the topic in a different way. It might be a tool or strategy that you want to remember for the future. Take this time to reflect on the assigned material.
- (3) Construct two thought-provoking discussion question (not yes/no) based on the assigned reading. Your questions can be centered around the topic itself, theory, research, practice, policy, or other relevant aspects.

There will be 13 weekly reading checks (each worth 10 points), 12 of which will count toward your final grade. Weekly Takeaways must be completed as a Microsoft Office Word document (.doc or .docx) and submitted via the SafeAssign link on Blackboard by 11:59am on Tuesdays of each assigned week (see course calendar for specific dates). At the end of the semester, I will drop the lowest score from the gradebook.

3) Application Assignments: 150 points

There will be three application assignments over the course of the semester including an infographic, an annotated playlist, and a media critique. Each application assignment is worth 50 points for a total of 150 points. These assignments allow you to demonstrate that you can analyze, synthesize, and apply information learned in the course and present it to a hypothetical audience. Detailed instructions for each application assignment are posted on Blackboard. Specific due dates and times for each application assignment are provided in the course calendar.

4) In-Class Activities and Participation: 100 points

This course is administered in a face-to-face modality—students are expected to attend class and participate. Student participation involves a combination of attendance, class activities, and discussions. While participation is not scheduled in the course calendar, students must be physically in class to obtain these points. Students are responsible for arriving to class on time, staying until class is dismissed, and making sure work is submitted during class. Participation points missed due to absence, tardiness, or leaving early cannot be made up unless there is a university excused absence. Please note that work, transportation trouble, parking issues, etc. are not university excused absences. Participation points will begin on Tuesday, January 23rd, will be offered every class period, and accrue over the semester. Students can earn up to 100 participation points over the semester.

5) Extra Credit

There may be extra credit opportunities made available at my discretion throughout the semester. If offered, extra credit opportunities will be available to the entire class. Individual level basis opportunities will not be provided.

COURSE GRADING

Final grades will be calculated based on TOTAL POINTS earned across all assignments outlined below and completed extra credit. You are responsible for obtaining the grade that you want in this class.

CLASSROOM POLICIES

Attendance Policy: Your success in this course is contingent on attending class regularly and participating in a meaningful way. As discussed above, participation points accrue over the duration of the semester. Points missed due to absence, tardiness, or leaving early cannot be made up. Please notify me by email if you are unable to attend class. Students are responsible for all course material covered in their absence and to ensure that assignments are still submitted on time.

Late Work Policy: Each of you have two imaginary “tokens” that you can trade in for the opportunity to submit the syllabus quiz, weekly takeaways, or application assignments late. Tokens cannot be used on the weekly required material checks or missed participation points. You must email me within 24 hours of the original due date to notify me that you want to “use” one of your tokens. Any requests to use a token outside of the 24 hours will be handled at my discretion.

Email Policy: The best way to contact me is through UTEP email. During the week (Monday – Friday) you can expect an answer from me within 24 hours. If you email me after 5:00pm, on the weekend, or a university holiday, expect a response the next business day. A few email guidelines:

- 1) Email me from your UTEP account;
- 2) Use my appropriate name (Dr. Goodson or Professor Goodson);
- 3) Identify yourself and your class (hint, this class is CRIJ 3321: Family Violence);
- 4) Clearly state your question or explain why you are emailing;
- 5) Always check the syllabus to see if your question can be answered!

This article helps with email etiquette: <https://medium.com/@lportwoodstacer/how-to-email-your-professor-without-being-annoying-af-cf64ae0e4087>

Be proactive in communication – please let me know if you find that you are having trouble keeping up with the material as this will allow us time to find a solution. Finally, it is your responsibility to check your UTEP email every day for important announcements or class updates.

Technology Requirements and Policies: Laptops may be used only for the purpose of note-taking or other course-related activities. If students are caught using their laptops for anything non-school related, the student will lose their privilege to do so permanently. Cell phones and headphones are not permitted for use in the classroom. Should you be observed texting or wearing headphones during class, you will be asked to leave the classroom.

Much of the course content will be available through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP email account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable Web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

At a minimum, you will need to have access to a computer/laptop. You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have a word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP’s Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

IMPORTANT: If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the UTEP Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students. Please do not contact me for this type of assistance. The Help Desk is much better equipped than I am to assist you!

Prohibition of Course Work Acquired Outside of Student's Own Work: Papers purchased, written by another individual, or written using or with the assistance of an artificial intelligence system or software (e.g., ChatGPT) are strictly prohibited in this course. Failure to follow this will be considered academic dishonesty. See the Scholastic Integrity section of this syllabus for more information about academic dishonesty and its consequences.

Classroom Materials and Recording Policy: To ensure free and open discussion of ideas, students are prohibited from recording class sessions without necessary, individual documentation from UTEP's CASS. Moreover, students are prohibited from taking pictures of or sharing classroom materials including, but not limited to class notes, PowerPoint slides, quizzes, exams, assignments, and any written, audio, and video materials developed by the professor. In individual cases where students have an accommodation for a recording device, use of recorded class content outside of the parameters of the course is prohibited. It will be for individual and educational purposes only and may be used solely for the student's own private use. Distribution or sale of any class material is prohibited without the written permission of the instructor and others who are recorded. Distribution without permission is a violation of educational privacy law.

Inclusive Course: This class will be taught in an inclusive and comfortable space that is intellectually challenging. As the professor, I will work to foster an environment that is supportive, accepting, respectful, and intellectually stimulating. However, these classroom goals are contingent on your active participation as well. I expect all students to contribute to the shaping of an inclusive, comfortable, and educational setting by honoring the diverse backgrounds, statuses, and experiences of your fellow classmates. With that said, let's be mindful of a few things: (1) do not talk while another is talking; (2) your opinion is not necessarily fact; and (3) effective communication requires active listening and evidence to support any claims (e.g., textbook readings, current events, articles, material from other classes, etc.). The field of criminal justice is characterized by a diverse continuum of perspectives, and the university educational experience requires that we examine issues from numerous angles. With this in mind, do not verbally attack another because their position is different than yours. Instead, practice refining your discussion/debate skills by becoming more informed about issues that interest you (even better, practice taking the alternative position and defending it). These are invaluable skills which are useful both professionally and interpersonally.

UNIVERSITY POLICIES

Class Attendance: According to UTEP Curriculum and Classroom Policies, "Students are expected to attend all classes and laboratory sessions. It is the responsibility of the student to inform each instructor of extended absences. When, in the judgment of the instructor, a student has been absent to such a degree as to impair his or her status relative to credit for the course, the instructor may drop the student from the class with a grade of “W” before the course drop deadline and with a grade of “F” after the course drop deadline.” I will not drop you from the course. However, if you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar’s Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an “F” for the course.

Per the university policy, excused absences include university-recognized activities (e.g., sports, band, professional conference, etc.), religious holy day, and military leave. Students must follow the required process and guidelines for notifying the instructor of these absences. Missing class due to work, transportation issues, etc. are not excused absences.

Incomplete Grade Policy: Incomplete grades may be requested only in exceptional circumstances after you have completed at least half of the course requirements. Talk to me immediately if you believe an incomplete is warranted. If granted, we will establish a contract of work to be completed with deadlines.

Accommodations Policy: The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students with documented disabilities or who become pregnant in accordance with state and federal regulations and University policy. Accommodations that constitute undue hardship are not reasonable. Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability or pregnancy must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, or email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

Scholastic Integrity: Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, using previously submitted academic work, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution \(OSCCR\) for possible disciplinary action.

Copyright Statement for Course Material: All materials used in this course are protected by copyright law. The course materials are only for the use of students currently enrolled in this course and only for the purpose of this course. They may not be further disseminated.

Mandatory Reporting: Under Title IX of the 1972 Education Amendments to the United States Code, I am required to report sexual assault, domestic violence, and stalking to campus administrators. Confidential help is available should you need it through the UTEP Counseling

and Psychological Services or the National Domestic Violence Hotline (1-800-799- SAFE). An additional resource includes the Center Against Sexual and Family Violence. Under Texas law, I am required to report child and elder abuse and the maltreatment of persons with disabilities. Texas law says anyone who thinks a child, or person 65 years or older, or an adult with disabilities is being abused, neglected, or exploited must report it to DFPS. A person who reports abuse in good faith is immune from civil or criminal liability. The Texas Department of Family and Protective Services (DFPS) keeps the name of the person making the report confidential. Anyone who does not report suspected abuse can be held liable for a misdemeanor or felony. Time frames for investigating reports are based on the severity of the allegations. Reporting suspected abuse makes it possible for a family to get help. Here is a link to allow for such reporting and for further information:

http://www.dfps.state.tx.us/Contact\_Us/report\_abuse.asp

Course Resource: UTEP provides a variety of student services and support. Please see below.
