Instructor Introduction

I am a painter. I received my MFA from Pratt Institute and my BA with a major in painting from Yale University. I have exhibited my work in New York, Europe and El Paso. I have been teaching at the University of Texas El Paso since 1998. Prior to that I taught at the New School for Social Research in New York City and at the Maine College of Art, Portland Maine.

Course Description

Painting 2301 is an introduction to the discipline of painting. You will learn basic techniques of acrylic and oil painting as well as a better understanding of the range and possibilities of painting as a means of expression.

In the first part of this class you will be given specific assignments to help you develop the skills you need to paint. Building on the skills you have acquired in your Basic Drawing classes you will learn to see form and color more accurately and to translate that experience 2 dimensionally with paint.

To do this we will work through a series of quick, small paintings from still lifes and from nature to help you become familiar with oil paint and to focus on various techniques of mixing color and applying paint. You will be expected to work on paintings in class and at home. I will talk with you individually about your work and we will have weekly group crits.

In the second part of the term we will work on larger pieces addressing particular expressive concerns. You will be asked to respond to the work of contemporary artist and to think of your own work's position in contemporary visual culture.

This class will emphasize the development of your analytical skills and you will learn to meaningfully engage in critiques of your own and other students work.

Course Prerequisite Information

The prerequisites for Painting 2301 are: ARTF 1302, 1302, ARTF 1303, 1302 or instructor's approval. ARTF 1303 and 1304 may be taken concurrently with PNTG 2301.

Course Goals and Objectives

The goals and objectives of Painting 1 include:

- *Further development of the ability to accurately see color and form, and the skills to render them 2-dimensionally
- *Experience in handling oil paint.
- *Development of successful compositions and a rich and nuanced use of color, form and line.
- *Exposure to art historical precedents and contemporary artists, particularly in painting.
- *Consideration and development of personal imagery.
- *Continued growth in the ability to think and speak critically about artworks.
- *Continued development of work ethic and commitment needed to succeed in achieving the above stated goals.

Course Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course:

- *Will have a basic level of experience and competency in handling oil paint
- Will have acquired an ability to render visual experiences in paint
- *Will be familiar with color terminology and have the skills to use color to build form.
- *Will have a greater understanding of the contemporary art world and contemporary concerns regarding painting.
- *Will have the ability to critically assess their own and other's work.

Course Requirements

Your grade will be determined by the quality of your work, your effort and commitment and your professionalism: ability to complete work on time and attendance.

The smaller paintings that we work on before mid-term will make up your mid-term grade and will count towards 40 % of your final grade. Your 2 larger pieces will each count for 20 %; so together will make up 40% of your final grade.

Your participation in critiques and the effort you show in your own work will make up the remaining 20%.

All graded assignments will be announced at least a week prior to when they are due. The exact dates and pacing of the class will be the time it takes us to complete each project.

Course Policies

Regular attendance is required. Still life set ups, critiques, slides and in-class comments are impossible to make up. Art Department policy allows for 3 excused absences. A 4th absence lowers your grade a full point, a 5th two points a 6th absence will cause you to fail the class.

Arriving to class more than 10 minutes late or leaving early will count as a half absence.

Incompletes, Withdrawals, Pass/Fail:

Incompletes or “I” grades will be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All “I” grades are at the discretion of the instructor and the approval of the Department chair.

Students hold the full responsibility for withdrawing from this course if that procedure is elected. Withdrawals must be completed on or before the final date to drop a course with a W. (See calendar at the end of the syllabus.) Students missing this deadline will be issued a grade for their performance in the course.

This is a grade-based course and is not available for audit or pass/fail options.
