Instructor Introduction

Professor Perry has a long-standing passion for the visual arts. She studied art history at the University of New Mexico, where she received her M. A. in Pre-Columbian art. She has taught a variety of art history courses at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln and here at UTEP. She and her family have lived in El Paso for many years.

Course Description

This course is an introduction to the rich and varied history of Spanish Colonial art and architecture of Mexico and its hinterland---the US Southwest. Major monuments and art objects in a variety of media will be studied in terms of style, iconography and original cultural context. This class is geared to students at the Junior-Senior level from all academic disciplines with an interest in the artistic heritage of Latin America. Students need not have had any prior experience in art to succeed in this class; however, because some of the material presented in class is not duplicated in textbooks, regular attendance at lectures, note taking and participation in class discussions are fundamental to an understanding of the material presented in this course.

Course Format: In Class and Online

Course material is presented in a lecture format, utilizing visual material in the form of digitized images. Discussion of and an exchange of ideas about the material presented is enthusiastically encouraged. This is a technology- enhanced course: students will utilize the online environment, Blackboard, to access readings and essay assignments, to review works for exams, and to view announcements and other communications from the instructor.

Course Prerequisite Information

Students with Junior or Senior status and above may enroll in this course. Graduate students will be required to complete additional work in order to receive graduate credit for this course.

Course Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this course will have:

- a basic knowledge of major monuments of Spanish Colonial art in Mexico and the US Southwest in a variety of media, including architecture.
- basic competency in the fields of stylistic and iconographic analysis of works of art, which they may apply to further classroom or viewing experiences.
- the opportunity to improve written expression and critical thinking skills, leading to increased competency and confidence in the articulation of ideas.
- a deeper understanding of the methods of making and issues surrounding the creation of works of art.

Course Requirements

Required Texts and Materials

1) Weekly readings are assigned from the following texts:

Donna Pierce et. al., Painting a New World: Mexican Art and Life 1521-1821
James Early, Presidio, Mission and Pueblo: Spanish Architecture and Urbanism in the United States

2) Various readings in PDF format are available in Blackboard (Content)

3) Images required for exams are available in Blackboard (Content)

4) Material presented in lectures is often not available in the assigned textbooks.

Students are therefore required to bring either a notebook or recording device to class.

Exams

There will be three exams in this course, which will constitute 75% of your overall grade. These exams will not be cumulative, but will only cover material from each section.

Exams may consist of the following: slide identifications, slide comparisons, discussions and an essay. Tentative dates for the first two exams are indicated in the following calendar. Be advised that these dates can change. The final exam will be given in our regular classroom on Wednesday, December 13th from 10:00 am to 12:45 pm. Specific images that you are required to know for these exams are available in the BLACKBOARD Content section.

Paper

25% of your course grade consists of an 8-10 page research paper on a US Southwest mission church of your choosing. Your discussion will include a brief description of the church and its original context (the mission complex) and a comparison of your church with Mexican and other US southwestern mission churches. Your paper is due in class on Wednesday, December 6th. See page 9 for specific details of the assignment.

Course Policies

Attendance Policy:

The College of Liberal Arts policy on attendance is very clear:

“The student is expected to attend all classes and laboratory sessions.” It is the responsibility of the student to inform each instructor of extended absences. When in the judgment of the instructor, a student has been absent to such a degree as to impair his or her status relative to credit for the course, the instructor may drop the student from the class with a grade of “W” before the course drop deadline and with a grade of “F” after the course drop deadline.”

Because attendance at lectures is crucial to your successful completion of this course, the following stipulations have been adopted:

- Attendance will be taken at each class meeting.
- More than 3 absences will result in the student’s final average being lowered by 5 points.
- More than 7 absences may result in the student being dropped from the class with either a “W” or an “F”
- Information missed during an absence is the sole responsibility of the student. Borrow notes from a classmate if you miss a lecture.

Classroom Etiquette:

- Cell phone use is not permitted during lectures.
- Food and beverages are allowed in this classroom, provided that each student takes responsibility for keeping their area clean.
- Chronic tardiness is disruptive and rude. Please inform your instructor if you find yourself in a situation that is going to result in your frequent late arrival to class.

Exam Etiquette:

- Be in your seat and ready to begin on time. Latecomers may not have access to the images they have missed.
- Please make sure that your phone is turned off.
- Take home essays are due on exam day, unless specified otherwise.
- Take home essays are to be written in the student’s own words. Original wording and ideas taken from sources other than lectures must be cited. Using someone’s idea or original wording and passing it off as your own is plagiarism. Plagiarism is not tolerated in this course. Students who plagiarize any portion of an essay will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution for disciplinary action.

PLAGIARISM/ACADEMIC DISHONESTY STATEMENT

Cheating/Plagiarism: Cheating is unethical and not acceptable. Plagiarism is using information or original wording in a paper without giving credit to the source of that information or wording: it is also not acceptable. Do not submit work under your name that you did not do yourself. You may not submit work for this class that you did for another class. If you are found to be cheating or plagiarizing, you will be subject to disciplinary action, per UTEP catalog policy. Refer to <http://www.utep.edu/dos/acadintg.htm> for further information.

Policy for Make-up Exams:

Make-up exams are only offered by arrangement and approval of the instructor. In order to merit a makeup exam the student must meet one of the following criteria:

- Student is absent due to their serious illness. The makeup request must include a doctor's note. Routine doctor and dentist visits will not be considered as valid excuses for missing an exam.
- Student is absent due to a family crisis, such as a death in the immediate family. Documentation must be provided.

Absences due to work related and child-care issues do not entitle the student to a makeup exam. Makeups are given during the instructor's office hours. As per official UTEP policy, no makeups will be given for the final exam. NO EXCEPTIONS.

Policy for Extra Credit:

I do not offer extra credit for this course.

Incompletes, Withdrawals, Pass/Fail Policies

- Incompletes or I grades will be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All I grades are at the discretion of the instructor and the approval of the Department chair.
- Students hold the full responsibility for withdrawing from this course if that procedure is elected. Withdrawals must be completed on or before the final date to drop a course with a W. Students missing this deadline will be issued a grade for their performance in the course.
- ARTH 3355 is a grade-based course and is not available for audit or pass/fail options.

PAPER ASSIGNMENT

Write an 8-10 page paper on a Colonial mission church of your choosing in the US Southwest (choose from the list of missions posted on Blackboard). You will first briefly describe the general setting of the church (layout and composition of the mission complex). Then you must discuss the specific characteristics of the mission church proper, including its construction, exterior architectural style and decoration, as well as interior decoration. Consider the relationship of your chosen mission church to churches of Mexico. How is your chosen example similar to 16th-century Mexican mission churches studied in class? How is it different? Consider the stylistic influences apparent in the construction and decoration. Does it, for example, reflect Baroque or Neoclassical styles rather than 16th-century church styles? Equally important to your discussion is your church's reflection of the cultural and stylistic trends at mission complexes in the US Southwest, as summarized in lectures and in your text. Consider construction, types and significance of exterior and interior decoration, as well as any features that are specifically southwestern in nature.

This is a research paper, but your discussion must reflect YOUR observations and thoughts about the subject. I want to hear your voice as I read your text. Make sure that you cite each and every source of original thought or wording that is not your own, but do not include lengthy quotations in the body of your text. A paper that is wholly or in part copied from any text is unacceptable, and will be returned to you without a grade. Include footnotes and a proper bibliography of works consulted. If you choose to include illustrations for comparative purposes, place them at the end of the paper, not in the text. Illustrations will not count toward the required page length of your paper. Your typed, proofread and grammatically correct paper is due in class on Wednesday, December 6th. Late papers will be subject to grade penalties.

Please format your paper as follows:

- 12 pt. font
- 1 1/2 or double-spaced
- 1" margins on top, bottom and sides
- Indent 5 spaces at the beginning of each paragraph; do not set off paragraphs with empty spaces between them.
- Include a title page with your name, class, and title of your essay.
- Use Chicago Style notes and bibliography. For information about Chicago Style footnotes and bibliography, consult:
