Course Description

Students will study the interpretation of percussion literature and develop the skills necessary to ensure accurate and expressive performance. Students receive one 60-minute lesson per week. A minimum of twelve lessons are required for the fifteen week semester. Faculty reserve the right to schedule students in a group-lesson format as deemed necessary. Students are also required to attend studio, area, and departmental recitals, announced studio classes, peer senior recitals, and guest artist clinics. The UTEP Percussion Faculty provides a standardized curriculum for percussion studies within a 4-year degree program found in the Percussion Studio Handbook. This curriculum outlines jury barriers and provides a guide for study. However, repertoire will vary according to the level and ability of each student. See the UTEP Percussion Studio handbook for required and suggested materials by level of study. Students will study at least two major areas of percussion during the course of one semester (see instrument rotation below). None of the credits can be repeated for credit toward graduation. An individual instruction music fee is charged each semester (see fees and financial information).

Goals

The percussion student will develop technical proficiency and musicianship on mallet keyboards, snare drum, and a third area (i.e. drum-set, timpani, vibraphone) sufficient to perform a music major entrance audition. Upon successful acceptance as a music major in percussion, these skills shall be developed in combination with pedagogical and practical knowledge, and augmented by a comprehensive degree program with the end goal of graduating a versatile, adaptive percussionist and complete musician prepared for a career in music as well as graduate study.

Objectives

Complete methods and solo repertoire consistent with the “selected repertoire” listed in the UTEP Percussion Studio Handbook.

Perform and pass a music major entrance audition meeting UTEP Percussion Studio entrance requirements and progress into lower-level individual instruction (MUSA 1195).

Students in pre-major lessons have two semesters to successfully advance into MUSA 1195. Students failing to meet this requirement will be required to pursue an alternate major field of study.

Policies

Recommended practice time - minimum 12 hours per week.

All students are encouraged to keep a practice log and to bring the practice log to each lesson. Periodically, any student may be required to produce this log as determined by the instructor.

You must show up to lessons to get a grade. Being professional is the key. If you need to reschedule, please contact the instructor as soon as possible in advance of the lesson.

Alternate lesson times will be arranged when the instructor has a conflict. Unexcused absences will not be made-up and will be treated as a failing grade for that week of study.

Students are encouraged to perform one studio recital (or area recital) per semester.

Required Materials

Students will be responsible for supplying their own mallets, music, and other lesson materials.

Students are expected to purchase assigned methods and repertoire in a timely manner.

Membership in the Percussive Arts Society is recommended for all students taking applied lessons in percussion. Backstage Pass recommended; VIP Pass preferred. <http://www.pas.org/membership/member-services/individualmembership.aspx>

See UTEP Percussion Studio Handbook for a list of required materials specific to each area of study (mallet keyboards, timpani, snare drum, drum-set, etc.)

Smart Music Subscription ($40) if assigned by instructor.

Membership in the RSO, West Texas Percussion Club is strongly encouraged.

Required Methods (May be substituted with equivalents as assigned) Peters, Mitchell,

Fundamental Method for Mallets

Freytag, Edward, Rudimental Cookbook

See the specific method book syllabus available on Blackboard for a 12-week breakdown of assignments for each method book where applicable, e.g. Peters' Fundamental Method for Mallets.

Suggested Materials (See suggested repertoire in studio handbook for additional methods and solos) Davila, Julie, Impressions on Wood

Cirone, Anthony, Portraits in Rhythm

Carrol, Raynor, Exercises, Etudes and Solos for Timpani.

Outcomes

Students will become proficient in sight reading, and performing the core percussion instruments, sufficient to pass a music major entrance audition. These instruments include snare drum (symphonic and rudimental), mallet keyboards (2-mallets), and an additional area (timpani, classical vibraphone, basic multi-percussion, or drum-set.) Students will meet expectations for scale proficiencies including all major scales, and the rudiment ritual.

Grading

The grade for applied lessons will be determined by 80% based upon weekly lesson to include Weekly lesson preparation (see grading rubric below)

Completion of assigned materials

Attendance

20% based upon Jury and recital performances and attendance
Studio event attendance

Completion of required performances

Semester Jury

The 12 lesson minimum will allow for two absences (requiring appropriate communication). Each additional absence will result in lowering by one full letter grade.

Attendance at Percussion Events

Applied students are required to attend all formal percussion recitals and percussion ensemble concerts. Unexcused absences will result in lowering the applied lesson grade. It is also a common courtesy to help tear down and assist in moving equipment after performances.

Applied Music Juries

Students are required to perform a jury each semester. They serve as the semester examination and give students an opportunity to demonstrate their progress in performance skills to the applied music faculty. The applied music jury consists of the applied music faculty who teach in the area of the student's concentration. Juries typically last 15 minutes including scales and technical skills, excerpts from assigned methods and performance repertory studied.

Applied Lesson Grading Rubric

The criteria for grading lessons will be as follows:

A – The student has fulfilled all requirements as specified by the syllabus. This includes any supplemental material assigned by the instructor. The student has performed the required material consistently without flaws in accuracy, pulse control, form, or other elements inherent to the music. Performer has done this with exceptional quality and musicianship. The student has demonstrated significant improvement in technique and understanding of the material relative to the student's abilities at the beginning of the semester. The student has gone above and beyond the call of duty by studying additional material, and coming to each lesson with new material. This means doing more work than what is required and demonstrating creative application of the materials presented. The student has perfect attendance.

B – The student has fulfilled all requirements as specified by the syllabus. This includes any supplemental material assigned by the instructor. The student has performed the required material consistently with two to three mistakes or breaks. The student has done this with acceptable quality and musicianship. The student has demonstrated noticeable improvement in technique and understanding of the material relative to the performer's abilities at the beginning of the semester.

C – The student has fulfilled all requirements as specified by the syllabus. This includes any supplemental material assigned by the instructor.

D – The student has failed to fulfill the requirements as specified by the syllabus. This includes any supplemental material assigned by the instructor. Performer has shown some acceptable degree of improvement in technique and understanding of the material relative to the performer's abilities at the beginning of the semester as determined by the instructor.

F – The student has failed to fulfill the requirements as specified by the syllabus. This includes any supplemental material assigned by the instructor. Performer has not demonstrated some acceptable degree of improvement in technique and understanding of the material relative to the performer's abilities at the beginning of the semester as determined by the instructor.

Attendance: One days notice is expected for any absence. It is at the discretion of the instructor to excuse an absence with exception to university policy. Any unexcused absences will result in the semester grade being lowered by one half-letter grade.
