Course Description

Commercial Music Workshop is the precursor to the Commercial Music Ensemble, an audition only ensemble at UTEP.

Course Goals

Students who complete this course successfully will be able to:

- Lead a band or contemporary ensemble.
- Understand how to “talk musically” to the different musicians in a commercial ensemble.
- Run a rehearsal with a commercial ensemble.
- Perform a commercial selection with the ensemble.

Required Texts, Materials, or Equipment

- Three ring binder/Ipad for music and notes
- Phone with ample space for recordings

Daily Work/Homework

- Write out charts for ensemble players
- Practice selections
- Memorize music

Commercial Music Ensemble

Assignments: Descriptions

- Depending on class size, weekly performance rehearsals with proper music in binder and chart copies for each musician

Class Participation

This class is an “open forum” style class. Students who are not performing will be asked to be involved either as back - up singers or extra instrumentalists depending on ability. During rehearsals students will be encouraged to offer ideas on arrangement, instrumentation, and other factors to help aid the performer at capturing his/her musical idea. All constructive criticism will be given with the utmost respect to the performer and musicians.

Course Grading

Grades are based on class participation, performances of songs in class, preparation of songs, binder organization, charts for musicians.

50% - Attendance and active participation in class

20% - Quality of preparation

20% - Binder preparedness/charts

10% - Final Concert

Grading Scale

90–100% = A

80–89% = B

70–79% = C

60–69% = D

0–59% = F

Attendance Policy

Two tardies equals one absence—Students are expected to arrive on time to all class meetings. Tardiness not only affects attendance grade, but also detracts from the learning experience.

Notification of absence—if a student is unable to attend class due to sickness or some other unforeseen circumstance, it is requested that they notify the professor. Each student is allowed one free absence before their attendance grade will be affected; any subsequent absence will reflect negatively on the student's attendance.

Unless an absence is due to a university sanctioned event and proper, signed notification is given in advance to the specified event, it will not be excused. If students are going to miss class due to a foreseen scholastic/university event, they must bring the appropriate signed document to the professor at least one week prior to the event.

The attendance portion of the grade (50% of the whole) will be calculated as indicated below. Be aware that if the student is not present, his/her participation grade will also suffer.

1 -2 absences = 90% - A

3-4 absences = 80% - B

5-6 absences = 70% - C

7-8 absences = 60% - D

9 or more absences = 50% - F

Academic Honesty

Email:

UTEP e-mail is the best way to contact me. I will make every attempt to respond to your e-mail within 24-48 hours of receipt. When e-mailing me, be sure to email from your UTEP student account. In the body of your e-mail, clearly state your question. At the end of your e-mail, be sure to put your first and last name, and your university identification number.

Excused absences and/or course drop policy:

According to UTEP Curriculum and Classroom Policies, "When, in the judgment of the instructor, a student has been absent to such a degree as to impair his or her status relative to credit for the course, the instructor may drop the student from the class with a grade of "W" before the course drop deadline and with a grade of "F" after the course drop deadline." See academic regulations in the UTEP Undergraduate Catalog for a list of excuse absences. Therefore, if I find that, due to non-performance in the course, you are at risk of failing, I will drop you from the course. I will provide 24 hours advance notice via email.

OR

I will not drop you from the course. However, if you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar's Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an "F" for the course.

Incomplete grade policy:

Incomplete grades may be requested only in exceptional circumstances after you have completed at least half of the course requirements. Talk to me immediately if you believe an incomplete is warranted. If granted, we will establish a contract of work to be completed with deadlines.

Accommodations policy:

The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, or email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

Scholastic integrity:

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution \(OSCCR\) for possible disciplinary action. To learn more, please visit HOOP: Student Conduct and Discipline.
