It is the policy of the finance department that all e-mails sent to professors or teaching assistants be of a professional nature and format. A formal greeting and salutation are required. Proper grammar, spelling, and format are required. You must clearly state the problem or question that will be addressed. You must identify the class, section, time, and location where the class meets. We reserve the right to not reply to any e-mail that does not meet these requirements and is not of a professional nature.

Textbook

Principles of Risk Management and Insurance; Pearson; 13th Edition, by George E. Rejda and Michael J. McNamara

Course Description

This course introduces the fundamental concepts of risk and insurance. Emphasis is placed on the fundamentals of insurance and personal risk management products, including life insurance, annuity, automobile insurance, and health insurance. In addition, the insurance company operations, including pricing, underwriting, and marketing, are presented as well.

Course Objectives

Upon completion of the course requirements, students should be able to:

- Identify appropriate methods of risk management.
- Explain the characteristics of insurance and insurable risks.
- Understand basic terminology of insurance and components of insurance contracts.
- Explain different functions in insurance company operations.
- Explain the rationale for policy design and provisions.
- Explain the major types of commercial insurance

Blackboard

I will use Blackboard to post important announcements and upload course materials. I expect you to check Blackboard daily. Make sure you receive Blackboard announcement emails in your inbox.

Class E-Mail

Each student is required to have the e-mail account that is associated with the Blackboard system up to date. Any class requirements sent in the e-mail messages through the Blackboard are considered delivered. You should check that e-mail account regularly.

Grade Components

Exam 1	22 points
Exam 2	22 points
Exam 3	22 points
Final Exam	24 points
In-class activities	10 points
Total	100 points

Exams:

If lowest score on Exams 1, 2 and 3 is less than Final Exam score, then the final exam score will be used in lieu of that low score. All exams will be closed-book, and no formula sheet is allowed. Students who miss an exam without a valid reason will receive a zero on that exam. Make-up exams will be allowed only with pre-approval of the instructor or with an acceptable, documented reason. Acceptable reasons for make-up exams include severe illness, family emergencies, or other unavoidable events, including dangerous weather conditions and car accidents. Exam format for make-up exams may be different from the original exam.

There will be a final exam during the scheduled final exam period. The final exam must be taken at the designated time. The only exceptions that will be made are for those students who have three or more exams scheduled on the same day, or two scheduled at the same time.

In-class activities

The In-class activities aim to help you understand the materials covered in the class and to prepare you for the exams. If you miss a class, for any reason, you cannot make-up in-class assignments.

Grade Scale

A	B	C	D	F
90-100+	80-89	70-79	60-69	0-59

Withdrawal Policy

A student may officially withdraw from this class with an automatic W at any time BEFORE November 1. No withdrawals will be allowed after this date. THIS IS UNIVERSITY POLICY. Automatic withdrawals will NOT be made by the instructor. To be withdrawn from the class, students must take the appropriate actions on or before the university deadlines.

Rules for Student Conduct

- Please arrive to class on time and do not leave before the class period has ended. Coming late or leaving early are disruptive behaviors and disturb others in the class. If you have extenuating circumstances and must arrive late, please take a seat as close to the entrance as possible. If you have an extenuating circumstance and must leave early, please let me know before class and, again, sit as close to the exit as possible so as not to disturb others when you leave.

- Don't talk with your colleagues. Talking is disruptive to other attendees and inconsiderate to the speaker.
- Silent your cell phone. Don't take calls during the meeting. Don't read or reply text messages either.
- Don't go out of the meeting for the restroom. Use the restroom before or after the meeting. If you are sick (e.g., diarrhea), inform the speaker about your problem before the meeting and sit close to the door.
- Be polite and polished. Don't curse and don't use slang.
- Participate.
- Don't pack your things until it has been indicated that the meeting is over. It is rude to start packing up, especially if there was a time set for the meeting and the time has not expired.

Students not following these rules may be asked to leave the classroom.

Students with Disabilities

If you have a disability and need classroom accommodations, please contact The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106. For additional information, please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass.

Scholastic Integrity

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty members insist on adherence to these standards.

Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, and the homepage of The Dean of Students (DOS) at www.utep.edu, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.

Campus Carry

Persons who hold a Concealed Handgun License can lawfully carry their gun into a UTEP classroom as long as it remains concealed. Open carry remains prohibited on campus. Should you feel someone is intentionally displaying a gun (or any other weapon for that matter), do not hesitate to call Campus Police (X 5611) or 9-1-1. For more information on campus carry, see <http://sa.utep.edu/campuscarry/>; for more information on overall campus safety, see <http://admin.utep.edu/emergency>.
