Attendance Policy

Students will be given daily grades for participation and progress in class. If a student is not in class (including tardiness), they will not receive credit for that class period. Of course, you will be excused for university-related events as long as they are approved by me at least two weeks in advance via email correspondence. DO NOT COME TO CLASS IF YOU ARE SICK. Each student will be given 3 excused absences due to illness; further absences can be made up on a case by case basis. Please stay in communication with me when you miss class for any reason.

Course Description

A performance experience focusing on development of skills needed by professional commercial musicians.

Course Objectives

1. Developing music performance skills within a collaborative environment.
2. Develop music skills through listening, analysis and performance.
3. Develop an understanding of music in an historical and cultural context.

Performance/Service Ensemble: This ensemble will develop original content by composing, arranging, and adapting music. This ensemble will perform on and off campus multiple times throughout the semester. Students selected for this ensemble will display leadership skills, will be able to work independently and collaboratively, will be able to create music through improvising, arranging and composing, and will be able to contribute something unique to the ensemble. Students will be expected to produce and promote all performances.

Grading

You will be graded on your preparedness and conduct at performances and rehearsals. There may be other assignments given throughout the semester.

Important Dates: November 29, 6PM set-up, 7:30PM recital
