COURSE GOALS, OBJECTIVES, AND TEACHING PHILOSOPHY.

Course Goal:

1. To provide the student with an awareness of the elements of the music that affects our lives every day;
2. To provide the student with an understanding of music's history and how music affects, and is affected by, culture and events worldwide;
3. To enable the student to discuss how and why music contributes to a better quality of life;
4. To foster a life-long love of music and a desire to support music and all of the arts.

Course Objective: Upon successful completion of the course, the student will be able to:

1. Understand and appreciate the complexities with which sound is used in film and the role of music as

- one element of a film's soundtrack;
2. Understand and appreciate the creation and use of music in cinema as both craft and art;
 3. Understand the unique challenges that composing for film presents;
 4. View a film with a critical ear for the film score and not as a passive viewer;
 5. Appreciate the contributions to the art by those who compose for both Hollywood films and foreign films.

I A grade of "I" (Incomplete) will be assigned only if the student provides documentation for a situation that prevents him or her from completing the requirements for a passing grade. These situation include, but are not limited to, hospitalization, incarceration, and military deployment.

COURSE POLICIES

The following policies apply to all of Dr. Leinberger's classes:

1. Attendance Policy
2. Assignment Policy
3. Classroom Policy
4. Final Exam Policy and Schedules
5. Each student should check his or her UTEP email account each day of the semester when registered for this class.

The following policies apply to this class:

6. Come to class on time and prepared.
7. Quizzes take place at the end of class almost everyday. If a student misses a quiz due to an excused absence (university function, medical emergency, car trouble, etc.), the student may take the quiz, but must do so before the next class meeting.
8. The Exams will be during class on Friday of Week 1 and Thursday of Week 3. Students will have one hour and twenty minutes to complete each exam.
9. Spoiler Alert: During the screening of some films, or parts of films, in class, students may learn the surprise endings of films that they have not yet seen in their entirety.
10. Some films, or parts of films, that are screened in class may contain profanity, violence, adult subject matter, sexuality, nudity, and depictions of acts of racism and sexism. Students who are easily offended by such content should consider enrolling in a music literature course other than MUSL 3332, Music and Film.
