Charles Leinberger: Ennio Morricone's The Good, the Bad and the Ugly: A Film Score Guide
James Wierzbicki: Film Music: A History

Required Equipment: Headphones: Earbuds are definitely not recommended. Students should invest in high-quality headphones. Noise-cancelling headphones, such as Bose, Sony, and Beats, are very strongly recommended. Bluetooth-enabled headphones are acceptable but not necessary and may cause a very slight delay between video and audio. Students will need reliable internet access and a very quiet place to study.

COURSE GOALS, OBJECTIVES, AND TEACHING PHILOSOPHY.

Course Goal:
1. To provide the student with an awareness of the elements of the music that affects our lives every day;
2. To provide the student with an understanding of music's history and how music affects, and is affected by, culture and events worldwide;
3. To enable the student to discuss how and why music contributes to a better quality of life;
4. To foster a life-long love of music and a desire to support music and all of the arts.

Course Objective:
1. Understand and appreciate the complexities with which sound is used in film and the role of music as one element of a film's soundtrack;
2. Understand and appreciate the creation and use of music in cinema as both craft and art;
3. Understand the unique challenges that composing for film presents;
4. View a film with a critical ear for the film score and not as a passive viewer;
5. Appreciate the contributions to the art by those who compose for both Hollywood films and foreign films.

GRADING

The final grade will be calculated according to the following point values:

- 12 Quizzes: 25 points each, totaling 300 points (37.5% of final grade)
- Exam 1: 100 points (12.5% of final grade)
- Exam 2: 100 points (12.5% of final grade)
- Final Exam: 300 points (37.5% of final grade)
- Total Points Possible: 800 points (100% of final grade)

Letter grades will be assigned based on the total number of points earned:

- A: 720-800 points (90.0-100.0%)
- B: 640-719 points (80.0-89.9%)
- C: 560-639 points (70.0-79.9%)
- D: 480-559 points (60.0-69.9%)
- F: 0-479 points (0.0-59.9%)
- W: A grade of "W" (Withdrawal) will be assigned only if a student drops the course before the Course Drop Deadline, which is the Friday of Week 3.
- I: A grade of "I" (Incomplete) will be assigned only if the student provides documentation for a situation that prevents him or her from completing the requirements for a passing grade. These situations include, but are not limited to, hospitalization, incarceration, and military deployment.

COURSE POLICIES

The following policies apply to all of Dr. Leinberger's classes:

1. Attendance Policy
2. Assignment Policy
3. Classroom Policy
4. Final Exam Policy and Schedules
5. Each student should check his or her UTEP email account each day of the semester when registered for this class.

The following policies apply to this class:

6. Come to class on time and prepared.
7. Quizzes and exams will be available in Blackboard. Students enrolled should log into MY.UTEP.EDU and click on "Blackboard." Once in Blackboard, depending on your browser, look for the menu on the left. Find "MUSL 3332" under "Courses."
8. There will be a quiz or exam almost every day. If a student misses a quiz or exam due to an excused absence (university function, medical emergency, car trouble, etc.), the student may take the quiz, but must do so before the next class meeting.
9. The Exams will be Monday of Week 2 and Thursday of Week 3. Students will have two hours and ten minutes to complete each exam.
10. Spoiler Alert: During the screening of some films, or parts of films, in class, students may learn the surprise endings of films that they have not yet seen in their entirety.
11. Some films, or parts of films, that are screened in class may contain profanity, violence, adult subject matter, sexuality, nudity, and depictions of acts of racism and sexism. Students who are easily offended by such content should consider enrolling in a music literature course other than MUSL 3332, Music and Film.
