Instructor Introduction

Welcome!

I am both happy and excited to welcome you to this course which is crucial to the understanding of how important the role that the arts play in the education of all students. I have been an Art Educator for many AWESOME decades. I have a BA in Art Education, with a teaching certification (all levels) from UTEP. I also hold Advanced Placement, TESOL and Special Populations Certifications. I hold a Master of Arts in Education. In addition to teaching at UTEP, I have taught graduate Art Education and Special Education courses at the University of Phoenix. Also, I presently teach high school visual art. I have been honored as campus teacher of the year, as one of the Top Ten Educators in the El Paso I.S.D. and awarded the E.P.I.S.D. Superintendent's Award of Excellence in Teaching.

Course Description

This course defines and provides a context for teaching and assessing students in the area of visual arts based on scope, sequence, and national and state standards. This is a foundation course that will examine the field of art education: its literature, trends, theories, and philosophies. This course also provides a hands-on experience in art procedures, including vocabulary and resources for the prospective teacher. Also presented will be; a format on lesson planning, classroom management strategies and assessments tools.

This course will address accommodations for diverse learners through learning styles and strategies in the art classroom.

The importance and role of the visual arts in the public school curriculum will be stressed through demonstrations, lectures, visuals and discussion. Though this course is not a studio art course, the student will be involved in a hands-on studio atmosphere while completing projects and assignments necessary to complete the course.

Attendance and Participation

Attendance, punctuality, participation and appropriate class conduct are considered performance criteria for this class. Failure to perform to the required standards will result in strong grade penalties and can result in failure of this course.

Attendance Policy:

- Each student is permitted 1 absence during the semester without penalty, but highly discouraged. (Missing one class period in a once a week program is equivalent to three regular classes and is difficult to make up). Students with more than 2 class absences should consider dropping this course and retaking it at a time when the student can commit the proper attention to the course.

- Each unexcused absence after one will result in the final course grade being lowered one full letter grade. Absences after the first one can be excused only if the first one is excused.
- Excused absences are defined as documented serious illness or death in the immediate family.

PLEASE E-MAIL ME AT: debhartmann@yahoo.com as soon as you know that you may be missing class.

Coming to class late or leaving class early is regarded and graded as being absent. All students are required to attend class on-time and to remain in class the entire time. Entering class late and leaving early is disruptive to the learning environment.

- Coming to class unprepared or attending class and not participating is regarded as absent.
- Information missed during an absence is the sole responsibility of the student.
- Daily grades of “0” are assigned to all absence days after the 2 permitted absences.

Course Participation:

Involvement in class discussions, presentations, and project effort in class activities will be assigned a grade for participation. The quality of contributions will be assessed based on the following criteria:

- Responses should show application of critical thinking skills.
- Responses should show application of theory to real life situations.
- Participation in all discussions and presentations are required for this course.
- Development and execution of class projects must be done utilizing class meetings. Projects executed solely out of class will not be accepted and receive a grade of zero.
- Responses should reflect knowledge of assigned readings

CLASS CONDUCT:

STUDENTS MUST HAVE CELL PHONES TURNED OFF OR ON SILENT MODE DURING LECTURES PLEASE!

Late assignments, Make-up Work

Late assignments, make-up work are only afforded in the case of excused absences by arrangement and approval of the instructor.

Incompletes, Withdrawals, Pass/Fail

- Incompletes or “I” grades will be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All “I” grades are at the discretion of the instructor and the approval of the Department chair.
- Students hold the full responsibility for withdrawing from this course if that procedure is elected. Withdrawals must be completed on or before the final date to drop a course with a W. Students missing this deadline will be issued a grade for the performance in the course.
- Introduction to Art Education is a grade-based course and is not available for audit or pass/fail options.
