Instructor Introduction

Welcome!

I am both happy and excited to welcome you to this course which is crucial to the understanding of how important the role the arts play in the education of all students. I have been an Art Educator for many AWESOME decades. I have a BA in Art Education, with a teaching certification (all levels) from UTEP. I also hold Advanced Placement, TESOL and Special Populations Certifications. I hold a Master of Arts in Education. In addition to teaching at UTEP, I have taught graduate Art Education and Special Education courses at the University of Phoenix. Also, I presently teach high school visual art. I have been honored as campus teacher of the year, as one of the Top Ten Educators in the El Paso I.S.D. and awarded the E.P.I.S.D. Superintendent's Award of Excellence in Teaching.

Course Description

This course defines and provides a context for teaching and assessing students in the area of visual arts based on scope, sequence, and national and state standards. This is a foundation course that will examine the field of art education: its literature, trends, theories, and philosophies. This course also provides a hands-on experience in art projects, art procedures, vocabulary and resources for the prospective teacher. Also presented will be a format on lesson planning, classroom management strategies and assessments tools.

This course will address accommodations for diverse learners through learning styles and strategies in the art classroom.

The importance and role of the visual arts in the public school curriculum will be stressed through demonstrations, lectures, visuals and discussion. Though this course is not a studio art course, the student will be involved in a hands-on studio atmosphere while completing projects and assignments necessary to complete the course.

Participants in the Introduction to Art Education 3307 course will create, design and implement sample lesson plans and projects in the visual arts for K-12 grade levels.

Attendance and Participation

Attendance, punctuality, participation and appropriate class conduct are considered performance criteria for this class. Failure to perform to required standards will result in strong grade penalties and can cause failure of this course.

Attendance Policy:

- Due to a once-a-week class, each student is permitted 1 absence during the semester without penalty, with the exception of the COVID ILLNESS. (Please see below). Students with more than 2 class absences should consider dropping this course and retaking it at a time when the student can commit the proper attention to the course.
- Each unexcused absence after 2 will result in the final course grade being lowered 1 full letter grade. Absences after the first 2 can be excused only if the first 2 absences are excused.
- Excused absences are defined as documented serious illness or death in the immediate family.
- Coming to class late or leaving class early is regarded and graded as being absent. All students are required to attend class on-time and to remain in class the entire time. Entering class late and leaving early is disruptive to the learning environment.

- Coming to class unprepared or attending class and not working is regarded as absent.
- Information missed during an absence is the sole responsibility of the student.
- Daily grades of “0” are assigned to all absences after the 2 excused absences.
- PLEASE E-MAIL ME AT: debhartmann@yahoo.com as soon as you know that you may be missing class.

*COVID-19 PRECAUTIONS****

- Please stay home if you have been diagnosed with COVID-19 or are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms. If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible, so that we can work on appropriate accommodations. If you have tested positive for COVID-19, you are encouraged to report your results to covidaction@utep.edu, so that the Dean of Students Office can provide you with support and help with communication with your professors. The Student Health Center is equipped to provide COVID 19 testing.
- The Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people in areas of substantial or high COVID-19 transmission wear face masks when indoors in groups of people. The best way that Miners can take care of Miners is to get the vaccine. If you still need the vaccine, it is widely available in the El Paso area, and will be available at no charge on campus during the first week of classes. For more information about the current rates, testing, and vaccinations, please visit epstrong.org

Course Participation:

- Involvement in class discussions, presentations, and effort in class activities will be assigned a grade for participation. The quality of contributions will be assessed based on the following criteria:
- Participation in all discussions and presentations is required for this course.
- Participation, development, and execution of ART projects must be done utilizing class meetings. Projects executed solely out of class will not be accepted and receive a grade of zero.
- Responses should reflect knowledge of assigned readings.
- Responses should show application of critical thinking skills.
- Responses should show application of theory to real life situations.

Late assignments, Make-up Work

Late assignments, make-up work are only afforded in the case of excused absences by arrangement and approval of the instructor.

Incompletes, Withdrawals, Pass/Fail
