I. Course Description

This course will promote critical thinking skills relative to the study and analysis of American Government and Politics. We will also briefly delve into Texas' cultural/ political history. Throughout the semester students will study the origin and development of the U.S. Constitution/Tx Constitution, its structure and the powers of the national government including the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, federalism, political participation, the national election process, public policy, civil liberties, and civil rights and federalism in relation to the latter mentioned.

Aside of understanding the history behind these significant foundational precepts regarding the American/Texas' political process, by applying critical theory to the subject matter, students will learn to analyze the American political process, and then apply these critical analytical skills to the political processes of this and other countries with democracy, as a system of government, is fundamental to governance.

Prerequisite: READ 0309 or INRW 0311 or ESOL 0340 or by placement exam or ENGL 1301 with a "C" or better or ENGL 1302 with a "C" or better. (3:0).

Instructor Consultation Hours are by appointment which is initiated by students sending a "Course Message" (CM) to the instructor to choose a day and time for student and instructor to meet online.

II. Course Objectives

Upon satisfactory completion of this course, in addition to developing the critical skills necessary for the appropriate analysis of government systems at the macro and global -level, the American Government student will be able to:

- A. Explain the importance of reading for background information, preparing for class using out-of-class time, and listening for pertinent class material as presented by the instructor.
- B. Express verbally or in writing an understanding of the vocabulary.
- C. Express verbally or in writing an understanding of the intellectual and political foundations of the federal/state government political system.
- D. Express verbally or in writing an understanding of the major components and structure of the American governmental system (executive, legislative, and judiciary) and describe the processes that are used to govern.
- E. Express verbally and in writing an understanding of the political dynamics of parties, interest groups, and the bureaucracy and the interaction of those institutions with the American governmental structure.
- F. Express verbally or in writing an understanding of the political policies and outcomes based on the Bill of Rights, civil law, foreign and domestic policy, monetary policies, and public opinion.

III. REQUIRED TEXTBOOK FOR THE COURSE (Available at the UTEP Bookstore)

We The People, 15th Edition, By Thomas Patterson © 2024
ISBN10: 1265026688 | ISBN13: 9781265026684

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

Please Note:

The Patterson, 2024 textbook (above image) is required for this course as it includes publisher content that we will be using throughout the semester. The only way to access that required module content that will be assigned as homework is through direct purchase of the electronic textbook through the publisher and via the UTEP Bookstore. The publisher offers a better price which is $106. Please note that the UTEP Bookstore will also sell the book/module content but charge approximately $30 more.

Please see the BB link located on our BB "Content" page to access the publisher site so that you may purchase the textbook online and begin using it asap. It is titled: "McGraw: How to purchase & access Textbook/Modules".

Please note:

To enhance your learning experience and simplify access to the right materials for this class, your course materials have been integrated directly into your course. We will refer to this as "the first day program" (FDP)—but you must purchase the textbook to be able to do so. Please purchase your textbook via the PPT presentation titled: "McGraw: How to purchase & access Textbook/Modules."

BENEFITS OF THE FIRST DAY PROGRAM (FDP)

- Student can easily and quickly access the textbook and module content as of "Day 1"
- Deeply discounted materials - lowest price available
- Guaranteed "correct" materials
- Ready to go on day one

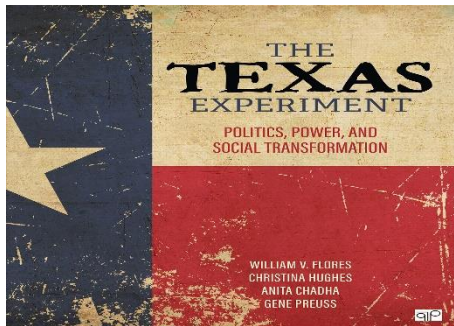

4 EASY STEPS TO ACCESS MATERIAL

1. Log into Blackboard
2. Click on courses
3. Click on the course to enter it
4. Click on Course Material & Purchase via that direct link

For the Texas government presentations, the instructor will be using Flores' & et als (2024) textbook shared below:

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025

SUMMER II, 2025

Although not a required purchase, students interested in purchasing it, please consult with your instructor to do so as we will pursue lower publisher prices.

IV. BlackBoard (BB)

Additionally, this class will rely on the use of the BlackBoard, “Ultra” (BB) course system on many critical levels. In general, all exams are to be taken via BB.

Apart from the final exam, weekly exams will open on Wednesdays via BB by 1 pm (MST) and close on that same Wednesday @ 11.59 pm (MST). Furthermore, online module work, which will come from the Patterson (2024) book, will be an essential and vital aspect of this course and accessible via BB. Again, students will access their textbooks via BB as well as module assignments.

Weekly modules open on Mondays & close on Sundays @ 11:59 pm (MST). The only exception to this is when BB, Ultra might be down, which is an event that has not happened as of yet..., still, one never knows, in which case the instructor will reach out to students via other formats.

Please Note: It is the student’s responsibility to check BB daily, as well as to read Announcements, Course Messages, complete module work, take exams, and post your work there when assigned. As such, once again, please note that the UTEP BB system is a critical and essential aspect of this course. Under the instructor’s guidance, using BB, students will be expected to:

- 1.) Read all Announcement postings on time

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

- 2.) Use BB “Course Messages” as the class electronic system of communication and inter-course communication tool for instructor/students
- 3.) Access data and websites electronically
- 4.) Complete weekly assigned modules
- 5.) Take weekly exams on BB, including the “Final”
- 6.) Post all additional assignments on BB (DB’s & DP’s)² when assigned
- 7.) Keep track of individual grades, via the BB Grade Book

Learn more about Blackboard Learn through our On Demand Learning Center. The “On Demand Learning Center” includes short, interactive video lessons called Quick Tutorials and short documents called Getting Started Guides which are designed to get students familiar with a feature in 15 minutes.

Please Note: For this course only, under BB, there are three types of assignments as follows:

- 1.) DB (Discussion Board) Posts which are completed under the DB ARENA. These are open assignments and accessible to all students enrolled in the course; therefore, available for all to read. Please do not repost other student’s work or copy/alter earlier posts (yours & others) when enrolled in this course, and afterward.

Please Note: The content under this medium all though accessible to all students enrolled in the course – it is private and only available to the students enrolled in this course—during this semester. Taking content or altering content will be considered a form of plagiarism and violates privacy etiquette and will be a matter pursued administratively.

² DB (Discussion Board) Posts which are completed under the DB ARENA. These are open assignments and accessible for all students in course to read. Please do not repost other’s work or copy/alter earlier post.

Direct Posts (DP’s) in which there is a link for the assignment to be turned in. These are private and only the instructor can access them and read/grade them. The instructor will provide the links as we move forward along the semester.

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025

SUMMER II, 2025

- 2.) Direct Posts (DP's) in which there is a specific link created by the instructor for an assignment to be turned in. These are private and only the instructor can access them and read/grade them. The instructor will provide the links as we move forward along the semester and explain them as such, should they be assigned. As such, only the instructor has access to that content and is, therefore, private.

- 3.) Module Homework (electronic): Students will be required to complete weekly electronic modules which are attached to the electronic textbook via our BB Ultra Website.

Students enrolled in summer courses should already know that during a summer course, attendance is critical as is completing all required work; hence, completion of module work will be central to student academic success. In fact, students cannot pass the course without completing them as they encompass the majority of your course work/assignments.

SEMESTER COURSE WORK

We will be reading and completing chapter work at a super-fast pace as should be expected during a summer course. For this course, as explained previously, we will be incorporating daily/weekly module work tied to the textbook. For this reason alone, it is critical that students purchase their electronic textbooks pre-1st day of class. In the following are your required course assignments.

V. CLASS ASSIGNMENTS:

For this 4.5-week, Summer II semester, we will be reading and covering assigned chapter readings from the Patterson, 2024 textbook, which consists of 17 chapters, but handled as 15 modules (please refer to page 15 of this document for specifics on this).

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

From the beginning of the semester, we will complete weekly modules and take 3 weekly exams covering the chapter/s covered during the appropriate weeks assigned (refer to Agenda located at the end of the syllabus). There will also be a 4th, "Final Exam", on the final day of classes (Aug 4th) which will be taken at home as it is an electronically-taken exam. Additional required work is listed in the following:

I. CTAF/Introduction Post: Refer to Discussion Board, (DB), for instructions.

Worth 5pts if instructions are followed through completely.....Worth 5 pts

II. Weekly Modules (Worth 75% of Semester Grade)

(Required Individual Work):

As should be anticipated by students enrolled in a summer course, we will be completing a significant amount of work within a short period of time. Weekly modules consist of electronically accessible homework assignments provided by the publisher. As such, the purchase of the textbook is the only way to access these modules.

The modules provided by the publisher allow for "layering/chunking/scaffolding" teaching/learning content. During a summer course, students are supposed to read their course textbooks and often do not. Use of modules is an effective and efficient way to better understand the area of study we are undertaking because the module work requires that students interact with the textbook. Research confirms that "layering", or "scaffolding" learning content is a reliable way to get students interested in their studies and it builds on mental cognitive facilities (Chunking Content in the Classroom | Edutopia).

Beginning the first week of classes, we will be covering the chapters/modules as noted below. Instructor will review, in-class, procedure and how to access content:

Week I: Begin Reading/Module Chapter 1-5: Opens Wednesday, closes Wednesday @ 11:59 pm (MST)

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

Week II: Begin Reading/Module Chapters 6-9: Opens Wednesday, closes Wednesday @ 11:59 pm (MST)

Week III: Begin Reading/Module Chapters 10-13: Opens Wednesday, closes Wednesday @ 11:59 pm (MST)

Week IV: Begin Reading/Module Complete Chapters 14-17: Opens Wednesday, closes Wednesday @ 11:59 pm (MST)

Week V: FINAL OPENED on Friday & Closes on Monday @ 5 pm (MST)

Please Note: Each of the weekly modules, when completed in full, is equal to 5 pts, (i.e., 5 pts each x 15 modules = 75% of GPA). Weekly modules MUST be completed to receive the 75 points.

.... Worth 75 pts.

III. Exams: 20% of Semester Grade

Also, Required Individual Work: There will be four weekly exams beginning Week 2 of this course. The 4th exam is the “final exam” which will be taken the last day of class. Exams scoring 90 + points (an “A”) will be the equivalent of 5 pts, (i.e., 4-weekly exams x 5 points when 90+ points are scored on the exam) = 20 pts, (Calculations includes a final exam). See Below:

- Exams Scoring 80-89 = 4 points
- Exams Scoring 70-79= 3 points
- Exams Scoring 60-69= 2 points
- Exams Scoring 50-59= 1 point

4 exams x 5 pts (when score is 90+)Worth 20% of Semester Grade

SUMMER II, 2025

Exam Specifics

- Exams will be taken on BlackBoard (BB) from your personal locations (home, UTEP computer lab, etc...). This is a “solo” endeavor, meaning, students take the exam individually, respectively.
- Exams will open on Wednesday and close on that same Wednesday at 11.59 pm (MST), with the exception of the Final exam.
- On Wednesdays, with exception of the Final Exam, a BB notice will be posted under BB’s “Announcements” once test is open for student’s use.

Please Note: Exams will be open-book exams so be sure to purchase your textbook.

For grading purposes, the exam will consist of 100 questions with each correct exam answer worth 1 point each. As such, students are encouraged to answer as many exam questions as possible as this can potentially increase your overall exam GPA dependent on whether the answer is correct, or not. Incorrect answers do NOT count against the exam calculations on BB.

Recap:

- Exams are taken online via BB & timed at 90 minutes. Exams are set on an automatic timer, meaning that the exam will automatically shut-off at the end of the 90 minutes once you begin it, so students should be prepared before beginning the exam, i.e., bathroom break/phone calls/children/etc....
- You cannot stop the timer once you begin the exam
- Students with special accommodations must notify me via Course Messages (CM) and attach documentation from UTEP within that CM.
- Please note: the exam conversion information specific to grade conversions below, which I will discuss once we begin taking the exams.

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

- “How to take online exam/s” will be discussed/demonstrated during the 1st week of class and a MP4 Recording is available on BB for your use for online classes.

Please Note: To pass this course with a 90+/ “A” you must take each exam and pass them. Missed exams, or exams with a failing grade, will prevent you from passing the course as they account for 20% of the grade.

VI. Exam Conversion

What your gradebook looks like after first exam:

First Exam Grade 90/120

- 1.) First number is the exam grade number, which is based on the traditional grading system students are accustomed to, meaning that the student answered enough exam questions to earn them a 90 +, an “A”.
- 2.) Disregard the second number, in this case the “120”. With each exam that we take, that 2nd number will continue to increase and represents the total points possible cumulatively when all 5 exams are taken throughout the semester.
- 3.) Disregard the red coloring. I do not use it at all.

Conversion: The following test conversion is necessary and is applied in order to calculate your overall GPA grade due to the way the BB Grade Book is structured. This is a “flat” grading system based on the number of exams that you will be taking. The “Exam Conversion Grade” numbers cover the ranges listed under the “Exam Grade Received” section. Use the test conversion table below to calculate your weekly exam grades Exam Grade Received:

Exam Conversion Grade

Exam Grade Received	Conversion GPA
90 pts & above.....	5.0 pts = an “A”
80-89 pts.....	4.0 pts = a “B”

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

- 70-79 pts..... 3.0 pts = a "C"
- 60-69 pts..... 2.0 pts = a "D"
- 50-59 pts..... 1.0 pts = a "F"

Final grades will follow current UTEP Catalog standards and be presented as listed below, which is based on the traditional grading system:

Overall Grade Scale:

- 90-100% A = Excellent
- 80-89% B = Above Average
- 70-79% C = Average
- 60-69% D = Below average
- 59%-Below F = Failing

- I = Incomplete (See current college catalog)
 - W = Withdrew or withdrawn*

Withdrawing from Course:

*Please See current college catalog for specifics regarding "Withdrawing" (WD) from the Course. Be sure to talk to Financial Aide and Registrars before withdrawing. Withdrawing without proper clearance can affect financial aide and other pertinent areas regarding registration/fees.

Extra Credit Opportunities: Dependent on availability, it is possible external extra-credit opportunities and/or in-class activities might be offered to students. In such cases, the instructor will offer details in class, with specifics as to content and submission processes.

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025

Section VII: TEAMS, Zoom & Other Social Platforms Protocol

TEAMS/Zoom Policy & Procedures:

Below are the TEAMS/Zoom rules that will need to be followed when needed to remain in this class:

- 1.) Students must enter on mute
- 2.) Students must be on camera at all times
- 3.) Do NOT record content from TEAMS/Zoom session
- 4.) Use polite, respectful, and academic language at all times
- 5.) In-class discussion is welcomed – but be cautious as to what you say
- 6.) Any additional work using TEAMS/Zoom features will be discussed when appropriate.
- 7.) Failure to follow these policies will lead to further UTEP administrative action, and your removal from this course.

Section: IX: Important In-class Policy's:

Instructor's Statement:

Please Note: Instructor has the right to make necessary changes to the syllabus and/or agenda, contingent on unexpected events or guest speaker attendance date changes.

Furthermore, the instructor can remove students from the course as a consequence of no work, frequent absences, failing GPA, or behavior issues/inappropriate in-class/online behavior, or any combination thereof.

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025
F-2-F Course
SUMMER II, 2025

In all these instances, the instructor will contact the student(s) via BlackBoard, Announcements, Course Mail (CM), and/or UTEP email, or a combination of the latter listed.

Additional Policies: For continued success in this course please adhere to the following:

- Please read “Announcements” daily as this will be the source for all changes.
- As will be discussed the first day of class, all additional UTEP policies will be presented to students on the 1st day of class, which we will go over together.
- All policies discussed the 1st day of class are available on our BB page via our syllabus and listed on the BB Sidebar.

Use of Electronic Devices is Prohibited:

Please know that the use of electronic devices in-class is not permitted. Unless you are using an electronic device as required per ADA/DSS, and provide supporting documentation to do so, there should be no electronic devices on your desk-top—nor should you be accessing them during class time. Use of Electronic Devices is Prohibited During Class, (online or f2f).

For the period that you are in class it is suggested that you refrain from using them and that you check them while we go on break, or, visit with them after class has completed. Once again, be sure to turn off your electronic devices before class, unless they are required devices and have supporting documentation to substantiate their use in class. Do not have electronic devices on your classroom desktops unless requested to do so by instructor. Absolutely NO Recording is permitted during the class lectures, as it is a violation of the student code of conduct that is being expressly stated in this syllabus.

Student Conduct, Proactive Policy: Instructor/Professor will openly address in-class issues when they arise in class by requesting that the student adhere to the instructor/professor’s request. If the student fails to adhere to the request, the instructor will notify them of a second request, which if unaddressed by the student will initiate the instructor/professor referring the student to the Dean's office and taking appropriate action, to possibly include the student's removal from the course.

American Govt & Politics 2311-33672-- 9:20 AM -11:30 AM M T W R F Location: UGLC Room 216 --07/09/2025 to 08/04/2025

Summer Absence Policy: Students are allowed 1 absence for summer courses due to the brevity of the semester and group work requirements. In the instance that a student is absent, please reach out to your group and let them know and make necessary arrangements with them when necessary. More than one absence must be addressed with instructor in which case the student should initiate the discussion via CM or in-person.
