

Course Calendar

Use this course calendar to keep track of what we'll cover during each class. Read chapters and content listed per class day before coming to class. All due dates, readings and assignments subject to change at my discretion.

Alif-Baa: Textbook for the course.

ML: Mango Languages. This is the program used in the Arabic lab. All content will be tested from the Mango Conversations section.

Alphabet Worksheets: Available on Blackboard. Please print and bring to class.

Weekly Module Worksheets: Available on Blackboard. I will send a notification of the worksheets when they become available on Blackboard. Please print and bring to class.

Tests: Tests are always given in class. Please review and study all units that correspond to the test, including any additional material covered in class that is not available in the textbook. Tests are not open book.

Quizzes: Quizzes are given in class. Please review and study all units that correspond to the quizzes, including any additional material covered in class that is not available in the textbook. Quizzes are not open book.

Lab Quizzes: These are given online via Blackboard. All Lab Quizzes will correspond to material learned via Mango Languages.
