Course Description
Welcome to Elementary Arabic! This course is an introduction to the Arabic language and the cultures of the Arabic speaking world. Elementary Arabic I is designed to provide students who have little to no knowledge of the Arabic language with a solid foundation of the structure, pronunciation, and vocabulary of Modern Standard Arabic. Students will learn the Arabic alphabet and numbers, basic Arabic grammar, and basic communicative sentences and phrases. By the end of this course, students will, among other skills, be able to write and read the Arabic alphabet, understand basic grammatical rules of the Arabic language, and communicate basic information at the novice level in Modern Standard Arabic.

Class Theme
The theme of this class is Good Health and Well-Being. In addition to learning the basics of the Arabic language, students will investigate the ways in which good health and well-being are perceived in the Arab world and the United States, uncovering cultural similarities along the way. Elementary Arabic I is the first course of four that are thematically focused and designed to introduce students to the Arabic language and cultural and societal frameworks that exist in the Arab world.

A NOTE ABOUT THIS COURSE
This course is designed for non-native speakers / novice learners of the Arabic language. Students enrolled in this course who have experience with the Arabic language from previous academic courses must report to the instructor and take a placement test to assess their appropriate level of Arabic. Failure to adequately self-report can result in removal from the course.
Learning Objectives
By the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Read and write the Arabic alphabet
- Write short sentences
- Read short texts
- Understand basic grammatical rules
- Understand various cultural practices and behaviors of the Arabic speaking world
- Communicate with others at the novice level on familiar topics

Required Texts
- While there is no official textbook to purchase for this course, students will be required to access, download, and print course materials throughout the semester. Materials will be available on our course blackboard.
- Another essential is an Arabic-English Dictionary, such as Oxford Essential Arabic; ISBN-10: 019956115X

Required Materials

Assessment Policies

Due Dates: Be mindful of the scheduled due dates for assignments and assessments.

Late Work: All late assignments will be docked 15% per day they are late. A late work window is open for only two days after the assignment or assessment is due. I will not accept assignments after the late window is closed.

Extension Policy: I do not grant extensions for any assignments unless it is a clearly documented medical emergency. Extensions are not guaranteed, and they are granted on a case-by-case basis.

Make-Up Work: I do not offer make-up work or make-up exams. It is your responsibility to alert me if you are unable to meet specific assessment dates or other due dates.
Homework and In-Class Work
You are required to do homework for this class. Homework is due Mondays and assigned one week in advance on blackboard. In class work is also graded.

Lab Attendance
Lab time is recorded, tracked, and graded by turning in lab proof papers weekly. I will collect lab work papers the week after they are recorded, but I will not accept lab proof papers past the 1-week mark. I will not accept lab proof papers that are missing the date of lab work and/or signature of the lab attendant. Be aware that Lab Attendance and Lab Assessments are two separate grades.

Lab Assessments & Tasks
Lab assessments and tasks are activities designed to be completed in the Arabic Lab during your required lab hours. I will leave lab assessment and task information in the lab with the lab attendant throughout the semester and students will complete the assessments and/or tasks weekly or as they are assigned.

In-Class Quizzes
Quizzes are taken in class throughout the semester. These quizzes will focus on content covered in class and will be a mixture of writing, listening and reading exercises.

Tests
There are two tests for this class. Each test will be a mixture of writing, listening and reading questions. Tests will cover all material from the course, including class content and lab content.

Conversation Assessment
I will conduct short Conversation Assessments with each student individually. These conversations will test your knowledge of how to hold a short conversation in Arabic by asking and answering questions. Throughout the semester, you’ll have the opportunity to practice for the assessment both in class and through the FlipGrid video assignments.

Final Exam
The final exam is a cumulative, written test and will cover all the materials from the semester.

Check back with me for the date and time of the final exam.

FlipGrid Videos
To prepare you for the Conversation Assessment, you will create and respond to prompts using FlipGrid. You will be prompted with a set of questions and you will respond to them in Arabic, recording your responses in video format. When necessary, you will respond to your peers’ videos or ask them questions, too.

Instructions for setting up your FlipGrid account will be given in the first week of class.

Final Arabic Project
During the final week of class, we will hold in-class presentations of our final projects. The subject of your project will be announced, but you are expected to deliver the presentation in Arabic, using vocabulary you have learned throughout the semester.

English-Arabic Dictionary
To learn Arabic effectively, I suggest that you buy an Arabic-English dictionary and grammar guide.

You may purchase one from a bookstore or download a verified app. One such dictionary is recommended in our course readings list.

Do not use Google Translate for this class!

Typing in Arabic
There are a few ways to type Arabic characters on a computer, but the easiest is to use Arabic Keyboard. Type your words out on the Arabic Keyboard via your browser, then copy and paste into a Word document or a PowerPoint presentation.

Class and University Policies

Classroom Etiquette
- Laptops and tablets are permitted in the classroom to take notes or participate in various language activities using language apps. However, if the use of these devices interrupts the class, I reserve the right to ask you to put your device away or turn it off.
- No cellphone or MP3 player use during class.
- Assessments in this class are not open book. Put away all notes, books, and electronic devices during quizzes and tests.

Arabic Lab Policies
- Follow all lab rules and regulations established by the Department of Languages and Linguistics.
- Only Arabic related coursework may be completed in the lab. Any activity unrelated to Arabic course-work may result in a penalty on lab grades.
- No food, drink, or loud conversations in the lab.
- Disruptions or violations of lab rules will be reported to the appropriate University authorities.

Attendance Policy
- Attendance is mandatory.
- After 3 absences, your final grade will be docked a full letter grade.
- After 4 absences, you will receive an “F” for the course.
- Arriving late (up to 20 minutes) to class is a half absence. Tardiness after 20 minutes is marked as a full absence.
- I reserve the right to drop students from this course due to lack of effort.
- Missing lab time will result in absences for the course.
- If you need to miss class, email me and let me know. In order to have an excused absence, I require the appropriate documentation whether it is from work or a doctor’s note within 1 week of the absence. Other absences will be unexcused.

Academic Integrity
The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Visit the Office of Dean of Students. Instructors are required to report the suspected academic dishonesty to the Office of Student Affairs.

Accommodations
Your success in this class is important to me. We will all need accommodations because we all learn differently. If there are aspects of this course that prevent you from learning or exclude you, please let me know as soon as possible. Together we’ll develop strategies to meet both your needs and the requirements of the course. I also encourage you to visit the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) in room 106, Union East Building or contact them at 747-5148 or cass@utep.edu. If you need official accommodations, you have a right to have these met. There are also a range of resources on campus, including the Writing Center, Counseling Center, Military Student Success Center and Academic Advising Center.

Military Students
If you are a military student (veteran, dependent, active) please visit the Military Student Success Center. I also recognize the complexities of being a student veteran. If you are a student veteran, please inform me if you need special accommodations. Drill schedules, calls to active duty, complications with GI Bill disbursement, and other unforeseen military and veteran-related developments can complicate your academic life. If you make me aware of a complication, I will do everything I can to assist you or put you in contact with university staff who are trained to assist you.

EMAIL POLICY
If you send me an email, always include a greeting, your name, and which class you are in. I check my email daily, but allow a 48-hour period for replies. Emails sent on weekends will be replied to on the next business day.
Course Calendar
A course calendar for this class is available on Blackboard. There, you will find the due dates for all assignments and readings for this course.

I will give announcements and reminders in class about homework and assignments, but it is your responsibility to keep track of those dates, too.

*Census Day: I reserve the right to drop students for lack of effort, multiple absences, multiple missed assignments, and missed lab time. If I drop students who fall into these categories before Census Day I will determine whether the drop will be an “F” or a “W.” Any drops made after Census Day will automatically be an “F,” regardless of the reason for the drop.

Final Note: Policies in this syllabus are all subject to change at instructor’s discretion. I will notify you in writing if anything in this syllabus is updated.
