Prerequisites

This class requires an audition and Lower Level Acceptance form with signature of studio teacher or have successfully completed (with a C or better) MUSA 1190.

Assessment:

Students are expected to prepare a slow and fast Ferling etude every week.

Students will be assessed during weekly lessons with emphasis placed on preparedness. Playing assignments will be graded on technical accuracy including articulation, time, rhythm, tone, and intonation. Musicality, emotion, and attitude will also be considered in assessing lessons (see rubric below). The final exam is the woodwind Jury, where the woodwind committee grades the student's solo performance and provides feedback.

To pass into upper level music major lessons (MUSA 3295/3391), students must perform correctly from memory all natural, harmonic and melodic minor scales and arpeggios, two octaves and perform two contrasting solo works, at least one with piano accompaniment. A student also must have four semesters of MUSA1195 with a C or better.

Lessons/Studio Class Attendance:

Students will schedule lessons during the first week of classes. Because applied lessons are one-on-one, attendance is imperative. A student's grade will drop one letter grade for each unexcused absence. If a student must miss a lesson (illness, family emergency, etc.), the instructor must be notified in advance and receive written documentation after the fact. Attendance is mandatory for saxophone studio class every Friday. A student's grade will drop one letter grade for missing more than two studio classes.
