COURSE DESCRIPTION

This graduate seminar will review landmark aspects of the intersection of race and ethnicity in criminal justice system in the United States. We will draw on theory and research from various perspectives to understand substantive issues underlying the causes and consequences of inequality in criminal justice system. Particular attention will be paid to the socio-historical construction of race and ethnicity, crime patterns, segregation and racial structure, intergenerational inequality, intersectionality, and disparities in criminal justice processing and punishment. This course will also delve into scholarly debates surrounding the study of these issues. The overarching goal of this seminar is to lay the groundwork for students to understand and critically assess the complex relationships between race/ethnicity and criminal justice outcomes.

COURSE OBJECTIVES OR EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of this course, students will be able to:

1. Understand how race/ethnicity is constructed and the role of race/ethnicity in American society and public policy.
2. Critically examine theoretical and empirical approaches taken in research on race/ethnicity, crime, and criminal justice processing.
3. Identify gaps in knowledge on race/ethnicity and criminal justice and develop directions for future research.

UTEP EDGE

This course is designed with the UTEP Edge in mind. In this class, students will focus on improving several specific Edge Advantages: confidence in your knowledge of race/ethnicity in criminal justice system, critical thinking, communication skills, leadership, and global awareness.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Your grade in this course will be determined by 1) class participation, 2) leading discussion and discussion/research questions, and 3) writing a final paper.

Class Participation

You are expected to read the assigned readings prior to class and attend class ready to discuss them, even when you are not the discussion leader that day. As a graduate seminar, the success of this course will depend on student contributions. Therefore, I strongly encourage students to bring reading notes to class will be helpful as we engage in a critical dialogue about research and policy regarding race and ethnicity in criminal justice system. Your class attendance, participation (quality and quantity), and effort will account for 10% of your final grade.

Discussion/Research Questions and Leading Discussion

Students are required to submit discussion and research questions in advance of every class session beginning Week 2 (i.e., word document submitted via Blackboard on Mondays by noon (12:00pm)). Students should include FIVE discussion questions prompted from the designated readings that aim to stimulate interesting discussion among the group. These questions should be primarily research-focused, although I also welcome policy-oriented discussion.

Two students will lead discussion on the material assigned for that week. Please keep it informal. The role of the discussion leader is to provide a one-page overview memo of the key ideas, concerns, and criticisms associated with the reading material and to raise insightful points for discussion regarding strengths, weaknesses, and contributions of the assigned readings. This memo should be submitted via Blackboard on Monday by noon. Discussion leaders don't need to submit 5 discussion questions but are required to prepare discussion questions using five discussion questions that were submitted from other students and provide to me no later than 3:00pm on the day prior to discussion. I will then post the final discussion questions on Blackboard. Discussion leaders use these questions to initiate the discussion but expect that other students will raise questions themselves as well. It is important that we have engaging and thoughtful discussions during every class session. At the end of the first-class meeting, students will submit topic preferences.

In addition to discussion questions, students will submit ONE research question (due is same as discussion questions). Research questions should be designed to advance this body of work if empirically tested. As such, these questions must include clear outcomes and key independent variable(s) along with a brief statement on why these questions are important to examine. These weekly assignments will help students evaluate existing scholarship, identify gaps in prior work, and develop sound research questions. These are invaluable skills that I want to see each of you further develop.

Final Paper

Each student will be expected to write a 10-page double-spaced paper using APA format. This final paper will be the front-end to an original research paper that would be submitted to a peer-reviewed journal. Your paper will address any topic related to race and ethnicity in criminal justice system. In doing so, you will apply one of the theoretical perspectives we discuss to explain this variation. Your paper will contain introduction, theoretical framework, review of prior research, and current focus.

You will submit your final paper by 11:59pm on December 6th. Your paper will account for 40% of your final grade. Late papers are penalized 10% for each day over the due date.

To help you work on your paper, I will ask you to identify your topic and submit a brief description by October 25th. I will not grade your submission but will provide my feedback and comments.

Please refer to the Writing Center if you need assistance with your written assignments. The University Writing Center is located in Library, Room 227. It is a great place to receive help with editing your written papers, and with APA style assistance. They are open M-Th 9:00-5:00 pm, Fr 9:00-2:00 pm, and Sundays 12:00-5:00pm. Appointments are recommended well before the deadline, but they will take walk-ins.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Course content is delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have a word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP's Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

The grade you earn in this course will be based on the amount of effort you exert. If you need a specific grade for this course, be proactive and contact me as early and often as possible. I will make every effort to assist you in achieving your goals.

Students with Disabilities

If you require modifications to the course or testing environment, please inform me as soon as practical via email or during office hours. Accommodations are coordinated through the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). If you feel an accommodation is necessary please contact CASS at 915-747-5148 (tel) cass@utep.edu (email) or visit them at Union Building East Room 106.

Dissemination Policy

All the materials in this course, aside from that in the assigned text, should be considered as my intellectual property and, as such, under copyright protection. This includes my lectures, exams, written assignments, and notes. These are intended for your use during this course and may not be disseminated to anyone outside of the course without my explicit written permission.

Class Recordings

Students may NOT record any portion of the course meetings without first obtaining my permission. This includes audio and video recordings. If permission is granted, these recordings cannot be shared with others outside of this course unless required by UTEP.

Email Policy (Contacting the Instructor)

There are two ways you can contact me in this course. 1) Through your institutional email address. 2) Through the “send email” function under the course tools tab in Blackboard. I expect you to identify yourself within the body of the email. I also expect you to compose emails using standard word and sentence structure (i.e., no acronyms, slang, etc.). In other words, do not email me as if you are texting your friends.

I will do my best to respond to your emails within 24 hours under most circumstances from Monday through Friday. I will also do my best to check my email at least once on Saturdays and Sundays; however, at times I may not be able to respond over the weekends. Please plan accordingly.

Course Drop Policy

If circumstances arise to where a student must drop this course, it is the student’s responsibility to initiate the course drop. It is also the student’s responsibility to determine how dropping courses may affect his or her financial aid. Students are limited to dropping no more than 6 courses over their entire academic career of all courses taken at any public college or University in Texas.

- a) If a course is dropped within the first 2 weeks before the “official census date”:
 - a. the course will not appear on the transcript and
 - b. the course will not count toward the 6-course drop limit.
- b) If a course is dropped after the official census data but before the “course drop date”:
 - a. the student will receive a “W” in the course
 - b. the drop will show on transcripts but will not lower GPA
 - c. the drop will count toward the 6 class drop limit
- c) If the course is dropped after the “course drop date” or if the student just stops coming/taking tests, etc.:
 - a. UTEP requires the instructor to issue an “F” in the course that permanently remains on the transcript.
 - b. the drop will count against the 6 class drop limit.
- d) UTEP also allows instructors to administratively drop any student because of excessive absences, lack of effort, or disciplinary reasons. In this case, the student will be notified of the course drop through their UTEP email account. A “W” will be issued if the drop occurs before the course drop date, and an “F” will be issued if a student is administratively dropped for disciplinary reasons or after the course drop date. This type of drop counts against the 6 drop limit.
- e) If circumstances occur where a student must miss an excessive number of classes and/or is unable to submit multiple assignments (e.g., student medical reasons, medical conditions of a family member, death of a family member, active military service), they should first discuss the possibility of withdrawal from all classes with their academic advisor. If a student withdraws completely from all classes, kindly notify me at: tedickinson@utep.edu. Complete withdrawals from all classes in the same semester do not count against the 6 drop limit.

OR

I will not drop you from the course. However, if you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar's Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an "F" for the course.

Incomplete Grade Policy

Incomplete grades may be requested only in exceptional circumstances after you have completed at least half of the course requirements. Talk to me immediately if you believe an incomplete is warranted. If granted, we will establish a contract of work to be completed with deadlines.

Accommodations Policy

The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, or email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution \(OSCCR\) for possible disciplinary action. What you should know about sexual misconduct: UTEP does not tolerate acts of sexual misconduct, including sexual harassment and all forms of sexual violence. If you have experienced sexual misconduct, or know someone who has, the University can help. It is important to know that federal regulations and University policy require faculty to promptly report complaints of potential sexual misconduct known to them to their campus Title IX Coordinator(s) to ensure that appropriate measures are taken and resources are made available. The University will work with you to protect your privacy by sharing information with only those that need to know to ensure the University can respond and assist. Any student who believes that he or she may be experiencing sexual harassment or misconduct is encouraged to consult with or report such conduct immediately to the Title IX Coordinators. Contact information for UTEP's Title IX Coordinators can be found here:
