Attendance and Participation: Class participation is important. We are navigating very difficult times due to the current situation of pandemic, therefore, Attendance for this class is a part of Participation grade. Each class is worth two points. If a student is more than 15 min late (unless a student contacted the instructor before class started), then the student will receive one point. 0 points for absence. There are 29 classes in this semester. Total possible points for this is 50, which means students will have 4 absences or 8 late at their disposal and still receive 50 points, if you come all classes, or no lateness means you will receive extra points (up to 8 points). If classes are cancelled with any reason, students will automatically receive two points for that class.
