Course Description:
This course is an interdisciplinary examination of the social, political, and economic forces that characterize Chicana/o identities in American society. By comparing and contrasting historical and contemporary Chicana/o experiences, students will better understand how such issues as masculinity, whiteness, homophobia, feminism, nationalism, and globalization redefine, incorporate, or neglect Chicana/o identities in the United States. This course pays close attention to race, class, gender, and sexuality to better understand how Chicana/o identities challenge and negotiate American norms. Through texts, films, and discussion this class explores a variety of Chicana/o and Puerto Rican identities and how these identities are produced and conversely destabilized.

By the end of the class, students will
  1. Develop the critical thinking and analytical skills necessary for effective communication both orally and written.
  2. Identify, analyze, and articulate the central themes in Mexican American community and identity formation.
  3. Develop their technology skills and learn to use software available for teaching and learning.
  4. Understand theories of race, class, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality in the shaping of both geopolitical and metaphorical borders.
  5. Connect the past to the present in an effort to better understand the world around them.
  6. View themselves as global citizens.

Required Texts:

Additional required readings located on Blackboard.
Course Requirements:

Attendance and Discussion: You are expected to attend class and be there on time; Completion of the course depends on your attendance. If you miss a class period, it is your responsibility to obtain handouts (from the instructor) and notes (from a fellow student).

There are a few ground rules for discussion. Whether you are discussing in a group or as a class, please remember that the appeal of higher learning is that we can think and talk, maturely and responsibly about topics like race, class, gender, and sexuality. Please make an effort to treat each other, and each other’s contributions to class discussions, with respect.

Quizzes (25%): There will be quizzes throughout this summer session based on the readings and videos. The quizzes are intended to gauge your ability to keep up with the readings and videos and to ensure that you are attending as class as required.

Writing Assignments (35%): There will be two writing assignments. I will provide a detailed assignment sheet to guide your writing. See Course Calendar for assignment deadlines and due dates.

Final Comprehensive Exam (40%): There is a final comprehensive exam that covers the entire summer session scheduled for July 31, 2015.

Grading Scale:
Final grades will be given according to the student’s demonstrated level of mastery of the subject matter as determined by his/her assignments, class discussion, and attendance. The assignments for this course are based on a scale of 100 points. Letter grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Grade</th>

GRADUATE CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE: In order to obtain graduate credit for this course, you must satisfactorily complete a graduate level project with a topic and parameters approved beforehand by the course instructor.

Class Policies:

1. Attendance: Attendance and participation in class are required. Should you miss a class, you are still responsible for everything that is covered in that class. Missing class or being late is no excuse for missing a due date or misunderstanding an assignment. Therefore, you will want to make contact with a classmate, not the instructor, to find out what you missed. This is a short semester so there are no make-ups for quizzes and/or the final exam, and I will not accept late assignments.

2. Dropping the Class: Students may drop the class and receive a “W” any time prior to July 24, 2015.
3. Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, processing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person’s as one’s own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from the University for such actions.

4. Students with Disabilities: I will make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities, including learning disabilities. Please see me personally before or after class in the first two weeks or make an appointment, to discuss any special needs you might have. If you have a documented disability and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106 within the first two weeks for classes. For additional information please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass

5. Student Conduct: [From the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs]: Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules/homepage.htm.

Please SILENCE cell phones before class and NO TEXT MESSAGING and/or FACEBOOKING during class!!!
