This course syllabus and reading list may be subject to changes as circumstances warrant. Any such changes will be announced in advance and the syllabus will be updated.

Course Description:

This course is designed to provide the student with a general overview of past and present Mexican American culture and society. Using an interdisciplinary framework, this course examines ethnic Mexican identity formation from contact and conquest to the present. The course uses race, ethnicity, class, and gender as categories of analyses to interpret how and why ethnic Mexicans create distinct cultures and identities in the United States. The readings and videos explore a number of topics to include conquest, colonization, immigration, citizenship, education, labor, politics, and pop culture for a better understanding of how ethnic Mexicans negotiate, resist, and redefine their place in the U.S. Students will develop a number of skills to include critical thinking, reasoning, analysis, and maintaining a point of view, verbally and in writing. Additionally, this course will help students develop computer skills and electronic communication skills.

Student Learning Goals and Objectives:

In this course students will:

1. Develop the critical thinking and analytical skills necessary for effective communication both orally and written.
2. Identify, analyze, and articulate the central themes in ethnic Mexican community and identity formation.
3. Identify and analyze differences and similarities among ethnic Mexican experiences over time.
4. Demonstrate their understanding of the concepts of gender, sexuality, race, and class by using them to identify experiences of privilege and inequality as well as collaboration and conflict, within and between ethnic Mexican communities.
5. Use an interdisciplinary approach to connect the past to the present in an effort to better understand the world around them and themselves as global citizens.

Online learning is not a spectator sport. It is everyone's responsibility to participate fully so everyone can get the most from the experience. Here are some simple rules to follow to ensure participation and engagement in the learning process:

Ask Questions: I have created is a Discussion Forum entitled HELP BOARD, located under the General Discussion Forum tab on the Home Page. The Help Board is for asking questions related to content OR any problems you are having. Make sure that you have clearly indicated the subject of your message. If you are having technical difficulties, you will probably be directed to tech support.

Reach Out to Others: Offer a fact, an article, link or other items that can help others learn something you can share. I have created a Discussion Forum entitled AZTLÁN, located under the General Discussion Forum tab on the Home Page. Aztlán is for the entire class to share relevant information and to participate in leisure conversations as well. The only requirement is that you treat one another with the utmost respect

Inappropriate behavior/comments online will not be tolerated. Inappropriate behavior WILL BE subject to disciplinary action. I reserve the right to drop you from this course if you use our class as a venue for insulting or insensitive comments, attacks toward other students or the instructor.

Required Software:

Please make sure that all of your computer hardware is working properly and please make sure that you have all of the required software and that the software is up to date. It is very important that your Java software and your Adobe software is up to date. Blackboard works best with Mozilla Firefox and Google Chrome, but does not communicate well with Safari and especially Internet Explorer. Stay away from Internet Explorer.

Please access the Blackboard course shell. On the left hand side of the Home Page under the Course Tools you will see the first link entitled Are You Ready for Online Learning? Please access that link and then click on Check Your Technology. Read this section carefully to ensure that you have the necessary software. If you do not, you will find links on this page for downloading the necessary software and it is free. You must have Adobe Acrobat Reader to access the readings for the class and a media player plug-in to view the assigned videos (Adobe Flash Player, Windows Media Player, QuickTime Player, VLC Player, etc.). If you use Google Chrome as your browser, then the Adobe Flash Player is already built in. When creating documents, slide presentations, spreadsheets, etc., you must use Microsoft Office or a compatible program (see 10 Free MS Word Alternatives). Be sure you have the appropriate word processing software because if I cannot open your documents, they WILL NOT be graded.

Course Policies and Procedures and Grading Rubric:

I have provided a set of Course Policies and Procedures, and a Grading Rubric. On the Home Page go to the Course Resources folder and then click on Class Policies and Procedures and/or the Grading Rubric. Please access them as soon as possible and familiarize yourself with the do's and don'ts of the course and the grading scales for all assignments. The information provided is extremely important and crucial for your success in this course. I also embedded the Course Policies and Procedures in the first Learning Module: Introduction and Getting Started

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated.
