Course Description:

This course is designed to provide the student with a general overview of past and present Mexican American culture and society. Using an interdisciplinary framework, this course examines ethnic Mexican identity formation from contact and conquest to the present. The course uses race, ethnicity, class, and gender as categories of analyses to interpret how and why ethnic Mexicans create distinct cultures and identities in the United States. The readings and videos explore a number of topics to include immigration, education, labor, politics, and pop culture for a better understanding of how ethnic Mexicans negotiate, resist, and redefine their place in the U.S.

By the end of the class, students will

1. Develop the critical thinking and analytical skills necessary for effective communication both orally and written.
2. Identify, analyze, and articulate the central themes in Mexican American community and identity formation.
3. Understand theories of race, class, ethnicity, and gender in the shaping of both geo-political and metaphorical borders.
4. Connect the past to the present in an effort to better understand the world around them.
5. View themselves as global citizens.
6. Develop their technology skills and learn to use software available for teaching and learning.

Required Texts:

Additional required readings will be located on Blackboard.

Course Requirements:

Attendance and Discussion: You are expected to attend class. Completion of the course depends on your attendance. If you miss a class period, it is your responsibility to obtain handouts (from the instructor) and notes (from a fellow student).
It is equally important that you arrive to class on time! If you are more than 10 minutes late to class DO NOT bother entering the classroom! Tardiness is disruptive; therefore, classroom doors will be closed 10 minutes after class starts.

There are a few ground rules for discussion. You will regularly work in small groups discussing the assigned readings related to the class. Whether you are discussing in a group or as a class, please remember that the appeal of higher learning is that we can think and talk, maturely and responsibly, about topics like race, class, gender, and sexuality. Please make an effort to treat each other, and each other’s contributions to class discussions, with respect.

Reading Quizzes (20%): There will be short reading quizzes throughout the semester to ensure that you are engaging all class materials. Therefore, you must attend class, arrive on time, and keep up with your readings. There are absolutely no make-ups for quizzes.

Midterm Exam (25%): There will be a midterm exam tentatively scheduled for October 15, 2015. The midterm will cover Parts I and II of the course calendar. There are no make-ups for exams.

Short Writing Assignments (25%): There will be two short writing assignments. 1.) Photo Essay: Quien Soy Yo?/Who Am I? and 2.) Digital Story: What is Chicanismo? I will provide a detailed assignment sheet and a detailed in-class explanation of what is required for each assignment. These assignments will be used to frame your final reflection paper.

Final Reflection Paper (30%): The semester will end with a book-length reading that will anchor your final reflection paper. The final paper is due on December 8, 2015 and will be based on your reading of John Rechy’s novel The Miraculous Day of Amalia Gomez. The paper will analyze the novel but will also incorporate your two short writing assignments. I will provide a detailed assignment sheet and detailed in-class explanation of what is required for the final reflection paper.

Grading Scale: Final grades will be given according to the student’s demonstrated level of mastery of the subject matter as determined by his/her assignments, class discussion, and attendance. The assignments for this course are based on a scale of 100 points. Letter grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

Class Policies:

1. Attendance: Attendance and participation in class are required. Should you miss a class, you are still responsible for everything that is covered in that class. Missing class or being late is no excuse for missing a due date or misunderstanding an assignment. Therefore, you will want to make contact with a classmate, not the instructor, to find out what you missed. There are no make-ups for in-class assignments or quizzes.

2. Dropping the Class: Students may drop the class and receive a “W” any time prior to October 30, 2015.

3. Format of Written Work: All written assignments done outside of class must be typed using black ink, Times New Roman 12 pt. font, 1.25 inch margins, double-spaced, on white paper. Notes and in-class work must be legible.

4. Deadlines: Assignments are due at the beginning of class on the due date. Work handed in after the due date will be penalized 10pts. I will not accept work that is more than one class period late. Any assignment may be handed in early.

5. Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, processing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person’s as ones’ own. Collusion, involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from the University for such actions.

6. Students with Disabilities: I will make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities, including learning disabilities. Please see me personally before or after class in the first two weeks or make an appointment, to discuss any special needs you might have. If you have a documented disability and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106 within the first two weeks for classes.
