Course Description:
This course is an interdisciplinary examination of the social, political, and economic forces that characterize Chicanx identities in the U.S. By comparing and contrasting historical and contemporary Chicanx experiences, students will better understand how issues such as race, class, gender, homophobia, nationalism, and globalization define Chicanx identities in the U.S. and how Chicanx identities and communities challenge and negotiate American norms.

Student Learning Outcomes:
By the end of the class, students will:
1. Develop the critical thinking and analytical skills necessary for effective communication both orally and written.
2. Identify, analyze, and articulate the central themes, both historical and contemporary, in Chicanx identity and community formation.
3. Understand theories of race, class, ethnicity, and gender in the shaping of both geo-political and metaphorical borders.
4. Connect the past to the present in an effort to better understand the world around them.
5. Interact and collaborate with people of diverse backgrounds in open and respectful ways.
6. View themselves as global citizens.

The guiding questions for this course are the following: What is Chicana identity? What are the historical events that define Chicana identity? How do space and time inform identity formation?

Required Texts:
- Additional required readings located on Blackboard.

Students are responsible for all readings and must bring a copy to class, either digital or print.
Course Requirements:

1. Attendance and Discussion: You are expected to attend class and be there on time; Completion of the course depends on your attendance. If you miss a class period, it is your responsibility to obtain handouts (located in Blackboard) and notes (from a fellow student).

There are a few ground rules for discussion:
- Whether you are discussing in a group or as a class, please remember that the appeal of higher learning is that we can think and talk, maturely and responsibly about topics like race, class, gender, and sexuality.
- Please make an effort to treat each other, and each other’s contributions to class discussions, with respect.

2. Quizzes (20%): There will be quizzes throughout this summer session based on the readings and videos. The quizzes are intended to gauge your ability to keep up with the readings and videos and to ensure that you are attending class as required. There are no make-ups for quizzes.

3. Midterm Exam (25%): There will be a midterm exam tentatively scheduled for March 8, 2018. The midterm will cover the first 8-weeks of the course calendar. There are no make-ups for exams.

4. Journal Entries (25% each): Throughout the semester each student will keep a journal in Blackboard. The journal will consist of short blogs and other short assignments. I will provide detailed instructions for each journal entry throughout the semester. See Course Calendar for journal entry due dates. Deadline to submit the journal entries will be 11:59pm of the due date. There are no make-ups for Journal Entries

5. Final Comprehensive Exam (30%): The final exam will be on May 10, 2018 from 10:00am-12:45pm in this classroom. There are no make-ups for exams.

Grading Scale: Final grades will be given according to the student’s demonstrated level of mastery of the subject matter as determined by his/her assignments, class discussion, and attendance. The assignments for this course are based on a scale of 100 points. Letter grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

- A: 90-100
- B: 80-89
- C: 70-79
- D: 60-69
- F: 0-59

GRADUATE CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE: In order to obtain graduate credit for this course, you must satisfactorily complete a graduate level project with a topic and parameters approved beforehand by the course instructor.

Course Policies and Procedures:

1. Attendance: Attendance and participation in class are required. Should you miss a class, you are still responsible for everything that is covered in that class. Missing class or being late is no excuse for missing a due date or misunderstanding an assignment. Therefore, you will want to make contact with a classmate, not the instructor, to find out what you missed.

2. Dropping the Class: Students may drop the class and receive a “W” any time prior to March 29, 2018.

3. Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, processing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory
Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person’s as ones’ own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from the University for such actions.

4. Students with Disabilities: I will make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to disabilities, including learning disabilities. Please see me personally before or after class in the first two weeks or make an appointment, to discuss any special needs you might have. If you have a documented disability and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106 within the first two weeks for classes. For additional information please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass.

5. Student Conduct: [From the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs]: Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules/homepage.htm.

We will have frequent discussions and students are expected to tolerate and respect the opinions of others. All students are expected to behave as responsible adults.

Please SILENCE cell phones before class and NO TEXT MESSAGING and/or FACEBOOKING during class!!!
