Semester: Summer 2020	Instructor Information: Name: Dr. Jessica Slade PhD Office: EDUC 603 Office hours: emails will be answered within 24-48 hours Monday -Friday Email: jdgaines@utep.edu
Day/Time: Online

Course Description:

“The course will provide a comprehensive analysis of the role of play in cognitive, imaginative, creative, emotional and social aspects of growth in the early years. Students will have opportunities to examine a variety of issues related to play in young children's learning such as how play interacts with the emotional and intellectual development of young children and how play facilitation helps young children to expand their curiosity and competence. Students will also examine how play helps young children develop language/ literacy with greater facility. During this course, developmentally appropriate curricula that encompass the cognitive, social, emotional, and psychomotor domains will be identified and related to pedagogical guidelines. Theories and research on play and their implementation in early childhood settings will also be addressed. Restricted to majors of IDST.”

Standards of academic integrity: Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of scholastic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are not attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP) and available in the Office of the Dean of Students, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to failing grades on the work in question, to failing grades in the course, to suspension or dismissal among others.

Students with Disabilities statement: If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) located in Union E Room 106. Students who have been designated as having a disability must reactivate their standing with CASS on a yearly basis. Failure to report to this office will place a student on the inactive list and nullify benefits received. If you have a condition which may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or which may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of CASS. You may call 915-747-5148 for general information about the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).
