Selected articles posted online to Blackboard.

DRESS:

Days in which we have movement-based learning, it is imperative that students wear something comfortable that is appropriate for dance. You may wear something that you would typically wear to the gym (leggings, sweats, yoga wear, tee shirt, etc.). Some lectures will be conducted in socks or barefoot (at the student's discretion). Others, I would highly suggest wearing sneakers, as we will be dancing on the Magoffin Auditorium stage. I will alert you the class day prior to the workshop if you should wear sneakers, and post it on Blackboard in "Announcements". I have also noted on "sneaker days" on the attached calendar as indicated by a sneaker icon.

RESPECT:

Dance does not live in a vacuum. Dance is a vibrant, living cultural artifact. As such, our discussions will include sensitive topics such as race, ethnicity, gender, and sexual orientation. I value your voice. Please value the voices of your peers in this classroom. I will not tolerate discourse that is derogatory, defamatory, or violent towards any group or individual.

COUNSELING SERVICES:

I highly encourage students to reach out for professional help in times of stress and while coping with grief. Due to the tragic events that unfolded on the 3rd of August, there are many of us who may feel especially vulnerable. I urge you to take advantage of the counseling services available here at the University. I will be periodically updating assistance information available to those touched by this tragedy throughout the semester. <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/counsel/>

ATTENDANCE FIRST/LATENESS/PARTICIPATION POLICY:

“ATTENDANCE FIRST” ABSENCE POLICY

To succeed in any course, but especially a dance course where students can often only learn by experiential participation, a student must first and above all be present. Therefore, the Attendance First Absence Policy of the UTEP Dance Program prioritizes class attendance and participation at the top of the grading process.

TECHNIQUE/THEORY/CREATIVE CLASSES THAT MEET TWICE OR THREE TIMES A WEEK.

In a course that meets twice a week, a student is allowed a maximum of 4 absences in an entire semester, 2 of which require no justification and result in no penalty. A student may use these absences based on personal necessity. The 3rd and 4th absences will result in a drop of ½ letter each in the student’s overall grade. At the 5th absence, regardless of the student’s current course standing or grade, the student automatically fails the course.

For courses that meet three times a week, the allowance is 3 absences without penalty. The course grade is reduced by ½ letter each for the 4th, 5th, and 6th absence, and the student automatically fails at the 7th absence.

TECHNIQUE CLASSES MEETING 4 AND 5 TIMES A WEEK.

For courses that meet four and five times a week, the maximum allowance for an entire semester is 8 absences. Five result in no penalty and require no justification. The 6th, 7th, and 8th absences result in the lowering of the overall course grade by ½ letter. At the 9th absence, the student fails the course regardless of course average.

EXCEPTIONS:

- In the event of international bridge closures, exceptions may be made and make-up course work assigned.
- In case of an injury or extended illness, it is the student's responsibility to meet with his or her instructor to discuss possible solutions for course continuation or to consider dropping the class.
- In the event of highly unusual or extenuating circumstances, a student may petition the course instructor and department chair for permission to continue in a course.

Student Conduct/Scholastic Dishonesty/Final Exams and Plagiarism:

Refer to the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs. Any form of academic dishonesty: cheating, plagiarizing, or taking a test for another student is considered a very serious matter at UTEP. Our library webpage provides good information on what UTEP considers Academic Dishonesty and what steps the university takes in such cases. Please review this information at: <http://libraryweb.utep.edu/research/plagiarism.php> If I suspect plagiarism I will immediately turn your work over to student conduct to have them handle the situation. If found that you have committed academic dishonesty, it will go on your record.

Technical Support

If you do not know how to use Blackboard – go to Tech Support Room 300 at Library immediately. Do not wait until you are having problems. You can contact Help Desk via email, helpdesk@utep.edu, or by phone 747-5257. Hours are M-F 7a-8p, Sat 9a-10p and Sun 12-4p.

Subject Matter

The performing arts have the power to stir strong emotions, or possibly touch on subjects you might not feel comfortable seeing on stage. If you have concerns about viewing or discussing specific subjects, please see me as soon as possible to discuss possible accommodations. As I will respect your individual rights to choose what shows you want to see, I expect all our discussions—including any that may occur outside of class—to be conducted in a respectful and professional matter.

Copyright and Fair Use:

The University requires all members of its community to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The University will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies.

ADA:

The Americans with Disabilities Act requires that reasonable accommodations be provided for students with physical, sensory, cognitive, systemic, learning, and psychiatric disabilities. If you have a disability and need classroom accommodations, please contact The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106.
