Instructor Introduction

Your instructor for this course, Jacob Muñoz, has been designing for over a decade. He holds two degrees including a BFA from the University of Texas at El Paso with a major in Graphic Design and a minor in Drawing and his MFA form New Mexico State University majoring in Graphic Design. Prior to becoming an Instructor, Jacob Muñoz has designed for a number of Design Studios and Ad Agencies in the El Paso area. Apart from teaching, Muñoz has been an acting freelance designer for Substance, El Paso Chili Company, and for Ysleta del Sur Pueblo and Tigua Inc. respectively.

Course Description

Basic Design I is a foundation level class structured for the needs of art majors who plan to pursue a career in art. Students are introduced to the visual elements and principles of design through slide lectures and demonstrations. The Visual Elements consist of: point and line; shape and mass; texture; light; color; and space. The Principles of Design include: unity and variety; balance; emphasis and focal point; proportion and scale; movement, stability and rhythm. Students will be expected to apply the concepts learned from the lectures and demonstrations to create 2-dimensional visual compositions. Students will advance from achromatic compositions to more advanced chromatic compositions. Classroom lecture will expand upon visual elements and principles of design to include straight, curved and implied line; geometric and organic shapes; positive and negative space; approximate symmetry, symmetrical, asymmetrical and radial balance; illusion of depth; simulated and actual texture; and color theory. The majority of class time will be spent working on assignments but outside time may be necessary to complete the work. Critiques will follow most major assignments for critical feedback from the instructor and fellow classmates.
Course Prerequisite Information

No prerequisites are required as this is the first Design course offered within the structure of the foundations program for a BFA or BA degree in Art. It is recommended that art majors take ARTF 1302 Basic Drawing 1 concurrently with this course.

Course Goals and Objectives

• Development and understanding of the basic terminology of art and design.
• Development and understanding of good composition principles.
• Development and understanding of technical skills such as simple drawing, painting and cutting skills needed to render well composed solely 2-dimensional designs.
• Develop good craftsmanship and an outstanding work ethic and the commitment necessary to succeed in achieving the above stated goals and objectives.

Course Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this class will be able to:

• Create properly composed, well balanced 2-dimensional designs using various materials.
• Effectively use the visual elements in a composition and apply the principles of design for stronger, more creative and effective 2-dimensional artwork.
• Identify and recognize a well crafted piece of art.
• Be aware of various art movements and concepts through exposure to various artists and their works.
• Acquire a basic knowledge of art terminology to express their ideas verbally.

Students grades will be determined by the amount of commitment, attendance, punctuality, effort, and attitude put toward the design course. I take into account the physical condition of the work presented. All work should be clean, smudge free, and unwrinkled. All projects are weighted equally. NO EXTRA CREDIT IS GIVEN!

• Late work or work not presented in critique will receive one letter grade lower.
• Work that is done solely outside of class for assigned class projects without input from the instructor while in progress, will not be accepted.

CRITIQUE

Formal and informal critiques will be held during the course of the semester. Students are expected to participate fully in class critiques both by offering constructive commentary to their peers and by later considering and applying discussed formal and substantial issues to their own work. Remember, when you examine and critique your work or the work of others, evaluate not just the aesthetic sensibility or the artistic achievement of the piece (although you should consider these). Evaluate also:

• The focus of the work.
• What you think is being communicated.
• The points of struggle in the work (what's working and what is not), and
• How these points of struggle could be resolved.
If possible, ask your peer about his/her goals, struggles, and influences. Your critique should help direct the strengths of the work toward the artist’s goals. When your work is being criticized, remember:

- You can always learn from others. Make an effort to be as open as possible. Good advice should resonate with you as you develop in your studio practice; it is an opportunity to learn. Try to avoid deflecting comments.
- Most people have a hard time offering criticism. Hear criticism as the gift that it is.

Critique etiquette:
- Don’t miss critiques!
- Come to class ten minutes early on critique days, and set up your work before class starts.
- If you are late to critique, do not interrupt by setting up your work. We will review your work at the end of the critique session; you should remind the group if we are about to proceed without critiquing your work.
- Listen carefully to comments about your own work. Either take notes or have someone else take notes for you.
- Listen to comments about the work of your peers (it probably applies to you too.)
- Contribute to the discussion honestly and thoughtfully.
- Don’t disrupt the critique with private conversations

Course Requirements

A detailed calendar will be given out the first week of classes

A 90-100 represents outstanding work and is reflective of works and performance of exceptional ability and absolute quality.

B 80-89 stands for above average performance, going beyond expectation.

C 70-79 is for average and adequate work that fulfills requirements and expectations (the majority of students start at this level). This is the minimum grade required to continue on to the next art foundation course. Students will not receive a grade of “C” for just showing up to class or for turning work in on time.

D 60-69 represents less than average performance and is considered underachieved. Credit given.

F 60 & below is for unacceptable performance. The student will receive no credit.

I will only be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All “I” grades are at the discretion of the instructor, with the approval of the department chair and the dean.

W the withdrawal option must be completed on or before the final drop date (April 5, 2019). Students hold the full responsibility for withdrawing from this course if that procedure is elected. The instructor may recommend a student to withdraw but is not responsible to withdraw a student from the class.

Course Policies

- Each student is permitted 3 absences during the semester without penalty. Students with more than 3 class absences should consider dropping this course and retaking it at a time when the student can commit the proper attention to the course.
- Each absence after 3 will result in the final course grade being lowered 1 full letter grade (i.e. with 4 absences an A becomes B, D becomes F, etc.). After 5 absences you will be dropped from the course.
• Excused absences are defined as DOCUMENTED illness/serious illness or death in the immediate family.
• After 5 absences you will be dropped from the course.
• Late to class (ARRIVING AFTER THE ROLL IS TAKEN) constitutes one half of an absence.
• That is, 2 tardy’s = 1 absence.
• All students are required to attend class on-time and to remain in class the entire time. Entering class late (tardy) and leaving early is disruptive to the learning environment and will count as a half-absence.
• 2 half-absences = 1 full absences
• Coming to class unprepared (no materials) or attending class and not working is regarded as absent.
• Information missed during an absence is the sole responsibility of the student.

Late/Tardy Policy
Late to class (arriving after the roll is taken) constitutes one half of an absence. That is, 2 tardy’s = 1 absence.

This is a grade-based course and is not available for audit or pass/fail options.
