COURSE DESCRIPTION (3 credit hours)

This course focuses on the cultural, structural and institutional dynamics of schooling in multicultural communities. It covers the multiple roles of the 21st century teacher, equity issues in elementary education, and how teachers can utilize the linguistic, cultural and personal resources of children to support meaningful academic growth. Students will explore empowering approaches to teaching as they select, plan, provide and evaluate educational experiences appropriate to the developmental level, sociocultural background, and diverse learning needs of elementary-aged children. We will review each strategy in depth through group activities, discussions, quickwrites, observations, and reflections. Students will immediately put each practice to use during their residency with ease and fidelity. Students will also learn and incorporate best practices for supporting English learners in a diverse classroom.

POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Food insecurity, mental health, and access to support services

Learning happens only when our bodies and minds are well—and all of us occasionally face challenges to wellness that interfere with our learning. I want you to be aware of a variety of support services on campus that can help you navigate these challenges and obstacles. The UTEP Food Pantry is available to help address students' basic food needs, as well as needs for personal hygiene items and access to additional support programs for students and their families. It is located at Memorial Gym Room 105, hours and more information posted online at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/foodpantry/>. The office of Counseling and Psychological Services offers mental health counseling, crisis counseling, and many workshops on wellness topics—all of which are free to UTEP students. Their hours and services are posted online at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/counsel/resources/services-students.html>. Additional support services and resources are listed at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/resources/index.html>. If you are facing an obstacle to your learning, I encourage you to check out these resources, or let me know, and I will be happy to help you find the supports you need. You are not alone.

*Changes to the syllabus

College of Education, Teacher Education
University of Texas at El Paso

I strive to respond in my teaching to the shifting conditions of our class community: current events, our discussions, our interests, our extant experiences, and needs for growth. Some changes may be made to the syllabus along the way. I will always notify you or ask you to participate in the decision to make changes. If there are significant changes, the updated syllabus will be made available via email.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS/REQUIREMENTS

Quick Writes/Written Closure Reflections

A Quick Write is a strategy used to develop writing fluency, to build the habit of reflection into a learning experience, and to informally assess current thinking. The strategy asks learners to respond in 5–10 minutes to an open-ended question or prompt posed before, during, or after reading or [viewing]. Its purpose is to activate prior knowledge, help make personal connections, promote reflection about key content concepts, encourage critical thinking, organize ideas for better comprehension, and demonstrate understanding of key concepts. You will be writing quick writes on articles, activities and viewings of documentaries presented in class, as well as, closure reflections at the end class.

The Fundamental 5 Observation and Reflection

Students will complete multiple observations focused on The Fundamental 5 throughout the semester. Students will be required to observe a video from the field and complete the observation and reflection. We will meet face to face once a month to connect The Fundamental 5 observation and reflection to our learning.

Content Exam 240 Tutoring Checkpoints

There will be 4 checkpoints throughout the semester to ensure completion of CONTENT exam preparation on 240 tutoring.

Checkpoint 1	Mathematics	Completion by	February 13	Transcript Due
Checkpoint 2	English Language Arts	Completion by	March 10	Transcript Due
Checkpoint 3	Science	Completion by	April 10	Transcript Due
Checkpoint 4	Social Studies	Completion by	May 8	Transcript Due

*Fine Arts, Health/PE will be completed on your time embedded throughout the semester

EPP Application Components

This course will help support you in the application process for the year long residency program. There will be a series of workshops throughout the semester geared toward preparing you for testing, application components and advising. You will complete a diagnostic exam, preparation for certification testing, and write an essay during this semester.

Bridging the The Fundamental 5 to The POP Cycle

You will create, implement and evaluate a lesson plan. The lesson plan will include detailed sections - knowledge of self, knowledge of students, student achievement chart, knowledge of curriculum and resources, and knowledge of standards. We will chunk the lesson plan and complete a residency like lesson plan by the end of the semester.

College of Education, Teacher Education
University of Texas at El Paso

Response to Observation and Practice(RtOP)

To help you synthesize your observations during the semester you will be required to submit “Response to Observation/Practice” (RtOP) reflections.

There are 4 necessary components for each of your RtOP reflections.

1. First, OBSERVE

There are a series of observation tools that you will be provided that assist you in looking at classroom practice in a purposeful way. When you observe, you will collect data by using each tool to help you make sense of what you are seeing, what it means and questions that may emerge for you.

Additionally, this process will help you with the CONNECT to Standard, Text and Self portion of the RtOP written below. You will attach this completed form with each RtOP and submit it within the required timeline in order to receive credit.

2. Second, CONNECT to Standard -

In a written response, you will synthesize 5 of your observations by connecting the experience to one of the TEExES Secondary and All Levels Professional Development Standards:

- Standard I: The teacher designs instruction appropriate for all students that reflects an understanding of relevant content and is based on continuous and appropriate assessment.
- Standard II: The teacher creates a classroom environment of respect and rapport that foster a positive climate for learning, equity and excellence.
- Standard III: The teacher promotes student learning by providing responsive instruction that makes use of effective communication techniques, instructional strategies that actively engage students in the learning process, and timely, high-quality feedback.
- Standard IV: The teacher fulfills professional roles and responsibilities and adheres to legal and ethical requirements of the profession.

For your RtOP, create the heading: “Connect to Standard,” and in this section you will need to examine the standards and select one to discuss in light of your observation/practice. How does the standard speak to what you observed, saw or did? Be specific and give a detailed discussion that thoroughly demonstrates your understanding of the standard you selected. Keep in mind, that you are expected to use all 4 standards at least once over the course of the semester; however, there is not a particular order you must go in—just make sure you address each of them thoroughly.

3. Third, CONNECT to Text

Under the heading: “Connect to Text” and in this section you will connect your experience to one or more of the course readings. How do the readings speak to what you are observing or doing? What are the contradictions and/or challenges? How do the readings help you understand what you are observing, doing and/or thinking about? Make sure you properly cite your response in APA or MLA style. No excuses about APA or MLA formatting.

See <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/> for an excellent resource.

4. Fourth, CONNECT to Self

Finally, for each RtOP, under the heading: “Connect to Self,” you are expected to connect what you have observed yourself. What are you learning about yourself? What are you learning about teaching elementary, middle, and/or high school? How does this awareness inform your notion of teaching and learning—that is, what it appears to be and what it can be? So, to recap, each RtOP should have the following components with appropriate section headings:

- Connection to Standard
- Connection to Text
- Connection to Self
- Attached Observation Tool
