Course Description
This course is a practical study of monologue and scene work in heightened text. Coursework includes in-exercises, discussions, text analysis, monologue and scene work focused on playwrights including Chekhov, Strindberg, Pinter, Beckett, Wallace, Brecht, Genet, Shepard, Churchill, Kane, Mamet, and Ibsen.

Learning Goals
Upon successful completion of this course you should be able to:
• Articulate similarities and difference of different acting styles and genres, ranging from Russian to postmodern American drama.
• Demonstrate ability to connect to text of a myriad of styles
• Demonstrate ability to connect to and personalize ‘absurdist’ given circumstances
• Use full physical and vocal expressive range when acting in any style
• Demonstrate how pace and tempo affect performance
• Connect to (and share your work with) an audience when working on a myriad of styles.

Required Texts
The Plays of Anton Chekhov by Anton Chekhov
Love and Information by Caryl Churchill
Ashes to Ashes and Other Plays by Harold Pinter
Nine Plays of the Modern Theatre
Four Plays by Eugene Ionesco
Plays Four by Caryl Churchill

Recommended Texts
The Great Acting Teachers and Their Methods by Richard Brestoff
How to Stop Acting by Harold Guskin
Playwrights and Acting: Acting methodologies for Brecht, Ionesco, Pinter, and Shepard by James McTeague

Participation
Active participation is vital to your growth as artists and to your success in this class. You will be expected to come to class on-time and fully prepared, actively engage in class discussions, and give your all to class exercises and scene work. Class periods will include exercises, scene work, and discussions. Absences, lateness, lack of preparation, or non-participation will lower your grade significantly—each absence after TWO lowers your overall grade a whole letter grade. Three tardies are equivalent to one absence. Share your voice! We only get better by asking questions and taking risks.

Written Work Responses
Over the course of the semester you will turn in three short papers or “Work Responses.” Responses can include questions/discoveries/responses to reading and in-class exercises, or something you noticed when working or watching a live theatrical production (related to course concepts). Specific due dates are listed below. Responses should be at least two pages, double spaced, and typed. No electronic copies will be accepted.

In-Class Exercises (Scene/Monologue Work)
Includes all work done in class. You will be evaluated on preparation, work ethic, professional standards, and ability to apply course concepts. You are expected to memorize and rehearse your scenes outside of class.

Academic Integrity
Any incident of academic dishonesty will result in a grade of zero on the assignment. This includes cheating and plagiarism. Please visit http://sa.utep.edu/osccr/academic-integrity/ for more information.

Disability Accommodations
The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at UTEP provides students with disabilities, accommodations and support services to help them pursue their academic, graduation, and career goals. For more information, visit http://sa.utep.edu/cass/.

Subject Matter
The scripts and scenes studied in this course deal with mature subject matters. Consequently, much of the discussion in class will require discussion of adult subject matter and language. If you have concerns, please see me as soon as possible to discuss possible accommodations. All classroom discussions must be held in a respectful and professional matter.

Electronic Devices
No electronic devices allowed in class unless permission is given beforehand. Students using electronic devices in class will be asked to leave and marked absent for the day.
