Course Information: What this Class Is About and What We will Do

COURSE DESCRIPTION

HUMN 3302 surveys the art, philosophy, and history that inform the social, political and religious institutions of World Culture from the centuries prior to the Common Era to approximately 1600 CE. The survey examines the arts of the era, relating them to political and social-historical contexts.

“World culture” is a broad label referring to vast and diverse historical periods, geographies, human societies, language groups, political and economic systems. This section of Humanities 3302 aids in the development of an understanding of ancient, Medieval European and early Renaissance religious belief, philosophy, literature, architecture, music and arts that have shaped contemporary European history and today’s World Culture. While drawing such regional and global interconnections, our foci shall particularly include: creation of the New Testament canon and western Christianity, intellectual tension between faith and reason in the medieval and Renaissance eras, persistence and transformation of the myth of “Rome,” development of Islamic culture in Iberia, the crusading impulse, the medieval aesthetic in art and architecture in relation to medieval philosophy, technology and world views, civic humanism and transitions from medieval to Renaissance mentalities, Renaissance arts, social constructs and anomalies, the ideals of chivalry and western romantic courtship, protestant reformation, and the results of experiences in the Americas for both Europe and the western hemisphere. We shall engage in discussion and application of key topics as we develop a more complete understanding of World Culture.

COURSE OBJECTIVES OR EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

- Understand selected historical arts and architectural elements of Europe
- Engage materials analytically to write a series of thoughtful essays
- Draw on musical and expressive genres to interpret arts and their times
- Develop an appreciation of Medieval and Renaissance arts and architecture
- Address the historic transition from western Christendom to the Enlightenment
- Develop content knowledge of assigned textbooks

LEARNING MODULES

This course is designed using a modular format— that is, each week is “packaged” as a single module so that the non-textbook materials, discussion boards, assignments, final examination, submission areas, and submission links are in one area scrolling down within the Content tab and within the Discussions tab. Most materials are in our Blackboard classroom in Content. At various times throughout the semester, current modules, assessments and instructions will appear in Content, and in Discussions, in chronological order. The four assigned textbooks are available from the UTEP bookstore and other book vendors.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

There are four required textbooks:

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

All assessments for this course can be found by clicking on the appropriate links in Content and in Discussions.

Grade Distribution:

500-450 = A 449-400 = B 399-350 = C 349-300 = D 299 and Below = F

- 200 Points: Discussion Boards
- 100 Points: Essay 1
- 100 Points: Essay 2
- 100 Points: Final Examination (including an essay section)

No extra credit will be offered in this class. You must complete all required assessments so that you may earn a favorable grade. Your final grade corresponds to your cumulative earned points compared to this list and its five hundred point grading scale, not an overall percentage from work attempted.

Tri-weekly Discussion Board (5X40=200 pts.):

Beginning in Week 1, I will assign a new topic and questions for discussions based on some currently assigned readings and materials. You will discuss each current topic for three weeks. There are a total of five such discussions. Each discussion will appear in our Blackboard classroom. You must write a minimum of three posts in each discussion:

A) One original initial thread post in which you address my topical question(s).

You must post your own initial thread post no later than Thursday in the second week of the new discussion topic. The initial thread post is your first post for that discussion. It must address my discussion question(s) with a minimum of 500 words. (There is no maximum word count.)

You will be able to view other students' posts only after you first submit your own original initial thread post.

B) At least two response posts addressed to two or more fellow students' initial thread posts, within their initial threads.

Response posts must be posted no later than Thursday of the third week of a new discussion topic, with a minimum of 100 words in each post. (There is no maximum word count.) Each post should explain how or why you agree and/or disagree with your classmates' ideas.

You are required to cite pages from the assigned textbook(s) for that week, using APA, MLA, or Chicago style citations. Cite the book that is required for that particular Discussion, according to the instructions; it will be one of the following: The Confessions of Saint Augustine, The Poem of the Cid, The Book of the City of Ladies, or Utopia. Use your citations in your response posts to classmates' initial thread posts, to support your ideas. Discussion posts will be graded based on their quality. Please use complete sentences, proper spelling, grammar and syntax. Avoid text message language, colloquialisms, contractions and casual speech. All posts (both original thread posts and response posts) in the discussion board should contribute in at least one of the following ways:

- Integrate various main ideas from the textbook(s).
- Thoughtfully describe what the concept and/or issues mean, from your perspective.
- Synthesize ideas from multiple posts.
- Agree and elaborate in more detail on a viewpoint.
- Disagree, and explain or describe your perspective or ask a new question.
- Evaluate/analyze the reasonableness or quality of a classmate's ideas.
- Identify hidden assumptions, fallacies, or things taken for granted.
- Apply the principles or concepts of the readings to real life.

You will find additional specific details for the Discussions in my emailed announcements, which will also appear in the Announcements link on the left-hand column of your Blackboard classroom, at appropriate times according to the Assignment Schedule section of this Syllabus, below.

Two Essays (2X100=200 pts.):

You will individually write two essays based on topics assigned by the instructor. The instructions and drop boxes are in Blackboard "Content" and one is already available. You will submit your essays, in the Blackboard drop boxes only, no later than their due dates at 11:59 PM, US Mountain Time Zone.

Final Examination (100 pts.):

The final examination is a take-home exam. Exam material is drawn from the textbooks, other readings and course content. You will find additional details for the Final Examination and the drop box, a day prior to Final Examination Week, in Blackboard "Content" near the bottom of the page. The Exam will include an essay section with an essay topic similar to the ones previously assigned.

You must wait for the Final Exam to appear in Blackboard, and to discover its structure at that time. The exam will not be given early and no further information about it will be disclosed prior to the proper time.

There is no extra credit for this course.

Attendance and Participation:

For this online course, attendance is not graded. Participation is required and it affects your grade. Attendance and participation may possibly be reported to the University for administrative purposes.

You are encouraged to complete all required assessments so that you may earn a favorable grade. Your final grade corresponds to your cumulative earned points only, as per the list above, not an overall percentage from work attempted.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Course content is delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

You will need to have access to a desktop computer or laptop. You should not use a tablet or cell phone for this course, so that you may have no technical problems.

You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have a word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP's Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

IMPORTANT: If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the UTEP Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students. Please do not contact me for this type of assistance.

Course Communication: How We will stay in Contact with Each Other

Because this is an online class, we will not see each other in the ways you may be accustomed to. There are no class times, no small group meetings, and the office hours are online. However, there are a number of ways we can keep the communication channels open.

Zoom and Email are my preferred methods of contact. An online Zoom Office Hours link is available in our Blackboard classroom. Alternatively, if you would rather have a live meeting or chat via Skype or Messenger, first notify me via email that you wish to send me a contact request (that must include your name, the class and section number, above). For a live phone call you may use my mobile number, which I can provide upon request.

- Office Hours: We will not be able to meet on campus, but I will still have office hours for your questions and comments about the course. My office hours will be held on Zoom via the link in our Blackboard classroom, and during the following times:

Mondays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

Tuesdays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

Wednesdays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

My physical office location is in Liberal Arts room 320 on the El Paso main campus. However, I will not be on campus this semester.

- Email: UTEP e-mail is one of the best ways to contact me. I will make every attempt to respond to your e-mail within 24-48 hours of receipt. When e-mailing me, be sure to email from your UTEP student account, not an external email account. In your email, please write your name, HUMN 3302 and the CRN number in the subject line. In the body of your e-mail, clearly state your question. At the end of your e-mail, be sure to include your first and last name, and the last four digits of your university identification number.
- Message Board: If you have a question, you may post it in the Message Board inside of Blackboard.
- Announcements: Check the Blackboard announcements frequently for any updates, deadlines, or other important messages.
- Alternative Skype or Messenger Contacts: available upon request via UTEP email.

NETIQUETTE

You must uphold a mature level of interaction with fellow students and with the instructor. When you post anything in Blackboard or communicate via any other medium, please respect other students, showing courtesy in all interactions.

As we know, sometimes communication online can be challenging. It is possible to miscommunicate what we mean or to misunderstand what our classmates mean given the lack of body language and immediate feedback. Therefore, please keep these netiquette (network etiquette) guidelines in mind. Failure to observe them may result in disciplinary action.

- Always consider your audience. This is a college-level course; therefore, all communication should reflect polite consideration of other's ideas.
- Respect and courtesy must be provided to classmates and to the instructor at all times. No harassment or inappropriate postings will be tolerated.
- When responding to someone else's message, address the ideas, not the person. Post only what anyone would comfortably state in a face-to-face situation.
- Blackboard is not a public internet venue; all postings to it should be considered private and confidential. Whatever is posted in these online spaces is intended for classmates and professors only. Please do not copy documents and paste them to a publicly accessible website, blog, or other space.

Course Policies: What do you Need to Do to be Successful in the Course

You are responsible for understanding and abiding by the policies and procedures described below. Any problems that I encounter in this course may be reported to the Dean of Students.

ATTENDANCE, PARTICIPATION, AND ABSENCE POLICY

I measure student attendance and participation in this course according to the date and time of a student's most recent Blackboard log-in and by the number of assignments and assessments completed. Your final letter grade is measured by the cumulative grades of all assignments and assessments that are assigned, not by your attendance. Although attendance in the course hardly affects your grade, participation is a critical component of your grade. Attendance and participation may possibly be important for University or organizational administrative purposes.

DEADLINES AND LATE WORK

All assignments and assessments will be due on Thursdays at midnight (11:59 PM). The grades of any late works submitted for a grade after their deadlines will decrease at the rate of ten percent of the total possible value, per day late, with the exception of work due after Week 14. In the case of these later weeks, submissions may not be late. No late submissions will be accepted after that time, and no excuses will be accepted. As assessment deadlines are rigorous during the latter weeks of the course, they cannot be made up after the deadline.

EXCUSED ABSENCES AND COURSE DROP POLICY

There are no excused absences. You are entitled to drop this class with a grade of "W" until the official university drop deadline, as described in the Schedule of Classes and the University Catalog. You are responsible for dropping the class. There will be no faculty-initiated drops, except under special circumstances. If you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, first contact the Registrar's Office to initiate the drop process, then let me know that you have done so. If you do not, then you are at risk of receiving an "F" for the course.

ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented physical or other challenges in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. Students requesting an accommodation based on a challenge must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact CASS at 915-747-5148, email them at cass@utep.edu, visit their website at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/cass/> or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

It is your responsibility to speak with a counselor in order to receive necessary help. Within the first week of the beginning of the semester, you must provide documentation from CASS in order to receive any accommodation(s). You must also consult the instructor in order to ensure timely accommodation. Failure to contact CASS, provide documentation, and consult the instructor in a timely manner may delay such accommodation(s) being made.

COVID-19 PRECAUTIONS

Please stay home if you have been diagnosed with COVID-19 or are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms. If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible, so that we can work on appropriate accommodations. If you have tested positive for COVID-19, you are encouraged to report your results to covidaction@utep.edu, so that the Dean of Students Office can provide you with support and help with communication with your professors. The Student Health Center is equipped to provide COVID 19 testing.

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people in areas of substantial or high COVID-19 transmission wear face masks when indoors in groups of people. The best way that Miners can take care of Miners is to get the vaccine. If you still need the vaccine, it is widely available in the El Paso area.

SCHOLASTIC INTEGRITY

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR) for possible disciplinary action. To learn more, please visit HOOP: Student Conduct and Discipline.
