Course Information: What this Class Is About and What We will Do

COURSE DESCRIPTION

INSS 1301 provides an introduction to history and security in the long twentieth century (ca. 1870-2000). In particular, the course examines major wars, diplomatic initiatives, and military developments that proved significant to the international state system. It provides a critical foundation for more advanced courses in security studies.

COURSE OBJECTIVES OR EXPECTED LEARNING OUTCOMES

At the end of this course, students will be able to:

- survey the major events and chronology of international relations history from 1870 to the present, including imperialism, two world wars, the Cold War, and events of the post-1991 world.
- understand the broad forces working for peace or war particularly in Europe, and affecting the wider world, over the past 150 years.
- assess the periodic and specific forces that opposed the international order or affected it negatively, whether mass movements, ideologies, states or other entities.
- evaluate various calculations involved in decisions made by state and non-state actors.
- effectively critique arguments posed by historical sources.

ONLINE COURSE OVERVIEW

Distance education provides students with flexibility to work and study at times that fit each person's schedule during the day or night, and not to have to attend class F2F. However, all students must still meet weekly course deadlines. Be engaged online at least 3 times EVERY WEEK so that you complete the readings on your own, the discussion questions, respond to your peers in a timely fashion, and comply with all deadlines for completing the assessments. Each week will consist of a different module with a new discussion question (DQ) that opens and closes at a particular time. The module for the week will open/post in Blackboard each Sunday morning at 12:01 am Mountain Time (all times posted are on the Mountain Time zone), and the DQ for that module will close/disappear the following Saturday evening at 11:59 pm. So, each DQ will be open for only one week at a time. If you get behind or miss some DQ components, you will NOT be able to go back and finish later/make up the DQs, assignments, or assessments. This course is fast-paced. We cover several chapters per week.

LINEAR COURSE FORMAT

This course is designed in a linear chronological and thematic format so that all textbook lists, other course materials, notes, assessments, and submission links are located in our Blackboard classroom on the Home Page, in Announcements, In Course Modules, in Ebook + InQuizitive, and in DQs – Discussion Qs, all via links located on the left-hand column. At various times throughout the semester, certain assessments and instructions will appear in these sites in chronological order according to their opening dates (not their due dates).

REQUIRED TEXTS AND MATERIALS AND OPTIONAL TEXTS

There are two required textbooks, required Blackboard materials, and four optional textbooks.

Required texts:

William Keylor, The Twentieth-Century World and Beyond: An International History since 1900. Sixth Edition. 2011. ISBN-13: 978-0199736348; ISBN-10: 0199736340.

Karen A Mingst, Heather Elko McKibben, and Ivan M Arreguín-Toft, Essentials of International Relations. 8th Edition. 2018. (To be purchased only via Blackboard e-book link.)

You must purchase Mingst, et. al., Essentials of International Relations only through our Blackboard course site as an Ebook, during the first week of instruction when you go to “Ebook + InQuizitive” and click on “How to Register for InQuizitive with Blackboard.” You should purchase this Ebook, including access to the required quizzes at that time. Do not get any twenty-day free trial that may be offered, since that particular option would only create problems with your grades later this month when the connection between your quizzes and my gradebook would be severed and you would lose your grades.

You may purchase or rent the other textbooks from the UTEP Bookstore or commercial vendors.

Required Blackboard materials:

Other required course materials are located in Blackboard including video links. You must read and be familiar with all of the information in the required textbooks and videos, in accordance with the Weekly Calendar section of this syllabus.

Optional texts:

You are encouraged to purchase one of the following survey textbooks of international relations for the period 1815 onwards, in order to supplement other course content. You should make use of it in discussions. Multiple interpretations lead to better discussions:

F. R. Bridge and Roger Bullen. The Great Powers and the European States System, 1814-1914.

Henry Kissinger. Diplomacy.

Walter LaFeber, The American Age, Vol. 2: Since 1896.

David Reynolds. One World Divisible: A Global History Since 1945.

A. J. P. Taylor. The Struggle For Mastery of Europe, 1848-1918.

The textbook covers may possibly differ from the images in this syllabus. You may purchase or rent most of the textbooks from the UTEP Bookstore or commercial vendors. Other course materials are located in our Blackboard classroom including articles, YouTube video links and required assessments. You must read and be familiar with all of the information as described in the assigned textbooks and other materials, in accordance with the Weekly Calendar section of this syllabus.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS, ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

All assessment requirements for this course can be found by clicking on the appropriate links in our Blackboard classroom.

Grade Distribution:

500-450 = A 449-400 = B 399-350 = C 349-300 = D 299 and Below = F

- 90 points: Weekly Discussion Questions (DQs)
- 99 points: InQuizitive Scores (11 chapter quizzes on Mingst textbook)
- 100 points: Essay
- 111 points: Book Test (Keylor textbook)
- 100 points: Final Examination

These assessments are subject to change by the instructor.

Weekly Discussion Questions (DQ)- See the Weekly Calendar section for due dates (6X15=90 pts.):

There are a total of 6 sets of DQs—one per week. Each DQ set is located in one of the weekly modules. It is composed of 2 posts:

A) One Original 300-word minimum post in response to the instructor's initial question(s).

Your own post must answer the instructor's question(s) posed with a 300-word minimum (no maximum word count), being sure to back up your opinion with something you learned from the assigned textbooks or other assigned materials.

You must cite a page number from one of the textbooks at least once per original response, either by stating a fact found in the book or a viewpoint in the book that is similar to or different from your own opinion. When backing up your opinion, use APA format to cite the textbook: (Alarid & Reichel, 2018, p. 23) (Author's last name, year, and page number). More information can be found by visiting: <https://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/560/08/>.

The Department of Criminal Justice uses APA-style rather than MLA or footnotes.

You will be able to view other students' posts once you first complete your own original post.

B) At least one response post to another student's post.

The response post must be a minimum of 100 words, but has no maximum word count, where you are expected to explain why you may agree or disagree with another person's ideas/response. Citations are not required for response posts, unless you are making a factual point that differs or is in opposition to the other student's original post. Paginal citation from an optional textbook, in a response post, would increase the likelihood of a better discussion grade, however.

DQ posts will be graded based on response quality, and whether in-text citation(s) are provided. Please use complete sentences in English, and proper spelling and grammar. Avoid text message language and casual speech. All posts (both original and response) in the discussion board should contribute in at least one of the following ways:

- Integrate various main ideas from the books.

- Thoughtfully describe what the concept and/or issues mean to you.
- Synthesize ideas from multiple posts.
- Agree and elaborate in more detail on a viewpoint.
- Disagree, and create a new perspective or ask a new question.
- Evaluate/analyze the reasonableness or quality of ideas.
- Identify hidden assumptions, fallacies, or things taken for granted.
- Apply the principles or concepts from the book to your own or someone else's life.

Eleven InQuizitive Quizzes (11x9=99 pts.):

All quiz links for the History and Security course are located in the “Ebook + InQuizitive” link on the left-hand panel. Then click on the proper quiz link. Most weeks, you will complete two InQuizitive quizzes. Questions are based on information from the Mingst, et. al., Essentials of International Relations textbook.

You must answer questions that InQuizitive presents to you. Each time you answer a question correctly, you gain points. If you answer one incorrectly, you lose points. You adjust your confidence level and that affects the quiz in various ways. Obviously, you need to study the Mingst, et. al., Essentials of International Relations textbook in order to do well on the InQuizitive quizzes.

There are 11 such quizzes in this course. Note that the InQuizitive point system differs from the Blackboard point system in this course, for InQuizitive is operated by W.W. Norton, the Mingst, et. al., Essentials of International Relations textbook's publisher. For example, you may need to earn more than approximately 1,500 Norton points on a quiz in order to earn the maximum 9 Blackboard points. Blackboard will convert InQuizitive points into our History and Security course's 500 total-possible-points grading system. As each of these transactions is automatically calculated, the maximum number of History and Security course points that you may earn from one InQuizitive quiz in the Blackboard grade book is 9.

Essay (100 pts.):

The Essay instructions and drop box will be located under “Course Modules” in Module 2 when it opens. You will write an essay based on a topic assigned by the instructor. The essay must be a minimum of seven pages in length. You will submit your essay, in the Blackboard drop box only, no later than the due date at 11:59 PM, US Mountain Time Zone.

Timed Online Book Test (111 pts.):

There is one book test on the Keylor, The Twentieth-Century World and Beyond textbook located under “Course Modules” in Module 4. (See the Weekly Calendar section for test dates and times.) The test is a timed online test, with 75 minutes from the time the test is started.

Always log in using your UTEP name and password, and never as a “guest.” (The guest option will kick you out after 15-20 minutes, which is problematic when taking a test because you will not be able to finish your test.)

Tests are open book, and you can use any other class materials that are open and available that day, to aid in completing the test. However, the test must be taken alone. You may not collaborate with any person (fellow student or other person) when taking the test. Test collaboration is considered a form of academic dishonesty/cheating. You will find additional details for the Book Test near its Test link, when Module 4 opens.

Final Examination (100 pts.):

The final examination is a take-home exam. Exam material is drawn from the two textbooks and the other required materials. It is recommended that you download or save the links for all required materials each week while the various modules are available, before they close. You will find additional details for the Final Examination and the drop box, during Week 6 and for most of Final Exam Week, by clicking on “Home Page” and scrolling down, to the bottom of the page.

Extra Credit, Attendance and Participation:

No extra credit will be offered in this class. For this online course, attendance is not graded. Participation is required and it affects your grade. Attendance and participation may possibly be reported to the University for administrative purposes.

You are encouraged to complete all required assessments so that you may earn a favorable grade. Your final grade corresponds to your cumulative earned points only, as per this list, not an overall percentage from work attempted.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Course content will be delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

You should use a laptop or desktop for this course, not a tablet or cell phone, so that you may have no technical problems.

You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have a word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP’s Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

There is a link in the Blackboard classroom to W. W. Norton publisher, our course’s Tool Provider for Karen A Mingst, Heather Elko McKibben, and Ivan M Arreguín-Toft, Essentials of International Relations, one of our required textbooks (an e-book).

IMPORTANT: If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the UTEP Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students. Please do not contact me for this type of assistance unless it is a problem with the e-book. In that case, I would refer you to the W. W. Norton helpdesk.

Course Communication: How We will stay in Contact with Each Other

Because this is an online class, we will not see each other in other ways you may possibly be accustomed to. There are no scheduled class times, no face-to-face group meetings, and no face-to-face office hours. However, there are a number of ways we can keep the communication channels open.

Blackboard Collaborate, Zoom and Email are my preferred methods of contact. Links and passwords will be listed in a Blackboard course announcement and email. Alternatively, to have a Skype or Messenger meeting or chat, send a contact request that includes your name, the class and section number, above. I may check Skype and Email once every two workdays. For a live phone call, you may use mobile numbers I can readily provide upon request. Voicemail and phone text message are technologically tenuous and infeasible from most regions.

- Office Hours: We will not be able to meet on campus, but I will still have office hours for your questions and comments about the course. My office hours will be held on either Blackboard Collaborate or Zoom via links I will give you via announcement and email, and during the following times:

Mondays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

Tuesdays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

Wednesdays: 10-11 a.m. Mountain Time

My physical office location is in Liberal Arts room 320 on the El Paso main campus. However, I will not be on campus this semester and the main office will operate with limited hours due to effects of the COVID-19 pandemic. Preferred contact is via email.

- Email: UTEP e-mail is one of the best ways to contact me. I will make every attempt to respond to your e-mail within 24 to 48 hours of receipt. When e-mailing me, be sure to email from your UTEP student account and please write your name, HIST 3301 and the CRN number in the subject line. In the body of your e-mail, clearly state your question. At the end of your e-mail, be sure to include your first and last name, and your university identification number.
- Message Board: If you have a question, you may post it in the Message Board inside of Blackboard.
- Announcements: Check the Blackboard announcements frequently for any updates, deadlines, or other important messages.
- Alternative Skype or Messenger Contacts: available upon request.

NETIQUETTE

You must uphold a mature level of interaction with fellow students and with the instructor. When you post anything in Blackboard or communicate via any other medium, please respect other students, showing courtesy in all interactions.

As we know, sometimes communication online can be challenging. It is possible to miscommunicate what we mean or to misunderstand what our classmates mean given the lack of body language and immediate feedback. Therefore, please keep these netiquette (network etiquette) guidelines in mind. Failure to observe them may result in disciplinary action.

- Always consider your audience. This is a college-level course; therefore, all communication should reflect polite consideration of others' ideas.
- Respect and courtesy must be provided to classmates and to the instructor at all times. No harassment or inappropriate postings will be tolerated.
- When responding to someone else's message, address the ideas, not the person. Post only what anyone would comfortably state in a face-to-face situation.
- Blackboard is not a public internet venue; all postings to it should be considered private and confidential. Whatever is posted in these online spaces is intended for classmates and professors only. Please do not copy documents and paste them to a publicly accessible website, blog, or other space.

Course Policies: What do you Need to Do to be Successful in the Course

You are responsible for understanding and abiding by the policies and procedures described below. Any problems that I encounter in this course may be reported to the Dean of Students.

ATTENDANCE, PARTICIPATION, FINAL GRADING, AND ABSENCE POLICY

I measure student attendance and participation in this course according to the date and time of a student's most recent Blackboard log in and by the number of assignments and assessments completed. Your final letter grade is measured by the cumulative grades of your assignments and assessments completed, not by your attendance.

Grades are assigned according to the total points earned; there is no rounding or curving or moving a person to the next letter grade if s/he/n is one point away. The cut-off points are predetermined.

Although attendance in the course hardly affects your grade, participation is a critical component of your grade. Attendance and participation may possibly be important for University or organizational administrative purposes.

DEADLINES AND LATE WORK

The course week begins on a Sunday and ends on a Saturday night, with the exception of Week 1, which is shorter. The deadlines of all assessment completions and submissions are on designated Saturday nights at 11:59 p.m. USA Mountain Time Zone. For more information, see the Weekly Calendar section, below.

The grades of any late works submitted for a grade after their deadlines will decrease at the rate of ten percent of the total possible value, per day late, with the exception of work due after Week 5. In the case of these last two weeks, submissions may not be late. No late submissions will be accepted after that time, and no excuses will be accepted. As assessment deadlines are rigorous during the latter weeks of the course, they cannot be made up after the deadline.

EXCUSED ABSENCES AND COURSE DROP POLICY

You are entitled to drop this class with a grade of “W” until the official university drop deadline, as described in the Schedule of Classes and the University Catalog. You are responsible for dropping the class. There will be no faculty-initiated drops, except under special circumstances. If you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar’s Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an “F” for the course.

ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY

The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented physical or other challenges in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. Students requesting an accommodation based on a challenge must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact CASS at 915-747-5148, email them at cass@utep.edu, visit their website at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/cass/> or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

It is your responsibility to speak with a counselor in order to receive necessary help. Within the first week of the beginning of the semester, you must provide documentation from CASS in order to receive any accommodation(s). You must also consult the instructor in order to ensure timely accommodation. Failure to contact CASS, provide documentation, and consult the instructor in a timely manner may delay such accommodation(s) being made.

COVID-19 PRECAUTIONS, COVID-19 ACCOMMODATIONS AND STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

I encourage you to complete the COVID-19 student training at <https://covidtraining.questionpro.com/>.

I will not be on campus this semester and I believe that many of you also will probably not be on campus. Nonetheless, you must STAY AT HOME and REPORT if you:

- (1) have been diagnosed with COVID19,
- (2) are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms, or
- (3) have had recent contact with a person who has received a positive coronavirus test.

Reports should be made at screening.utep.edu. If you know people who should report any of these three criteria, encourage them to report. If the individuals cannot report, you can report on their behalf by sending an email to COVIDaction@utep.edu. For each day that you attend campus—for any reason—you must complete the questions on the UTEP screening website (screening.utep.edu) prior to arriving on campus. The website will verify if you are permitted to come to campus. Under no circumstances should anyone come to any other face-to-face classes when feeling ill or exhibiting any of the known COVID-19 symptoms. If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible.

You are advised to minimize the number of encounters with others to avoid infection. Wear face coverings when in common areas of campus or when others are present. This class is online only. If you choose not to wear a face covering, you may not enter campus. If you remove your face covering, you may possibly be asked to put it on or leave campus. Students who refuse to wear a face covering and follow preventive COVID-19 guidelines will be dismissed from their classes and will be subject to disciplinary action according to Section 1.2.3 Health and Safety and Section 1.2.2.5 Disruptions in the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures.

Students are not permitted on campus when they have a positive COVID-19 test, exposure or symptoms. If you are not permitted on campus, you should contact the instructor(s) of those face-to-face classes as soon as possible so s/he/n/they can arrange necessary and appropriate accommodations.

Student responsibilities:

- Complete self-screening (screening.utep.edu) prior to every campus visit.
- Complete COVID-19 student training on the UTEP COVID-19 training website.
- Contact instructor if temporary accommodations due to COVID-19 are needed (i.e., due to positive COVID-19 test, symptoms, or exposure).
- If unable to wear a face covering (e.g., medical reasons), the best course of action is to enroll in courses that are entirely online or to work with academic advisors, if necessary, to identify alternative courses. If this is not possible, request an accommodation from Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) prior to coming to campus for in-person activities. Students who receive an accommodation to not wear a face covering must share this with the professor and work to minimize contact with others in the class.

SCHOLASTIC INTEGRITY

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as ones' own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR) for possible disciplinary action. To learn more, please visit HOOP: Student Conduct and Discipline.

COPYRIGHT STATEMENT FOR COURSE MATERIALS

All materials used in this course are protected by copyright law. The course materials are only for the use of students currently enrolled in this course and only for the purpose of this course. They may not be further disseminated.

DISPUTED GRADES

If you disagree with a grade, you should consult the instructor.

EXTERNAL LINK DISCLAIMER

This course may contain links to external sites neither owned nor maintained by UTEP. UTEP bears no responsibility for the accuracy, legality, or content of external sites or for that of subsequent links. In addition, the terms of use, security policies, and privacy policies may differ from those of UTEP. ### Student Course Evaluations

UTEP values its students' feedback. You will be asked to complete an online evaluation toward the end of the term. The primary purpose of this evaluation process is to assess the effectiveness of classroom instruction in order to provide the best learning experience possible and make continuous improvements to every class. Responses are kept confidential. Please take full advantage of this opportunity to provide your feedback.

Weekly Calendar (Subject to Change by the Instructor)

This calendar provides an overview of the course. The course week begins on a Sunday and ends on a Saturday night, with the exception of Week 1, which is shorter. The deadlines of all assessment completions and submissions are always on designated Saturday nights at 11:59 p.m. US Mountain Time. No late work will be accepted after Week 5.
