Spring 2024

Course Description: This course is intended as an introduction to women novelists, essayists, short story writers, and poets. The course will focus on how women’s writing in western culture (1500s-present) negotiated and often worked to destabilize the social construction of gender.

Course Objectives: Students who are successful in “Women in Literature” will be able to define what we mean by “gender,” discuss how it impacts identity, and affects daily experiences. They will be able to articulate and analyze the intersections of gender, race/ethnicity, sexual identity, class, citizenship, and religion in western literature. They will demonstrate the ability to critically analyze representations of women and engage in group work that requires critical thinking and the synthesis of information.

TEXTS (REQUIRED):
Note: digital copies of the readings are loaded into the Blackboard site
The Longman Anthology of Women's Literature
Mary K. DeShazur
Publisher: Longman; 1st edition (December 28, 2000)
ISBN-10: 032101006X

Course Requirements:

Two (2) exams worth 100 points each Exams will consist of essay questions. No late work.

10 Quizzes worth 10 points each Quizzes are on the readings. No late work.

10 Response papers worth 10 points each (100 points total) Response papers are related to the weekly readings. No late work.

Online Group Discussions worth 100 points You must start the discussion early in the week by posting an individual thread to the group question before Wednesday at 11:30 p.m. Each post should be at least 100 words, and you should post at least three times each week in order to receive full credit. You are welcome to discuss asynchronously, which means at your convenience and not necessarily at the same time as your groupmates. Your grade is based on your posts – if your group members fail to post, it does not affect your grade (and I will move students who fail to participate). Discussion board closes promptly at 11:30 p.m. each Saturday.

Group Selection: Students are randomly assorted into groups. Groups will be changed based on participation in the first week of class. If you fail to participate in your group, I will remove you from the group and put you in a group with other students who are not participating.

PLAGIARISM AND CHEATING

It is expected that you will write all of your own papers and that you will know how to cite sources and quote people appropriately (using MLA style for this course). If you are not familiar with MLA style, the Tutoring and Learning Center located in the UTEP library can help you. Plan ahead for your written assignments. Also, here is a helpful online resource: http://owl.english.purdue.edu/handouts/research/r_mla.html

IMPORTANT: Any indication that you are submitting someone else’s work, or that you are adopting statements or ideas of another person without appropriate acknowledgment (plagiarism), will have serious repercussions. Any plagiarism, cheating, or collusion to cheat observed in this class will be reported to the Dean of Students who will initiate disciplinary proceedings. Do not risk your good name and your future based on anxiety about grades, peer pressure, lack of time management, or feeling overwhelmed. Instead schedule an appointment with me about any problems or concerns you have about the course, course assignments, course material, etc.

Accommodations: The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Students who become pregnant or have parenting responsibilities may also request reasonable accommodations. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. The UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) will process requests for accommodations based on a disability, pregnancy, or parenting. Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.

A Message from Women's & Gender Studies:
Women’s and Gender Studies supports a learning environment in which individual differences are understood, respected, and appreciated. We believe that all students benefit from training and experiences that will help them to learn, lead, and serve in an increasingly diverse society. All members of our program must accept the responsibility to demonstrate civility and respect for the dignity of others. Expressions or actions that disparage a person’s race, ethnicity, nationality, culture, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, age, veteran status, or disability are contrary to the mission of our program. All our faculty and staff are responsible for promoting inclusive spaces for all, including students with children and breastfeeding mothers. While a Women’s and Gender Studies student, you will be given an equitable opportunity to contribute and succeed. The lived experiences and knowledge that you bring to our courses are considered a resource, strength, and benefit. Thank you for the experiences that you bring to our program!

Policy on Children in Class: It is our belief that if we want to reach all students, that we should also expect parents and children to be present in some form. Currently, the university does not have a formal policy on children in the classroom. The policy described here is thus a reflection of Women’s and Gender Studies’ commitment to student, staff and faculty parents. If you are breastfeeding or are the guardian of a child, feel free to bring them to class if there is a gap in childcare. You may sit near the door, and we understand if you must step out occasionally to meet their needs. Furthermore, I would like to create a learning environment for my students that supports your thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities. To help accomplish this:

- If you have a name and/or set of pronouns that differ from those that appear in your official UTEP records, please let me know.
- I (like many people) am still in the process of learning about diverse perspectives and identities. If something was said in class (by anyone) that made you feel uncomfortable, please talk to me about it.
