Course Purpose and Design: Students will study about the lives of important female thinkers from the Medieval period in western culture as well as the historical and social contexts in which they lived. Along with the introduction to the lives of these singular women, students will also learn about the social institutions and social norms against which these women often struggled.

TEXTS (REQUIRED):

All of the texts for this course are free and available online. Links to the texts are provided within Blackboard and on the syllabus.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS AND GRADING:

Two (2) exams worth 100 points each (200 points total) Exams will consist of essay questions.

LATE WORK NOT ACCEPTED

9 Quizzes worth 10 points each (90 points total) LATE WORK NOT ACCEPTED

9 Assignments worth 10 points each (90 points total) Assignments are based on weekly readings and on articles from internet (links posted in Units). LATE WORK NOT ACCEPTED.

Group Discussions worth 100 points. You must start the discussion early in the week by posting an individual thread to the group question. Your post should be at least 100 words, and you should post at least three times each week in order to receive full credit. You are welcome to discuss asynchronously, which means at your convenience and not necessarily at the same time as your groupmates. Discussion board closes promptly at 11:30 p.m. each Saturday. No late posts.

In order to receive full credit for your weekly discussion, your group should submit ONE (1) group discussion summary by 11:30 PM Saturday night.

Group Selection: Students are randomly assorted into groups. Groups will be changed based on participation in the first week of class. If you fail to participate in your group, I will remove you from the group and put you in a group with other students who are not participating IMPORTANT: Any indication that you are submitting someone else's work, or that you are adopting statements or ideas of another person without appropriate acknowledgment (plagiarism), will have serious repercussions. Any plagiarism, cheating, or collusion to cheat observed in this class will be reported to the Dean of Students who will initiate disciplinary proceedings. Do not risk your good name and your future based on anxiety about grades, peer pressure, lack of time management, or feeling overwhelmed. Instead schedule an appointment with me about any problems or concerns you have about the course, course assignments, course material, etc.

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Please be aware that the Disabled Student Services provides a program of support and advocacy services to students with disabilities. They can help you obtain the necessary documentation for any disability (long or short term that you may need to deal with). Come and talk with me if you need additional support because of a disability. I am happy to work with you and the office of Disabled Student Services.

Diversity and Inclusion: Women's and Gender Studies supports an inclusive learning environment in which diversity and individual differences are understood, respected, and appreciated. We believe that all students benefit from training and experiences that will help them to learn, lead, and serve in an increasingly diverse society. All members of our program must accept the responsibility to demonstrate civility and respect for the dignity of others. Expressions or actions that disparage a person's race, ethnicity, nationality, culture, gender, gender identity, religion, sexual orientation, age, veteran status, or disability are contrary to the mission of our program. All our faculty and staff are responsible for promoting inclusive spaces for all, including students with children and breastfeeding mothers. While a Women's and Gender Studies student, you will be given an equitable opportunity to contribute and succeed. The diversity of lived experiences and knowledge that you bring to our courses are considered a resource, strength, and benefit. Thank you for the diversity you bring to our program!

Furthermore, I would like to create a learning environment for my students that supports a diversity of thoughts, perspectives and experiences, and honors your identities. To help accomplish this:

- If you have a name and/or set of pronouns that differ from those that appear in your official UTEP records, please let me know.
- I (like many people) am still in the process of learning about diverse perspectives and identities. If something was said in class (by anyone) that made you feel uncomfortable, please talk to me about it.
