Office Hours: By appointment.

Required Text: Alcaraz Varo, Enrique et al, El inglés jurídico norteamericano, 3ª edición 2016. Editorial Ariel Derecho. ISBN: 978-84-344-0647-6

Prerequisite course: Introduction to Translation.

Course Objectives:

This is an advanced practical course designed to present an overview of selected legal texts and their formulaic and specialized language. Students will analyze texts before translating them from source to target language, with the goal of increasing their skills in the written transfer of meaning with accuracy and stylistic appropriateness. Students will also prepare glossaries.

Attendance is required. Texts to be translated will be assigned / handed out in class or emailed for the following week. Homework must be turned in or emailed to the instructor no later than the beginning of class of the due date. LATE HOMEWORK IS NOT ACCEPTABLE. Course grades will be based on successful completion of homework assignments, attendance and participation in class, including doing occasional in-class translations, quizzes, glossaries and scheduled examinations.

Class starts promptly at the scheduled time, tardiness will not be tolerated; if you are more than 10 minutes late your tardiness will count as an unexcused absence. Please do not simply get up and leave class, properly excuse yourself prior to leaving the class room. Be prepared for class, assigned reading should be read prior to class.
