Office Phone: 915-747-6630

Contacting your instructor: Plan on contacting me entirely via email. Before doing so, 1) check the syllabus and course calendar, 2) consider the “in the event of computer problems” notice (below) and bear in mind that it will usually be 2 hours, but could take up to 12 hours for me to respond to your email.

Course Collaborators:

Nancy Hill, Librarian: nhill@utep.edu

Course Objectives:

1. To learn how to listen deeply, describe, and discuss music in the Western classical tradition.
2. To discover some of the infinite variety of styles and genres.
3. To discern some of the ways in which music and culture are intimately connected.
4. To develop writing, analytical, and critical thinking skills.
5. To further your information literacy skills, which includes learning how to utilize proper academic sources, incorporate that research into your writing, and use proper citation techniques.

Required Texts:

NONE!

Concerning Communication

You are expected to check your UTEP email at least once a day. Since this class takes place entirely online, it is vital that you read all course-related emails carefully. Most course-related emails are archived under the “announcements” tab on Blackboard. Please check the announcements, syllabus, and course calendar before contacting your instructor with questions!

A Word on Computer Literacy

This course takes place entirely online. This means that in order to take this course, you must have:

- Constant access to a working computer throughout the semester.
- Your computer must have internet access and Microsoft Word.

You must be capable of accomplishing the following tasks on a computer:

- Accessing the course website.
- Accessing the library website and databases.

- Creating a word document.
- Uploading a document to a blackboard.
If you are unable to complete any of these tasks, contact the technology center in the library for assistance during the first week of classes. www.helpdesk.utep.edu

Save your work!:

- Do not upload the only copy of your assignment to blackboard. You are responsible for saving a copy of every assignment you write to your computer.

In the Event of Computer Problems . . .

Technology problems are not a valid excuse for late assignments. Do not leave work until the last minute. You must allow yourself time (at least 2 hours) to adjust for emergencies - e.g. internet goes down, computer breaks, etc.

You should usually contact the Blackboard technical support for technical issues. Assess the situation and decide whether your issue is one for the instructor, or for the UTEP help desk. Helpdesk.utep.edu

Adds, Drops, and Withdrawals

- Late Additions to the Class: Because this class is so large, I cannot make exceptions and accept late work from students (see section regarding deadlines). This includes situations in which a student adds the class after it has begun.
- Drops and Withdrawals: Check with the registrar to find out when last day to drop this class is without receiving an “F” or “W” on your transcript. I will not sign paperwork allowing students to drop the class without receiving an F after the deadline. I consider such practices unfair to other students unless the student has a very extreme emergency with considerable documentation, or a situation the instructor was notified about in the first few weeks of class.

Class Requirements

Coursework will vary by week, but you should plan on spending between 3-6 hours per week on assignments.

NOTE Be sure to refer to the extremely helpful course calendar of due dates I’ve made for you! It is available in the course library on blackboard.

Videos and Video Quizzes:

- Ad Notice: Some of the videos have ads due to copyright circumstances beyond my control. Be assured that they are someone else’s ads and I am not profiting from them in any way.
- Due (pretty much) every Thursday before 11 pm (see course calendar for exceptions).
- These will usually consist of 10 questions on a course video. These are timed and you get 2 tries. Definitely see the “How to Take the Quizzes and Tests” document under “course information” on BlackBoard.

3 Research Exercises:

- Due the first 3 Mondays of class before 11 pm (see course calendar for exceptions).
- You will need to complete several exercises to help you learn how to access certain online library databases and to cite correctly for this course.

6 Tests:

- Due before 11 pm mostly every other Friday (see course calendar for exceptions).
- There will be a short test for each major section of the textbook. They will also cover material on the brief video interviews with musicians in El Paso. These tests will be due at irregular intervals, so take careful note of the course calendar!

6 Discussion Boards:

- Due before 11 pm mostly every other Friday (see course calendar for exceptions).
- These assignments consist of two parts.
 1. Write an essay on the given prompt (apprx. 300-400 words). See full descriptions for these prompts on the course site.
 2. Read other students' essays and respond to at least two other students' posts. Suggestions for response topics are included on each prompt.
- Discussion board posts are graded for writing, content, correct use of academic sources and correct citation. Be sure to familiarize yourself with the "Academic Honesty" portion of this syllabus.

2 Projects:

- For the first project, you'll compose a short piece using the program on soundation.com, then write a brief essay describing your piece and comparing it to another students'.
- In the second project, you'll watch two different versions of the ballet, Rite of Spring, describe them, and research a recent review of performances of the work.

Your Grade

Research Exercises: 8%
 Discussion Boards: 20%
 Video Quizzes: 32%
 Projects: 20%
 Listening Tests: 20%

100-90% = A
 80-89% = B
 70-79% = C
 60-69% = D
 Below 60% = F

Knowing Your Grade: I find the blackboard grading program overly complex and inconsistent so I will not calculate grades on that website. You will see grades for individual assignments under the “my grades,” but your current and final grade are calculated on my computer, not on blackboard. You will receive regular, automatically generated grade updates to your UTEP email.

Regarding Deadlines

Familiarize yourself with due dates for major projects and quizzes at the beginning of the semester. Let the instructor know in the first week of the semester if you foresee any legitimate conflicts with these dates. Unless you have a legitimate emergency, all deadlines are final.
