COURSE DESCRIPTION

This course is a survey of socioeconomic and cultural characteristics of ethnic groups in the U.S. and how they affect the participation of these groups in the American education system. In addition, this course also examines how ethnic groups have historically impacted the American educational system through the development of ethnic studies courses. It includes an examination of specific policies and practices in American institutions that promote or inhibit participation.

This course is about the resistance and revolution of a people and what this tells us about our own identity, worldviews, environment, and ways of understanding education. Given that Chicano Studies in the past has been presented as a political issue, this course has as much to do with cultural diversity issues in education, as it does with you, how education has informed your identity, and how you see the world. Essentially, this course is built around one central question, what is education? It seeks to uncover the politics behind the production of knowledge and examines how education, learning, and the retelling of history are deeply embedded in a politics of identity, a politics of production, and a politics of social control.

TEXAS SENATE BILL 17

Texas Senate Bill 17, the recent law that outlaws diversity, equity, and inclusion programs at public colleges and universities in Texas, does not in any way affect content, instruction or discussion in a course at public colleges and universities in Texas. Expectations and academic freedom for teaching and class discussion have not been altered post-SB 17, and students should not feel the need to censor their speech pertaining to topics including race and racism, structural inequality, LGBTQ+ issues, or diversity, equity, and inclusion.

LEARNING MODULES

This course is designed using a modular format—that is, each week is “packaged” as a single module so that all the materials, lecture notes, submission areas, and discussion posts are in one area for a given week.

REQUIRED MATERIALS

Professor will provide readings for this course. All readings will be available in Blackboard. No textbook is required.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS AND GRADING

Grade Distribution:

100-90 = A
89-80 = B
79-70 = C
69-60 = D
59 and Below = F

- 30 points: Quizzes
- 30 Points: Critical Thinking Discussion Videos
- 40 Points: Reflexiones (Reflective Analysis)

1. Quizzes (10 points each)

In this course, you will encounter three (3) quizzes that are essential for assessing your understanding of the material. The quizzes are conveniently located in their respective weekly folders. Each quiz is comprised of a variety of question types, including multiple-choice, true/false, and short essay questions. These questions are specifically designed to evaluate your comprehension of both the assigned readings and film/documentaries.

To accommodate your schedule, quizzes will be available every other week, starting on Thursday at 8 am and concluding on Friday at 11:59 pm. It's important to note that you will have a generous time limit of 90 minutes for each quiz, allowing you ample time to carefully respond to the questions and provide thoughtful answers.
By engaging in these quizzes, you will not only reinforce your knowledge but also demonstrate your grasp of the course material. Embrace this opportunity to showcase your learning and solidify your understanding of the concepts presented throughout the course. The quiz schedule is as follows:

Quiz 1: Available Week 2
Quiz 2: Available Week 5
Quiz 3: Available Week 7

2. Critical Thinking Discussion (10 points each)
Throughout the semester, you will have the opportunity to engage in critical thinking discussions related to the films/documentaries and course material assigned. These discussions aim to mirror the interactions we would naturally have in a classroom setting and encourage conversations among peers. For each discussion, you will be required to create three (3) critical thinking posts, each consisting of 250 words. The discussion board will provide the videos and a question prompt to spark the conversation. To stimulate engagement, you are expected to respond to your peers' postings. To ensure a fruitful exchange of ideas, you should watch the assigned films/documentaries and review the relevant course materials independently during the assigned week. The three (3) discussions are scheduled for Week 1, Week 3, and Week 6 of the course. It is essential to post your initial comment by Wednesday, allowing your group members ample time to respond. In your posts, make sure to incorporate the readings for the week, showcasing your understanding and analysis of the topic. You can express agreement or respectfully disagree with the viewpoints presented by your fellow students, fostering constructive dialogue.

Please note that the discussion boards will open on Saturdays, and your initial comment on the video should be posted no later than Wednesday by 11:59 pm. Failure to meet this deadline will result in a deduction of 10 points from your grade. You will have until the following Sunday to respond to your peers, contributing to the ongoing conversation. These critical thinking discussions aim to enhance your understanding, critical analysis skills, and ability to engage in thoughtful conversations with your peers. I look forward to witnessing the stimulating discussions that will unfold throughout the semester. The discussion videos schedule is as follows:

Discussion Board 1: Week 1
Discussion Board 2: Week 3
Discussion Board 3: Week 6

3. Mi Reflexion: Reflective Analysis (20 points each):
The purpose of this assignment is multifaceted. It aims to not only evaluate your comprehension of the course readings but also encourage you to engage in a thoughtful and balanced analysis of the ideas presented. Furthermore, it provides an opportunity for you to draw connections between the concepts discussed and your personal experiences in education.
To excel in this assignment, it is crucial to demonstrate a solid understanding of the knowledge and concepts introduced in the course. However, it is equally important to actively and directly link these concepts to your own observations and experiences. Avoid mere summarization of others' opinions, and instead, focus on expressing your own perspective and insights.

In addition, this assignment calls for reflection on the implications of the topics covered in the readings. Consider exploring how these ideas might shape or influence your own educational journey. Thoroughly examine the potential impact of the discussed concepts on various aspects of education and provide analysis that goes beyond surface-level observations. By engaging critically, expressing your opinions, and exploring the broader implications, you can fulfill the objectives of this assignment and showcase your comprehensive understanding of the course materials. Two Reflective Analysis Assignments:

Mi Reflexion Assignment 1 (Mid-term): Week 4
Mi Reflexion Assignment 2 (Final): Week 8

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS
Course content is delivered via the Internet through the Blackboard learning management system. Ensure your UTEP e-mail account is working and that you have access to the Web and a stable web browser. Google Chrome and Mozilla Firefox are the best browsers for Blackboard; other browsers may cause complications. When having technical difficulties, update your browser, clear your cache, or try switching to another browser.

You will need to have access to a computer/laptop, scanner, a webcam, and a microphone. You will need to download or update the following software: Microsoft Office, Adobe Acrobat Reader, Windows Media Player, QuickTime, and Java. Check that your computer hardware and software are up-to-date and able to access all parts of the course.

If you do not have a word-processing software, you can download Word and other Microsoft Office programs (including Excel, PowerPoint, Outlook and more) for free via UTEP’s Microsoft Office Portal. Click the following link for more information about Microsoft Office 365 and follow the instructions.

IMPORTANT: If you encounter technical difficulties beyond your scope of troubleshooting, please contact the UTEP Help Desk as they are trained specifically in assisting with technological needs of students. Please do not contact me for this type of assistance. The Help Desk is much better equipped than I am to assist you! Because this is an online class, we won’t see each other in the ways you may be accustomed to: during class time, small group meetings, and office hours. However, there are a number of ways we can keep the communication channels open:

- Office Hours: Please contact me to set-up a meeting via telephone/Blackboard Collaborate/Zoom/Teams
- Email: UTEP e-mail is the best way to contact me. I will make every attempt to respond to your e-mail within 24-48 hours of receipt. When e-mailing me, be sure to email from your UTEP student account and please put the course number in the subject line. In the body of your e-mail, clearly state your question. At the end of your e-mail, be sure to put your first and last name, and your university identification number.
· Discussion Board: If you have a question that you believe other students may also have, please post it in the Help Board of the discussion boards inside of Blackboard. Please respond to other students’ questions if you have a helpful response.

· Announcements: Check the Blackboard announcements frequently for any updates, deadlines, or other important messages.

NETIQUETTE

As we know, sometimes communication online can be challenging. It’s possible to miscommunicate what we mean or to misunderstand what our classmates mean given the lack of body language and immediate feedback. Therefore, please keep these netiquette (network etiquette) guidelines in mind. Failure to observe them may result in disciplinary action.

- Always consider audience. This is a college-level course; therefore, all communication should reflect polite consideration of other’s ideas.
- Respect and courtesy must be provided to classmates and to the instructor at all times. No harassment or inappropriate postings will be tolerated.
- When reacting to someone else’s message, address the ideas, not the person. Post only what anyone would comfortably state in a face-to-face situation.
- Blackboard is not a public internet venue; all postings to it should be considered private and confidential. Whatever is posted on in these online spaces is intended for classmates and professor only. Please do not copy documents and paste them to a publicly accessible website, blog, or other space.

ATTendance AND participation

Attendance in the course is determined by participation in the learning activities of the course. Your participation in the course is important not only for your learning and success but also to create a community of learners. Participation is determined by completion of the following activities:

- Reading/Viewing all course materials to ensure understanding of assignment requirements
- Participating in engaging discussion with your peers on the discussion boards (grading rubric provided in the “grading information” area of each forum)
- Participating in scheduled Blackboard Collaborate sessions
- Other activities as indicated in the weekly modules

Because these activities are designed to contribute to your learning each week, they cannot be made up after their due date has passed.

Excused Absences and/or Course Drop Policy

I will not drop you from the course. However, if you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please let me know and then contact the Registrar’s Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an “F” for the course.

Deadlines, Late Work, and Absence Policy

Discussion Board Assignments
• Major writing assignments will be due on Sundays at midnight (11:59 PM). No late work will be accepted if the reason is not considered excusable. Quiz and Writing Assignments
• All quiz, blog, and discussion board assignments will be due on Friday at midnight (11:59 PM). No late work will be accepted if the reason is not considered excusable.

MAKE-UP WORK
Make-up work will be given only in the case of a documented emergency. Note that make-up work may be in a different format than the original work, may require more intensive preparation, and may be graded with penalty points. If you miss an assignment and the reason is not considered excusable, you will receive a zero. It is therefore important to reach out to me—in advance if at all possible—and explain with proper documentation why you missed a given course requirement. Once a deadline has been established for make-up work, no further extensions or exceptions will be granted.

ALTERNATIVE MEANS OF SUBMITTING WORK IN CASE OF TECHNICAL ISSUES
I strongly suggest that you submit your work with plenty of time to spare in the event that you have a technical issue with the course website, network, and/or your computer. I also suggest you save all your work (answers to discussion points, quizzes, exams, and essays) in a separate Word document as a back-up. This way, you will have evidence that you completed the work and will not lose credit. If you are experiencing difficulties submitting your work through the course website, please contact the UTEP Help Desk. You can email me your back-up document as a last resort.

INCOMPLETE GRADE POLICY
Incomplete grades may be requested only in exceptional circumstances after you have completed at least half of the course requirements. Talk to me immediately if you believe an incomplete is warranted. If granted, we will establish a contract of work to be completed with deadlines.

ACCOMMODATIONS POLICY
The University is committed to providing reasonable accommodations and auxiliary services to students, staff, faculty, job applicants, applicants for admissions, and other beneficiaries of University programs, services and activities with documented disabilities in order to provide them with equal opportunities to participate in programs, services, and activities in compliance with sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990 and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA) of 2008. Reasonable accommodations will be made unless it is determined that doing so would cause undue hardship on the University. Students requesting an accommodation based on a disability must register with the UTEP Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). Contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services at 915-747-5148, or email them at cass@utep.edu, or apply for accommodations online via the CASS portal.
SCHOLASTIC INTEGRITY
Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another as one's own. Collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. All suspected violations of academic integrity at The University of Texas at El Paso must be reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR) for possible disciplinary action. To learn more, please visit HOOP: Student Conduct and Discipline.

CLASS RECORDINGS
The use of recordings will enable you to have access to class lectures, group discussions, and so on in the event you miss a synchronous or in-person class meeting due to illness or other extenuating circumstance. Our use of such technology is governed by the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) and UTEP’s acceptable-use policy. A recording of class sessions will be kept and stored by UTEP, in accordance with FERPA and UTEP policies. Your instructor will not share the recordings of your class activities outside of course participants, which include your fellow students, teaching assistants, or graduate assistants, and any guest faculty or community-based learning partners with whom we may engage during a class session. You may not share recordings outside of this course. Doing so may result in disciplinary action.

PLAGIARISM DETECTING SOFTWARE
Some of your course work and assessments may be submitted to SafeAssign, a plagiarism detecting software. SafeAssign is used to review assignment submissions for originality and will help you learn how to properly attribute sources rather than paraphrase.
