Make-up Policy: In case of missing an exam due to an emergency, you must contact me as soon as possible to discuss a possible make-up schedule (depending upon officially documented reason for missing exam). If a make-up cannot be given, the grade for the missed midterm or final will be 0. There are no make-ups for quizzes or the final exam.

In order to be granted an incomplete, a student must have completed at least 60 percent of the coursework with a grade of C or better. An Incomplete cannot be granted to anyone who has taken the final exam.

Attendance Policy: -- Students are expected to arrive to all lectures on time, participate in class discussions and stay for the entire class period. If you must leave early for any reason, please inform me beforehand; do not walk away from a lecture in progress.

-- No extra time will be provided when arriving late to any quiz or midterm.

-- Students are expected to read the textbook prior to each class meeting and be familiar with the current topic of discussion outlined in the course schedule.

-- Taking into account the volume of information to be covered and the amount of homework assigned in this course, you should expect having to devote a minimum of 12 hours a week of work outside of class.

-- If you are unable to attend class, you are still responsible for the material covered during the missed class period. Ask any of your classmates for notes, as examples discussed in class may be used in tests later.

-- A student may be dropped by the instructor prior to the drop deadline after not taking several consecutive quizzes or midterms without providing an academically valid excuse.

Calculators Only standard non-graphing non-programmable calculators may be used on quizzes or exams; calculators may not be shared; no cell phone calculators allowed.

Academic Integrity Policy: The University policy is that all suspected cases or acts of alleged scholastic dishonesty must be referred to the Dean of Students for investigation and appropriate disposition. Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents' Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at <http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules/homepage.htm>

All students are expected and required to obey the law, to comply with the Regents' Rules and Regulations, with System and University rules, with directives issued by an administrative official in the course of his or her authorized duties, and to observe standards of conduct appropriate for the University. A student who enrolls at the University is charged with the obligation to conduct himself/herself in a manner compatible with the University's function as an educational institution.

The University of Texas at El Paso – College of Science

Any student who engages in conduct that is prohibited by Regents' Rules and Regulations, U. T. System or University rules, specific instructions issued by an administrative official or by federal, state, or local laws is subject to discipline, whether such conduct takes place on or off campus or whether civil or criminal penalties are also imposed for such conduct.

Civility Statement: Please do not use cell phones, pagers, iPods, MP3 players, blue tooth devices, etc. during class. Cell phones and pagers should be set to silent or vibrate, and any calls should be taken outside of class. Please do not wear headsets or blue tooth devices during class. Please don't talk in class. Cell phone calculators may not be used on quizzes or exams. Active participation in class is expected, teamwork in class will be implemented.

Disability Statement: If a student has or suspects she/he has a disability and needs an accommodation, he/she should contact The Center for Accommodations and Support services (CASS) at 747-5148 or at <cass@utep.edu> or go to Room 106 Union East Building. The student is responsible for presenting to the instructor any CASS accommodation letters and instructions.

Military Statement: If you are a military student with the potential of being called to military service and/or training during the semester, please contact me by the end of the first week of class
