Course Description:

A general course designed to provide the student with an understanding of Mexican American culture and society. This interdisciplinary course explores how ethnic Mexicans in the United States have created a distinct culture. To better understand the Mexican American experience, this survey examines the history of Mexico. Furthermore, issues such as nativity, class, and gender are also probed to increase our awareness of Mexican American culture and society.

REQUIRED TEXTS:

Dennis Bixler-Márquez et al. Chicana/o Studies: Survey and Analysis. 4th ed.

Students are also required to purchase a course reader. This reader is available at Paper Chase, 3233 N. Mesa, 541.7072.

Course Policies:

1. Students are expected to attend class lectures. Attendance will be taken.
2. The assigned readings should be read prior to coming to class.
3. When discussing issues in class, you should be respectful of others. Personal attacks are not permitted. This applies whether the person is a student, a visitor, or the instructor. I look forward to hearing your opinions and ideas.
4. Students are expected to attend and take exams on assigned dates.
5. Do not leave class early unless you have spoken to me. Otherwise, you will be noted absent.
6. Do not carry a conversation, read the newspaper, or study materials for your other classes. Please turn off or set to mute your cell phones. I will not hesitate to point out that your behavior is unacceptable. If the disruptive behavior continues, you will be told to leave class.

If you are having any difficulty in the class, please talk to me. I am here to help you. Please do not miss class for several days. The overwhelming majority of students who do this never catch-up. Instead it is better to communicate any difficulty you are having with the instructor.

Course Objectives:

The following are objectives of this course:

1. To increase understanding of the Mexican American experience from a broad and interdisciplinary perspective.
2. To develop independent and critical thinking.
3. To increase skills in written and oral communication.
4. To encourage student scholarship.
5. To promote cultural understanding.
6. To foster the integration of perspectives.
7. To increase knowledge of Mexican Americans by drawing from the historical perspective, research findings, and methodology of various disciplines.

Evaluation:

Exams: Four exams will be administered, each worth 100 points. You are responsible for material covered in class and the texts. No one will be allowed to leave the room during exams. Under no circumstances are students permitted to use headphones during an exam. Students missing an exam must contact the instructor within 24 hours. Make-up exams are given only in cases of documented emergencies. The instructor will decide whether the student has a legitimate excuse to take a make-up exam. The final exam may be comprehensive so do not discard your notes. I will let the class know whether the final will be comprehensive following the third exam. In addition, students must take the final exam on the UTEP assigned day and hour, unless you have a documented university approved excuse. Please note: students must pass at least one exam in order to get a passing grade in the course.

In-class assignments: Throughout the semester students are expected to complete assignments in class. There will be five written assignments to be completed during the class period, each worth 20 points for a total of 100 points. No make-ups will be given. You should bring your book, reader, and notes to class. Failure to bring class materials will result in a zero for the assignment.

Grade Scale: A= 500-450; B=449-400; C= 399-350; D=349-300; F=299-0.

Attendance Policy:

You are urged strongly to attend class. Part of being a successful student in any class is regular attendance. Students will be allowed five absences. I make no distinction between excused and unexcused absences. Any absence over five will result in a fifteen point deduction for each absence from the student's total points (see grade scale above). For example, a student with eight absences will have his/her final grade lowered by 45 points. There will be no exceptions to this rule. Under no circumstance should you sign-in for another student. You risk serious penalties.

The last day to drop with an automatic "W" is April 1. You are responsible for dropping the course if you no longer plan to attend. If you are considering dropping the course, please discuss the matter with the instructor. Things may not be as bad as you think. I do, however, reserve the right to drop students for excessive absences.

Students are required to obtain a UTEP email address. To obtain an e-mail address log on to: newaccount.utep.edu. I strongly encourage students to communicate to me any question or problem using UTEP's email service. Please include class information in your email. In addition, students are urged strongly to consult Blackboard for announcements, grades, test study guides, and other class materials.

ATTENTION GRADUATE STUDENTS: In order to obtain graduate credit for this course, you must satisfactorily complete a term paper or conduct research on a topic, with parameters and editorial style approved beforehand by the course instructor.

Laptop Use:

Laptops are permitted in class. Students, however, must abide by the following:

1. Set your laptop volume control to mute or off before coming to class.
2. Keep your laptop closed during presentations and other specific in-class activities. Under no circumstances should you have your laptop open during video presentations.
3. Students using laptops are not permitted to sit in the back of the classroom.

4. Do not engage in unauthorized communication or entertainment (web surfing, instant messaging, chat room chatting, DVD viewing, music playing, game playing, etc.) during class unless it is part of the lesson. Since these activities are extremely disruptive to your classmates and the instructor, violating this policy will result in the student forfeiting the privilege of using a laptop in class.

Cell Phones:

1. As previously mentioned, set your phone to mute or silent mode before coming to class.
2. Do not answer incoming calls or make outgoing calls in class.
3. Do not use text messaging or web browser features while in class.
4. Never text during an exam or answer cell phones. Such action will lead to a referral to the Dean of Students. See policy on academic dishonesty.

Other Wireless Devices

1. Shut off the device or set it to mute before coming to class.
2. Do not use text messaging or web browser features while in class.

Academic Dishonesty

Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP). It includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, possessing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person's as ones' own. And, collusion involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for possible disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from UTEP for such actions. Please consult the Handbook of Operating Procedures at <http://hoop.utep.edu> for the complete University policy on academic dishonesty. You may also consult with the Assistant Dean of Students at the Student Union Building West, Room 102, or by calling 747-5648.

Students with Disabilities

If you have or believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS). It is located in the Student Union Building East, Room 203, 747-5148, cass@utep.edu. If you have a condition that may affect your ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or that may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of CASS.
