IV. RULES, CLASSROOM POLICIES/ ETC.

ATTENDANCE: It is highly recommended that students regularly attend the classes and do the assigned readings prior to class. Five percent of the final grade will be determined by students' attendance and participation in class. The class will use a "five minutes" late policy. If a student has a personal emergency, family emergency, or illness that impedes him/her from attending class, the student is responsible for sending an email to Dr. Flores requesting an excused absence.

LATE WORK: All assignments and exams must be turned in/taken on time. Late work will not be accepted after the due date without written consent from the instructor.

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS: All written work submitted for grading should be on Word document, neatly typed, double-spaced (Times New Roman font, size 12, 1 inch margins on all sides), well-organized, free from spelling & grammatical errors, and must be submitted electronically via Blackboard. If students have any questions about these standards, please ask Dr. Flores.

COURSE COMMUNICATION: Students are expected to show respect for professors, guests, and each other regardless of opinions, values, cultural or other differences. Students should give each other equal opportunity to express opinions, experiences, and ideas. All students should be supportive of a cooperative learning environment in the classroom. Dr. Flores reserves the right to publicly address students whose behavior disrupts the learning environment.

CELL PHONES: Personal and work cell phones must be muted before class begins. If you need to keep the ringer on for emergency purposes, please let Dr. Flores know before the start of the class session.

COURSE LABTOPS AND TABLETS: Students are encouraged to take class notes on their laptops and tablets. Please use Evernote (free software) to keep your class notes organized and neat. For more information, please visit:
