Course Description:

This course is an interdisciplinary examination of the social, political, and economic forces that characterize Chicana/o/x or ethnic Mexican identities in the United States. Through an examination of historical and contemporary ethnic Mexican experiences, students will better understand how issues of colonialism, nationalism, whiteness, masculinity, homophobia, and globalization re-define, incorporate, or neglect Chicana/o identities in the U.S. This course pays close attention to “La Chicana” and third world feminism and the intersecting categories of race, class, gender, and sexuality to better understand how Chicana specifically and ethnic Mexican identities challenge and negotiate U.S. norms. Through texts, films, podcasts, and discussion, this class explores how the term “Chicana” is situated in the historical context of the 1960s-70s civil rights activism, There is no single definition that encompasses all Chicana experiences; nevertheless, this course introduces the warriors, laborers, activists, artists, and all the rest that make up the complex, varied, and important story of “La Chicana.”

Student Learning Outcomes:

By the end of the course, students will:

1. better understand how gender dynamics and ethnic identity intersect and characterize the life experiences of Chicanas and Latinas in the United States.
2. discuss and critique Chicana and Latina feminist social and cultural theory.
3. better understand how theories of race, class, ethnicity, gender, and sexuality shape both geo-political and metaphorical borders.
4. discuss the historical and contemporary experiences of Chicanas and Latinas with respect to immigration, politics, education, religion, family dynamics, labor, the media, and the arts.
5. view themselves as global citizens as they interact and collaborate with people of diverse backgrounds in open and respectful ways

The guiding questions for this course are the following: What is Chicana identity? What are the historical events that define Chicana identity? How does space and time inform Chicana identity formation?

Required Texts:

- Caballero, Martinez-Vu, Perex-Torres, Tellez, Vega, The Chicana Motherwork Anthology (2019)
- Martinez, Elizabeth (Betita), 500 Years of Chicana Women's History -Bilingual edition (2008)
- Additional readings located in Blackboard. Students are responsible for all readings.

COVID-19 PRECAUTION STATEMENT

Please stay home if you have been diagnosed with COVID-19 or are experiencing COVID-19 symptoms. If you are feeling unwell, please let me know as soon as possible, so that we can work on appropriate accommodations. If you have tested positive for COVID-19, you are encouraged to report your results to covidaction@utep.edu, so that the Dean of Students Office can provide you with support and help with communication with your professors. The Student Health Center is equipped to provide COVID-19 testing.

The Center for Disease Control and Prevention recommends that people in areas of substantial or high COVID-19 transmission wear face masks when indoors in groups of people. The best way that Miners can take care of Miners is to get the vaccine. If you still need the vaccine, it is widely available in the El Paso area, and will be available at no charge on campus during the first week of classes. For more information about the current rates, testing, and vaccinations, please visit epstrong.org.

Course Requirements:

1. Attendance and Discussion: You are expected to attend class. Completion of the course depends on your attendance. If you miss a class period, it is your responsibility to obtain handouts (from the instructor) and notes (from a fellow student). There are a few ground rules for discussion. Whether you are discussing in a group or as a class, please remember that the appeal of higher learning is that we can think and talk, maturely and responsibly about topics like race, class, gender, and sexuality. Please treat each other, and each other's contributions to class discussions, with respect.
2. Quizzes (25%):
3. Midterm Exam (25%):
4. Journal Entries (25%): You will submit six (6) journal entries throughout the semester (see Course Calendar for due dates).
5. Final Exam (25%):

Grading Scale: Final grades will be given according to the student's demonstrated level of mastery of the subject matter as determined by assignments, class discussion, and attendance. The assignments for this course are based on a scale of 100 points. Letter grades will be assigned according to the following scale:

(A): 90-100 (B): 80-89 (C): 70-79 (D): 60-69 (F): 0-59

GRADUATE CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE: In order to obtain graduate credit for this course, you must satisfactorily complete a graduate level project with a topic and parameters approved beforehand by the course instructor.

Class Policies:

1. Attendance: Attendance and participation in class are required. Should you miss a class, you are still responsible for everything that is covered in that class. Missing class or being late is no excuse for missing a due date or misunderstanding an assignment. Therefore, you will want to contact a classmate, not the instructor, to find out what you missed.
2. Dropping the Class: Students may drop the class and receive a "W" any time prior to November 3, 2023.

- 3. Academic Dishonesty: Academic dishonesty is prohibited and is considered a violation of the UTEP Handbook of Operating Procedures. It includes, but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, and collusion. Cheating may involve copying from or providing information to another student, processing unauthorized materials during a test, or falsifying research data on laboratory reports. Plagiarism occurs when someone intentionally or knowingly represents the words or ideas of another person's as ones' own. Collusion, involves collaborating with another person to commit any academically dishonest act. Any act of academic dishonesty attempted by a UTEP student is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. Violations will be taken seriously and will be referred to the Dean of Students Office for disciplinary action. Students may be suspended or expelled from the University for such actions. I will be checking for AI generated essays.
- 4. Student Support Services: If you have a documented special needs and require specific accommodations you will need to contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu, or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106 within the first two weeks for classes. For additional information please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass. I will make any reasonable accommodations for students with limitations due to special needs, including all learning special needs. Please see me personally before or after class in the first two weeks or make an appointment, to discuss any special needs you might have.
- 5. Student Conduct: [From the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs]: Each student is responsible for notice of and compliance with the provisions of the Regents Rules and Regulations, which are available for inspection electronically at <http://www.utsystem.edu/bor/rules/homepage.htm>.

We will have frequent discussions and students are expected to tolerate and respect the opinions of others. All students are expected to behave as responsible adults.
