Course Description

Basic Drawing I is the first course in a sequence of foundation level drawing classes structured for the needs of art majors who plan to pursue a career in art. This studio course emphasizes basic aesthetic and technical drawing skills that enable students to represent three-dimensional objects in an environment. Topics to be covered include perspective, eye-hand coordination, correct proportions and scale, positive and negative space, as well as compositional structure and effectiveness. Contour line and value are explored as compositional devices and tools to build volume, mass, and illusionistic space. In this course students will be introduced to methods of using traditional black and white drawing media such as pencil, charcoal, and ink. Drawings will be developed based on three-dimensional sources such as still-lives, architectural interiors and exteriors, landscapes, the human figure, etc. Students will be given specific drawing assignments for both in class and out of class work.

The majority of class time will be spent working on drawings, with demonstrations and lectures given to provide examples relative to course work. Critiques involving the entire class, or one-on-one critiques with the instructor, will be held regularly for comparative evaluation and critical feedback.

This course requires additional time be spent outside of class for completion of all assignments.

Course Prerequisite Information

No prerequisites are required as this is the first drawing course offered within the structure of the foundations for a BFA or BA degree in Art. It is recommended that art majors take ARTF 1301 Basic Design I concurrently with ARTF 1302 Basic Drawing I.

Course Goals and Objectives

The goals and objectives of Basic Drawing I include:

- development of technical and aesthetic drawing skills needed to render three-dimensional forms and space in a convincing illusionistic manner.
- develop expertise in working with a variety of black and white drawing media.
- gain an understanding of the importance of aesthetic issues such as composition and the formal characteristics of line, shape, value and space in creating visual interest in a drawing.
- develop the ability to think and speak critically about artworks through participation in critiques and introduction to art terminology.
- develop an outstanding work ethic and the commitment necessary to succeed in achieving the above stated goals and objectives.

Course Outcomes

Students who successfully complete this class:

- will gain experience and competency in working with basic black and white drawing materials.
- will be able to effectively use line, value, shape, proportion, perspective and foreshortening to create convincing illusionistic drawings of three-dimensional forms and space.
- will develop an awareness of the aesthetic aspect of drawing through the creative use of the visual art elements and application of compositional principles in their drawings.
- will acquire a basic knowledge of art terminology needed to communicate ideas related to drawing.

Course Requirements

Basic Drawing I, CRN: 27440, is a studio course that meets in-person Tuesdays & Thursdays from 9:00am to 11:50am. As this is not an online course, you must be present in class, face-to-face, for a total of 6 hours each week. You will still use Blackboard to submit your assignments as well as to check for important announcements, deadlines, and updates. You will submit your drawings on Blackboard in the form of a .jpg image file, but also present the work in person for Critique day. Assignments are always due both in-person and online on Critique day. Lectures, demos, and crits will be interwoven during class time. Half-way through each class we will have a 15 minute break. At the beginning of each class, you will be expected to arrive on time, be prepared with the proper materials, and work through the entire class period.

For Critique days, be prepared to share your thoughts with your classmates. You will bring your drawing(s) to class (I will remind you the week before) and you will hang them up on the walls. Then we will gather around for the critique. Critiques are not a roasting session, but rather a discussion on art and what makes a work effective as well as what things could be improved. It's a chance to show off your skills, but also a chance to learn how you can do better. Be tactful with your criticism and speak up. Participation during critiques will count towards your grade.

Course Evaluation and Grading

1st Half of the Semester

Assignments + Portfolio Review + Midterm Critique: 50%

2nd Half of the Semester

Assignments + Portfolio Review + Final Project + Final Critique: 50%

Each graded assignment will be submitted both in-person for Critique day and virtually via Blackboard every week. Each time we have Critique, please know that you must submit an image of the drawing on Blackboard as well. When photographing your artwork be sure to include the visible edges of the paper. Please label your files as follows:

Example:

- Each day your work is late, reduces it by ten points. For example, you receive a “95” on an assignment. 1 day late becomes an “85”, 2 days late becomes a “75”, and so on.
- If you do not turn in your work at all, you will receive a 0, which significantly lowers your grade. Better to be late than receive a 0 on an assignment.
- If you cannot meet the assignment deadline because of a documented serious illness, death in the immediate family, or a University sanctioned event with prior approval, please contact me ASAP mtolague@utep.edu
- Work that is done without input from the instructor and is unassigned, will not be accepted.

I strongly suggest that you submit your work on Blackboard with plenty of time to spare in the event that you have a technical issue with Blackboard, Wi-Fi, or with your computer. You may also try emailing me your homework if you encounter problems submitting on Blackboard. If worse comes to worse contact the Help Desk and be sure to bring your drawings to class in-person the next time I see you.

Other factors considered in grading are:

- following instructions
- completion of assignments on time while demonstrating a comprehension & application of techniques presented in the course
- participation during critiques & discussions
- work ethic, avoid cell phone use & professional commitment
- progress & growth during the course of the semester
- condition of work i.e., clean, smudge free and unwrinkled
- attendance record

A 90-100 represents outstanding work and is reflective of works and performance of exceptional ability and absolute quality

B 80-89 stands for above average performance, going beyond expectation

C 70-79 is for average and adequate work that fulfills requirements and expectations (the majority of students start at this level). This is the minimum grade required to continue on to the next art foundation course. Students will not receive a grade of “C” for just showing up to class or for turning work in on time.

D 60-69 represents less than average performance and is considered underachieved. Credit given.

F 60 & below is for unacceptable performance. The student will receive no credit.

Course Policies

- Students are allowed 3 unexcused absences during the semester. If you are absent, it is your responsibility to notify me. Contact me via email ASAP to find out any pertinent information and assignments you may have missed. Students with more than 3 unexcused absences should consider dropping this course and retaking it at a time when the student can commit the proper attention to the course.
- Scheduled appointments, transportation problems, and job demands are not excused absences.
- Excused absences are defined as documented serious illness, death in the immediate family, University sanctioned events with prior approval, testing positive for Covid-19 or having COVID-19 related symptoms.
- After 3 unexcused absences, your final course grade will be lowered one letter grade per additional absence. For example, a final grade of “A” becomes a “B” with 4 absences, a “C” with 5 absences, a “D” with 6 absences. After 5 absences you should consider dropping the course.
- Coming to class without the necessary materials or attending class and not working is considered absent.
- Arriving to class late (after roll is taken) or leaving early counts as ½ an absence. That is, 2 tardies = 1 unexcused absence. Leaving any time before the designated ending of class is counted as leaving early.
- Returning late from break will be recorded as ½ an absence.
- No texting or social media during class time. If student is found violating this policy a verbal warning will be given at first, if found violating policy a second time a ½ absence will be recorded for the day.
- Music is not allowed during any instruction, lecture, or during critique. Students may listen to music at a low volume with headphones (one earbud only) during any other class time as long as it does not disturb other students. Do not stream video content such as YouTube, Twitch, Netflix, etc. while you work.
- If you wish to listen to music please use a playlist or music app that does not require your attention. If student is found violating this policy a verbal warning will be given at first, if found violating policy a second time a ½ absence will be recorded for the day.

Incompletes, Withdrawals, Pass/Fail

Incompletes or “I” grades will be considered for students completing satisfactory or better work and having serious legitimate situations beyond their control requiring additional time to complete the course requirements. All “I” grades are at the discretion of the instructor and the approval of the Departmental Chair.

Students hold the full responsibility for withdrawing from this course if that procedure is elected. Withdrawals must be completed on or before the final drop date to drop a course with a W (see calendar at the end of the syllabus). Withdrawals made prior to the census day will not count toward the 6-course drop limit. Students missing this deadline will be issued a grade for their performance in the course. This is a grade-based course and is not available for audit or pass/fail options.

Lockers

Art students are allowed the use of lockers in the DoART department only. If students wish to use a locker they must:

- place lock on available locker
- write locker number down and proceed to art office
- sign out locker in DoART office located on the 3rd floor of Fox Fine Arts Building
- Lockers are free and available on a first come first reserved basis.
