America’s Promise:
“A mighty woman with a torch, whose flame is the imprisoned lightning, and her name Mother of Exiles. From her beacon-hand glows world-wide welcome; her mild eyes command the air-bridged harbor that twin cities frame. "Keep, ancient lands, your storied pomp!" cries she with silent lips. "Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses yearning to breathe free, the wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, tempest-tossed to me, I lift my lamp beside the golden door!"

—Emma Lazarus (1849–1887) Inscribed on the Statue of Liberty

Course Description
As the topic of immigration takes center stage in U.S. public discourse, the opportunity arises to analyze various aspects of the current immigration debate in relation to the historical causes and consequences of migration to the United States.
We will address questions regarding the perceived benefit and cost of immigration at the national and local (community) levels. We will also explore the economic, social, cultural, and political impact immigrants have had on the United States over time, as well as the relationship between economic development, migration, nationalism, identity, and human rights.

Essentially, this course is about who is or is not allowed to enter the U.S., and under what circumstances; the ways the border is defined, understood, reified, and patrolled and what this tells us about national identity, citizenship and public policy.
Given that immigration as a political issue is one that emerges in times of economic downturns and because the idea of the United States as a land of immigrants is mythologized in the American dream, this course has as much to do with immigration and immigrants, national identity, and social forces, as it does with you, who you are, and how you see the world. Therefore, we will not be studying immigrants, i.e. human beings, as objects of study, but understand the historical ways in which immigrants have negotiated the pressures of their new surroundings and in the process shaped or redefined American conceptions of national identity and citizenship.

1. Quizzes (40%): There will be a total of four quizzes, one available every other week. The quizzes cover the reading materials for two weeks (Quiz 1 covers readings from weeks 1&2; Quiz 2 covers readings from weeks 3&4; etc.). The quizzes are located in the “Assessments” section of Blackboard. The quizzes will consist of 15 to 25 multiple-choice questions each. They are designed to test your knowledge on the reading materials AND films/documentaries. Every other week a quiz will be available to you for two weeks, beginning at 12:00am Monday through Sunday at 11:59pm. You will have a 1-hour limit on each of the quizzes and can complete the quiz anytime within the two weeks during which it is available. The quiz schedule is as follows:
   Quiz 1: Available 05/18/20 through 05/31/20 (readings from weeks 1&2)
   Quiz 2: Available 06/01/20 through 06/14/20 (readings from weeks 3&4)
   Quiz 3: Available 06/15/20 through 06/28/20 (readings from weeks 5&6)
   Quiz 4: Available 06/29/20 through 07/05/20 (readings from week 7)

2. Assignments (15%): There will be two assignments. The assignments are geared to make you think about issues of immigration and express these thoughts in a clear and concise manner. The writing exercise will be approximately 2 to 3 pages long (double-spaced). Descriptions of the assignments are located in the “Assignments” page of Blackboard and will be available approximately one week before they are due. They will engage your critical thinking skills and encourage you to “think outside the box” when it comes to issues of immigration, nationalism, citizenship, etc. The assignments will be submitted via Blackboard in the “Assignment Dropbox” folder located on the left hand side of Blackboard. You must turn in your assignment with the subject headings “Assignment #1” “Assignment #2.” The assignment schedule is as follows:
   Assignment Entry 1: due 06/05/20 (Due Friday by 11:59pm)
   Assignment Entry 2: due 06/26/20 (Due Friday by 11:59pm)

3. Discussion Board (15%): You will be required to participate in Discussion Board every other week. You will have four Films/Documentaries to watch throughout the semester. There will be one Discussion Board question for each of the Films/Documentaries watched (4 films/documentaries = 4 discussion Board questions). You are required to respond to the Discussion Board question and respond to at least two of your classmate’s comments on the Film/Documentary. The discussion board is located in the “Discussion Board” page on Blackboard. The Films/Documentaries are located in the “Films/Documentaries” section of Blackboard.
   Discussion Board 1: Available 05/18/20 through 05/31/20
4. Final Exam (30%): The final exam will be a written essay. The purpose of the final exam is to allow you to not only obtain information and knowledge about immigration and justice, but also transition you into thinking about what you do with this knowledge. You will write a (5-8 pages double-spaced) persuasive/argumentative essay. Your goal will be to write a legal argument to deliver in front of the Supreme Court of the United States on a topic related to immigration. Details on the final exam are located in the “Final Exam” Section of Blackboard and will be available approximately two weeks before the final exam is due.
   - Final Exam description available 06/19/20
   - Final Exam due 07/03/20 (Due Friday by 11:59pm)

Academic Dishonesty
Do not cheat.
Academic Dishonesty is NEVER tolerated by UTEP or by the Chicano Studies Program. All cases are reported to the Dean of Students for Academic Sanctions. These sanctions may include expulsion. All work submitted must be original; students may not submit graded work from another course. Forms of academic dishonesty include: Collusion—lending your work to another person to submit as his or her own; Fabrication—deliberately creating false information on a works cited page, and Plagiarism—the presentation of another person's work as your own, whether you mean to or not (i.e. copying parts of or whole papers off the Internet). For more information see the Dean of Students website at http://www.utep.edu/dos/acadintg.htm

Students with Disabilities
If you believe you have a disability, you may wish to self-identify. You can do so by providing documentation to the Office of Disabled Student Services located in the Student Union Building East, Room 203 by phone (915) 747-4148 or email dss@utep.edu. If you have a condition that may affect you ability to exit safely from the premises in an emergency or that may cause an emergency during class, you are encouraged to discuss this in confidence with the instructor and/or the director of Disabled Student Services.

Please Note
I understand that this is a short semester course and some students work full-time during the semester. I am willing to work with anyone’s schedule and time constraints. The most important part of this class is that we collaborate together to make this an enjoyable experience. If there is anything I can do to assist you, please do not hesitate to contact me.
