COURSE DESCRIPTION:
An examination of Alfred Hitchcock’s cinematic works using auteur theory, and film analysis.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
After completing this course a student can expect to understand auteur theory, and why Alfred Hitchcock is known as one of the great cinematic auteurs. Students will also learn the importance of film sequence analysis, and how it provides deeper meaning to film.

GRADING:
If you take your assignments and screenings seriously, and participate in the class discussions, (i.e. asking questions, and sharing your opinions) you can expect to do well in this class.

LATE WORK
Late work will be accepted up to three days after the due date. 10 points will be deducted for every late day up to 30 points. No work will be accepted after 3 days. It is important to contact me if you are having any issues completing an assignment.

Grading Scale: 100
100 – 90 = A
89 – 80 = B
79 – 70 = C
69 – 60 = D
59 and below= F
GRADING BREAKDOWN:

Attendance: 10%
Participation: 10%
Mid-Term Paper: 30%
Mise-en-scene Group Presentation: 20%
Final Paper: 30%

REQUIRED READINGS:

Hitchcock, Revised Edition
by François Truffaut

This textbook is available in the UTEP bookstore.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Mid-Term: Choose any Hitchcock film that we have screened so far, and write a 7 page paper explaining 3 or 4 important scenes in the film. Why is the scene special? What makes it scary, suspenseful, or comical? What choices does Hitchcock make in directing the scene? Make sure to discuss the mis-en-scene, camera movement, and story points for the particular scenes. Include a works cited page. Note: Citations from the course book is necessary, but outside research can also be beneficial to your paper. Include at LEAST one outside source aside from the textbook.

Note: If you take your paper to the writing center for help I will add 5 points to your mid-term paper grade. You must bring proof that the paper was reviewed by the writing center.

Group Presentation: Choose any 10 - 15 minute film sequence and describe how the scene fits with what we have discussed as part of the attributes of auteur theory. The presentations should be the same length as your clip.

Final: In an 8 – 10 page paper explain why Alfred Hitchcock is considered an auteur. You can use up to 5 of Hitchcock's films for your analysis. You should reference the theories discussed in class, and Andrew Sarris’ criteria for auteur theory. Include at LEAST THREE outside sources aside from the course textbook.

Note: If you take your paper to the writing center for help I will add 5 points to your final paper grade. You must bring proof that the paper was reviewed by the writing center.

PAPER GUIDELINES

The paper MUST have a cover page and works cited page done in MLA format. The cover page should include your name, date, class number, and topic. The page should have a maximum of 1-inch margins all around. The font should be size 12, and commonly used like Times New Roman or Arial. Double spaced.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at www.utep.edu/dos, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.

CASS POLICY:

If you have a disability and need classroom accommodations, please contact The Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 747-5148, or by email to cass@utep.edu. Or visit their office located in UTEP Union East, Room 106. For additional information, please visit the CASS website at www.sa.utep.edu/cass. CASS Staff are the only individuals who can validate and if need be, authorize accommodations for students with disabilities.

You need to make sure to contact me the first week of the semester so we can discuss your accommodations for the course.
