COURSE DESCRIPTION:

An examination of Alfred Hitchcock's cinematic works using auteur theory, and film analysis.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

After completing this course a student can expect to understand auteur theory, and why Alfred Hitchcock is known as one of the great cinematic auteurs. Students will also learn the importance of film sequence analysis, and how it provides deeper meaning to film.

ATTENDANCE:

Attendance is Mandatory. Your attendance and participation are integral to the class curriculum. It is imperative that you attend class regularly and on time. Everyone is allowed one emergency absence. Your attendance grade will be dropped one full letter grade for any unexcused absence acquired thereafter. An unexcused absence is any absence without valid documentation explaining the reason for missing class. An excused absence will have valid documentation explaining why the student was absent. It is under the discretion of the instructor if an absence can be considered excused. It is the student’s responsibility to inform the instructor if they arrived late to class after roll call. If a student leaves during class the student will be considered absent. Since this course only meets once a week, if you miss more than 4 classes you should drop the course. DO NOT SCHEDULE APPOINTMENTS DURING THIS CLASS.
GRADING:

If you take your assignments and screenings seriously, and participate in the class discussions, (i.e. asking questions, and sharing your opinions) you can expect to do well in this class.

It is important to contact me if you are having any issues completing an assignment. Having a problem with your computer is not an excuse for not turning in an assignment. The university offers many options for students who do not have access to a computer. Technology support has loaner computers, there are computer labs throughout campus, and the library also has computers for students to use.

If you feel that you are unable to complete the course successfully, please contact the Registrar’s Office to initiate the drop process. If you do not, you are at risk of receiving an “F” for the course.

LATE WORK

Late work will be accepted up to three days after the due date. 10 points will be deducted for every late day up to 30 points. This means if the assignment is 1 day late the highest grade a student can receive is a 90, 2 days late is an 80, and 3 days late is a 70. This DOES NOT mean you will receive that grade, rather, it is the highest grade you can receive on the assignment. After the third day you will receive a 0 on the assignment.

If you are not present for your part of the group presentation you will receive a 0. There is no way to make up that grade.

Grading Scale: 100
100 – 90 = A
89 – 80 = B
79 – 70 = C
69 – 60 = D
59 and below = F

Hitchcock, Revised Edition
by François Truffaut

This textbook is available in the UTEP bookstore.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Mid-Term: Choose any Hitchcock film that we have screened so far, and write a 6 page paper explaining 3 or 4 important scenes in the film. Why is the scene special? What makes it scary, suspenseful, or comical? What choices does Hitchcock make in directing the scene? Make sure to discuss the mis-en-scène, camera movement, and story points for the particular scenes. Include a works cited page. Note: Citations from the course book are necessary, but outside research can also be beneficial to your paper. Include at LEAST one outside source aside from the textbook.

Note: If you take your paper to the writing center for help I will add 5 points to your mid-term paper grade. You must bring proof that the paper was reviewed by the writing center.

Group Presentation: Choose any 10 minute film sequence from one of the films we have watched, and describe why the scene helps show that Hitchcock is considered an auteur. Each student should pick one part of auteur theory to discuss. Each student should speak for no more than 5 minutes.

Final: In a 6 page paper, explain why Alfred Hitchcock is considered an auteur. You can use up to 5 of Hitchcock’s films for your analysis. You MUST discuss Andrew Sarris’ criteria for auteur theory. Include at LEAST THREE outside sources aside from the course textbook.

Note: If you take your paper to the writing center for help I will add 5 points to your final paper grade. You must bring proof that the paper was reviewed by the writing center.

PAPER GUIDELINES:

The paper MUST have a cover page and works cited page done in MLA format. The cover page should include your name, date, class number, and topic. The page should have a maximum of 1-inch margins all around. The font should be size 12, and commonly used like Times New Roman or Arial. Double spaced.

ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE:

The use of AI technologies or automated tools, particularly generative AI such as ChatGPT or DALL-E, is not allowed for assignments. Each student is expected to use critical thinking skills to complete assignments. Any direct use of AI-generated materials submitted as your own work will be treated as plagiarism, and reported to the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution (OSCCR).

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at www.utep.edu/dos, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.
