ATTENDANCE:

Attendance is Mandatory. Your attendance and participation are integral to the class curriculum. It is imperative that you attend class regularly and on time. Everyone is allowed one emergency absence. After that point your grade will be dropped one full letter grade for any unexcused absence acquired thereafter. Likewise, a student will be dropped after three unexcused absences. An unexcused absence is any absence without valid documentation explaining the reason for missing class. An excused absence will have valid documentation explaining why the student was absent. It is under the discretion of the instructor if an absence can be considered excused. Students will be considered absent if they are not present for roll call at the beginning of class. Likewise, if a student leaves during class the student will be considered absent. Students must be reliable when working in groups. Filmmaking is a group effort, and your fellow filmmakers will depend on you to be present, and willing to work hard for their projects. Take an interest in your group members' projects, and they will reciprocate.

GRADING:

If you come to class regularly and on time, take your assignments and screenings seriously, and participate in the class discussions, (i.e. asking questions, and sharing your opinions) you can expect to do well in this class.

REQUIRED READINGS:

Bare Bones Camera Course for Film & Video, 3rd Edition, by Tom Schroepel

ASSIGNMENTS:

Group Project: I will give each group a short script that you will use to create a 5 minute video. Each student will perform a different task on the project, and the group as a whole will edit the video. The A.D. has to send me a callsheet before the shoot date. It is the group's responsibility to find talent to act in the short films. Start getting in contact with potential willing participants from the UTEP theater department. The project must be completely finished including a proper sound mix, and end credits by the due date. We will watch the projects in class.

Preproduction Package: The student will create a preproduction package that will include the script, a shooting schedule, a shot list, a budget, and a lookbook. This needs to be in a folder.

One-on-One Preproduction Meeting: I will meet with each student one week before the preproduction package is due. I will check to make sure everything is being done properly, and help answer any questions you may have. You must bring the finished components of the production package to the meeting.

Script: Each student will write a 5 - 7 page original, fictional piece of any genre.

Final Video: Students will screen their finished film in class during finals week. The video should not be longer than 10 minutes in length, and should have gone through a proper sound mix, edit, and export. Students must also include an opening title and end credits.

Requirements

Each student should have an external hard drive with at least 50 GB available for this course.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at www.utep.edu/dos, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.
