SPRING 2020

INSTRUCTOR: Nakisha Acosta

OFFICE HOURS: Wednesday 3:30 – 4:30 PM Cotton Memorial, Room 307A

LOCATION: Liberal Arts Building RM 211

DATE AND TIME: FRI 1:00 – 3:50 PM

EMAIL: ntacosta@utep.edu

COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course focuses on understanding and appreciating film as a unique medium for communication and artistic expression. It will introduce students to a broad range of films, and cover film concepts, theory, and genre.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:
I. Students will be able to differentiate genres by examining films.
II. Students will be able to recognize different shot types, and editing and filming techniques.
III. Students will interpret underlying meaning in a film sequence by examining the mise-en-scéne.

ATTENDANCE:
Attendance is Mandatory. Your attendance and participation are integral to the class curriculum. It is imperative that you attend class regularly and on time. Everyone is allowed one emergency absence. After that point your grade will be dropped one full letter grade for any unexcused absence acquired thereafter. Likewise, a student will be dropped after three unexcused absences. An unexcused absence is any absence without valid documentation explaining the reason for missing class. An excused absence will have valid documentation explaining why the student was absent. It is under the discretion of the instructor if an absence can be considered excused. Students will be considered absent if they are not present for roll call at the beginning of class. Likewise, if a student leaves during class the student will be considered absent.
GRADING:

If you come to class regularly and on time, take your assignments and screenings seriously, and participate in the class discussions, (i.e. asking questions, and sharing your opinions) you can expect to do well in this class.

Completion of a group presentation, midterm paper, and final paper are required in order to pass this class. No late work will be accepted.

Grading Scale: 100
100 – 90 = A
89 – 80 = B
79 – 70 = C
69 – 60 = D
59 and below = F

GRADING BREAKDOWN:
Attendance: 10%
Participation: 10%
Group Presentation: 20%
Midterm Paper: 30%
Final Paper: 30%

REQUIRED READINGS:

Looking at Movies by Richard Barsam and Dave Monahan, sixth edition. This textbook is available in the UTEP bookstore.

ASSIGNMENTS:

Mid-Term Paper: Choose any film discussed in class or listed in the book, and write a six to seven page paper explaining its genre. Make sure to include examples of why that particular film is considered part of the genre. Include a cover page and works cited page. Note: You must use your course book as a source, along with two outside sources.

Presentation: Students will form groups of four, and give a ten to fifteen minute presentation on a ten minute film sequence focusing on mise-en-scène.

Final paper: Using any film listed in the course textbook, write an 8 - 10 page paper analyzing up to three scenes of one movie using mise-en-scène. Include a cover page and works cited page. Note: You must use your course book as a source, along with three outside sources.
EXTRA CREDIT

If you take your paper to the Writing Center and bring me a signed note from their office you will receive 5 points on your paper.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

The University of Texas at El Paso prides itself on its standards of academic excellence. In all matters of intellectual pursuit, UTEP faculty and students must strive to achieve excellence based on the quality of work produced by the individual. In the classroom and in all other academic activities, students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Any form of academic dishonesty is an affront to the pursuit of knowledge and jeopardizes the quality of the degree awarded to all graduates of UTEP. It is imperative, therefore, that the members of this academic community understand the regulations pertaining to academic integrity and that all faculty insist on adherence to these standards. Any student who commits an act of academic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Academic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, and any act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts. Proven violations of the detailed regulations, as printed in the Handbook of Operating Procedures (HOP), and available in the Office of the Dean of Students and on the homepage of the Dean of Students at www.utep.edu/dos, may result in sanctions ranging from disciplinary probation, to a failing grade on the work in question, to a failing grade in the course, to suspension or dismissal, among others.

CASS POLICY
