Course description
This course in keyboard musicianship is the first of a four-semester track of Piano Class. The course is an introduction to keyboard skills and musicianship designed to gain abilities with the basics of music and develop functional skills such as keyboard orientation, reading skills in treble and bass clef, introduction to harmonization and improvisation, beginning technical skills, and use of technology. All these areas are covered with a great variety of musical selections of all styles including solo and ensemble pieces.

Course objective
The student will be able to:
- read treble and bass clefs at the keyboard
- perform all major and minor five finger patterns
- play major scales and arpeggios 2 octaves hands together
- play all major and minor triads and dominant seventh chords
- play primary chord progression in all major keys
- perform classical and popular solo repertoire
- perform keyboard ensemble pieces (duos, trios, quartets)
- harmonize and accompany simple melodies with and without given chords symbols, reading from Roman numerals and letter symbols, using the harmonic progressions studied in the course.
- improvise simple melodies on the studied scales (pentatonic, chromatic, major and minor) and improvise different accompaniment patterns (block chords, arpeggios, Alberti bass, waltz, etc) using the harmonic progressions studied in the course.
