Course Description

The course focus on the development and improvement of keyboard skills such as repertoire, technique, music reading, improvisation, harmonization, score reading, transposition, and the use of technology. The course is intended to reinforce students' understanding of both written and aural skills theoretical concepts.

The class is divided in two components: Skill Checks and Tests, they are both part of the "Proficiency Exam." Each Skill Check is designed to check your proficiency in a specific area such as transposition, score reading, accompaniment, harmonization, solo repertoire, etc. Each test is designed to cover more than one area and to expand the skill checks' scope.

All these areas are covers with a great variety of musical selections of all styles including solo and ensemble pieces. This course is not available for Graduate level credit.

Prerequisite: MUSA 2271.

Course Goals / Objectives

To provide the students the basic knowledge of keyboard skills, applied harmony and improvisation to the keyboard, and the use of technology. These skills are essentials for the development of the student as musicians and educators.

Course Content / Outcome

The student will be able to:

- achieve technical skills: movement over the entire keyboard, sound production, syncopated pedaling, arpeggios, double notes, contrasting articulations.
- Play all major and harmonic minor scales. Two octaves, hands together in , Minimum MM  = 50
- Play chords: triads and inversions in all major and minor keys, seventh chords and inversions.
- Play four-part ensembles, band and choral reading including transposing instruments.

- Create and play two-hand accompaniment.
- Harmonize melodies using the harmonic structures studied in these chapters, with and without chord symbols provided (Roman numerals and letter symbols).
- Improvise simple melodies on a given harmonic progression and scale (major, minor, pentatonic, whole-tone, blues, chromatic, modes); and improvise different styles of accompaniments (block chords, arpeggios, Alberti bass, waltz, etc) on the harmonic structures studied in the course
- Perform solo and ensemble repertoire from a variety of styles and periods.
- Sight read.
- Transpose.
- Perform multi-track recording and sequencing.

Attendance

- Attendance is required and will be taken at the beginning of each class meeting. .
- Absences: you are allowed to have 3 unexcused absences during the semester.
- Your grade will be dropped 3% points for every unexcused absence beyond the 3 allowed.
- Each tardy will be considered 1/2 absence
- Excused absences should be, if possible at all, notified to the instructor in advance, and followed by a note from the Music Department's Chair, Dean of the college, or doctor.
