Course Description

The goal of Rhetoric and Writing Studies 1301 is to develop students' critical thinking skills in order to facilitate effective communication in educational, professional, and social contexts. Effective communication is based on an awareness of and appreciation for discourse communities as well as knowledge specific to subject matter, genre, rhetorical strategy, and writing process. This course is designed to prepare you for the writing you will do throughout your university experience as well as in professional and civic environments. It offers you a curriculum that empowers you to determine the most effective rhetorical strategies, arrangements, and media to use in different rhetorical contexts.

Course Outcomes

Throughout this course, students will

- Understand a theory of discourse communities.
- Engage as a community of writers who dialogue across texts, argue, and build on each other's work.
- Draw on existing knowledge bases to create "new" or "transformed" knowledge.
- Develop a knowledge of genres as they are defined and stabilized within discourse communities.
- Address the specific, immediate rhetorical situations of individual communicative acts.
- Develop procedural knowledge of the writing task in its various phases.
- Engage in reflection about their own learning.

This course is also designed to promote your overall success, inside and outside the classroom. The coursework will help you to improve in key areas such as Communication, Confidence, Critical Thinking, Leadership, Problem Solving, Social Responsibility, and Teamwork. To find out more about the university's plan to improve student engagement and learning, visit the UTEP Edge.

Course Assignments

Grade Breakdown

■ Journals ■ Major Assignments ■ Activities & Participation

RWS 1301 is graded on a scale of 0-1000. The course assignments are outlined below. Please note that specific instructions will be provided on Blackboard, in The First-Year Composition Handbook, and in class.

1. Journals: You will reflect on readings by writing journal responses on Blackboard. These reading journals will serve as a springboard for our discussion of each reading. 150 points.
2. Activities & Participation: You will engage in a series of in-class activities that build toward major assignments. Attendance, participation, and peer-review activities will also contribute to this portion of your course grade. 150 points.
3. Major Assignments: The major assignments are as follows (700 total points):
 - a. Discourse Community Ethnography: You will study the communication practices of a community and consider how well it meets the criteria for discourse communities set forward by John Swales in “The Concept of Discourse Community.” 150 points

- b. Website Analysis and Group Presentation: You will deliver an in-class group presentation in which you conduct a detailed rhetorical analysis of a website. 100 points.
- c. Annotated Bibliography: You will cite and summarize 7-10 credible sources in preparation for your Global Issues Report. 50 points.
- d. Global Issues Report: You will synthesize credible sources into an informative report on a significant global problem. 125 points.
- e. Public Service Announcement: You will collaborate on a group video project that concisely advocates for action on a significant social issue. 150 points.
- f. Visual Argument Presentation: You will deliver an in-class group presentation in which you explain your Public Service Announcement and reflect on the process of making it. 25 points.
- g. E-Portfolio/Blog: You will create an online writing e-portfolio in which you will reflect on your experiences throughout the semester. 100 points.

Classroom Policies

Late Work: For major assignments, I accept late work for 12 hours after the assigned due date. Group presentations must be delivered in class on the assigned due date.

Project Format: All projects will be turned in through the Blackboard learning modules. Assignments should be double-spaced, in 12-point Times New Roman or a font of similar size. Please submit assignments in .doc or .docx format (and not .pages format).

Extra Credit @ The University Writing Center: You can earn extra credit by visiting the Writing Center, either in person or online at uwc.utep.edu. Each visit counts for 2.5 points towards the final score of a major assignment, for up to five points per assignment and up to 25 total points. To receive extra credit, bring me your UWC visit sheets.

Attendance: You are expected to attend all class meetings and to participate in discussions and activities. You can miss six classes, which is two weeks' worth of class, before you are dropped from the course. Please notify me as soon as possible if you encounter extraordinary circumstances that affect your ability to attend class.

Course Drop Deadline: November 1st, 2019

Each semester has a drop date beyond which an instructor can no longer drop a student with a "W." Students who fail to attend or fulfill assignments after the drop date must necessarily receive an "F." However, in the event of exceptional circumstances, and with the approval of the instructor of the course and the academic dean, a grade of "W" may be obtained. The student is responsible for supplying written documentation to support the request for a "W." Acceptable reasons for a "W" include: personal or family medical emergencies, death of family member, military leave, or an exceptional work schedule that prevents you from completing the course.

Academic Integrity: Students are expected to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity. Academic dishonesty is NEVER tolerated by UTEP or the First-Year Composition Program. All cases are reported to the Office of Student Conflict and Conduct Resolution for adjudication. All work submitted must be original; students may not submit graded work from another course. Forms of academic dishonesty include plagiarism, collusion, and cheating. Read more at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/osccr/student-conduct/academic-integrity.html>

Copyright and Fair Use: The University requires all members of its community to follow copyright and fair use requirements. You are individually and solely responsible for violations of copyright and fair use laws. The University will neither protect nor defend you nor assume any responsibility for student violations of fair use laws. Violations of copyright laws could subject you to federal and state civil penalties and criminal liability, as well as disciplinary action under University policies.

Military Student Success Center: If you are a military student (veteran, dependent, active), consider visiting the Military Student Success Center at Library Room 205 or online at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/mssc/>. Please inform me if you need special accommodations. If you make me aware of a complication, I will work to assist you or put you in contact with university staff who are trained to assist you.

ADA: The Americans with Disabilities Act requires that reasonable accommodations be provided for students with physical, sensory, cognitive, systemic, learning, and psychiatric disabilities. If you suspect that you have a disability and need an accommodation, please contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services (CASS) at 915.747.5148 or cass@utep.edu. CASS is located in Room 106, Union Building East, or online at <https://www.utep.edu/student-affairs/cass/>. You are responsible for presenting me with any CASS accommodation letters and instructions.
