
UNIV 1301

The Borderland and the Environment

Fall 2019

MW 1:30-2:50 CRN:16291 LART 206

Course Description

This university seminar course will lead the incoming freshman to learn about, analyze and research various topics related to the history and current status of the air, soil and water quality along the US-Mexico border area, focusing primarily on El Paso/Cd. Juarez. This course will emphasize critical thinking, research and effective written and oral communication whilst immersing students in opportunities for a successful university transition including student success strategies, effective career and advising guidance, and participation in community and college events.

Course Goals

- Students will develop and apply elements of leadership through effective individual participation and meaningful team collaboration to empower them to be agents of change.
- Students will examine the roles and responsibilities crucial for their success in college and beyond.
- Students will identify, assess, and build on their strengths and experiences to develop academic and transitional strategies necessary for success in their academic, career, and life goals.
- Students will engage in research and critical thinking activities that demonstrate their ability to effectively integrate their learning within, across, and beyond academic settings.
- Students will engage in campus and community activities to increase their sense of academic and social belonging.
- Students will learn about and practice essential study skills needed to be successful in a university.
- Students will learn skills necessary to research an academic theme, prepare and conduct a presentation with their peers.

- Students will establish contacts with professors, university staff and other classmates to create a positive environment and support group.
- Students will learn to assess and understand more about their own interests, abilities and values in order to realize their academic, career and life goals.
- Students will become involved in activities related to UTEP and also learn about the resources available to them through their campus.

COURSE ORGANIZATION: BLACKBOARD

- You can access Blackboard by logging onto www.my.utep.edu.
- Our semester will be divided into Blackboard Modules (Weeks 1-16). Most assignments, quizzes, and journal posts will be posted throughout the various weekly modules. It is essential to check Blackboard daily in order to be successful in this class.
- Reminders about course changes, events and activities will be via Blackboard.

COMMUNICATION WITH INSTRUCTOR AND PEER LEADER

- Communication with your instructor and peer leader will be via email or office hours. Please give at least a 24-hour window for a response.

Course Policies:

Late Assignment Policy:

- Late assignments (with the exception of Blackboard-related work) will lose points as follows:
- On the same day (after the class on the day they are due): 5 points off
- One day late: 10 points off
- After one day, late assignments will no longer be accepted
- All non-online assignments are expected to be handed in class, printed out and stapled on the day they are due.
- If you are expecting to be absent or out of town, your assignments will still be due on the due date. Please make arrangements to turn in your assignments on time.
- Blackboard chapter quizzes and journals WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED LATE
- Blackboard journals are due on Sundays by 11:59 pm (on the weeks that they are due).
- Chapter quizzes are due on Thursdays by 11:59 pm (on the weeks that they are due).
- If you did not post on your journal or take the quiz on time, the quiz/journal closes and you can no longer take the quiz/journal. You will receive a zero for that quiz/journal.
- If you are having technical problems you need to contact the Helpdesk 747-5257 with enough time BEFORE the journal is due. They cannot resolve your issues on time if you contact them right before the post is due.

Attendance, Punctuality and Professionalism:

- Attendance and Punctuality (100 points):
- After being absent for four consecutive days, you will be dropped from the course.
- After being absent for more than four non-consecutive days, you will lose 100 points of the attendance grade.
- After accumulating more than six absences (non-consecutive), you will be dropped from the course.
- Being late to class (5 minutes late or more), will count as a half-absence.
- Leaving class early will count as a half-absence.
- This policy refers to ALL kinds of absences.
- See instructor if you have extenuating circumstances regarding absences or missed work.
- University sanctioned travel with prior notice and proper documentation will be excused.
- Professionalism (50 points):
- Being present in class involves your full attention. While on the cell phone, students cannot give their undivided attention to the course lecture or activity. Inappropriate and excessive cell phone use, using any type of ear phone or ear bud, excessive socializing, disrupting class, sleeping in class, lack of attentiveness, disrespect towards instructor, peer leader and/or others are some examples of behaviors that can cause this score to drop.

- The peer leader will determine this score at the end of the semester according to his own discretion.
- Copyright Statement:
 - Some of the materials in this course are copyrighted. Violation of US copyright law can result in civil damages up to $100,000 for each work copied. Copying of textbooks is not “fair use” under the Copyright Act. The “fair use doctrine” only permits non-commercial copying of part (in general, not more than 10%) of a copyrighted work. Do not bring a copied textbook to this class. Your cooperation is expected.
- 1.1 Student Conduct (from the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs)
 - All students are expected and required to obey federal, state and local laws, to comply with the Regents’ Rules and Regulations, with The University of Texas System and University rules and regulations, , with directives issued by an administrative official of the UT System or the University of Texas at El Paso in the course of his or her authorized duties, and to observe standards of conduct appropriate for an academic institution.
- 1.1.2.1 Scholastic Dishonesty (from the Handbook of Operating Procedures: Student Affairs)
 - Any student who commits an act of scholastic dishonesty is subject to discipline. Scholastic dishonesty includes but is not limited to cheating, plagiarism, collusion, the submission for credit of any work or materials that are attributable in whole or in part to another person, taking an examination for another person, an y act designed to give unfair advantage to a student or the attempt to commit such acts.
- Syllabus Change Policy:
 - Except for changes that substantially affect the evaluation statement, this syllabus is a guide for the course and is subject to change with advance notice.
- UTEP Final Exam Policy (From the 2017-2018 Undergraduate Catalog)
 - Exemption from final examination may not be given. Final examinations are scheduled to be two hours, forty-five minutes in length and take place during the final examination period. It is the policy of the university not to administer a second final examination in the course. It is also university policy that students shall not have more than two final examinations in a single day. In the unlikely event that the examination schedule results in a student having three final examinations on a single day, the faculty member upon the request of the student shall reschedule the second of that student’s three examinations.
- Students with Disabilities
 - If you have or suspect a disability and need an accommodation, you should contact the Center for Accommodations and Support Services in Union East Room #106 (747-5148) or cass@utep.edu.
